that question. The only difference between this currency plan and the bond plan is that there's no interest to be paid and the money merchants, who do nothing to build the dam and deserve nothing, will get nothing.

"But how is all this going to stop war?"

"Simply because if tried here at Muscle Shoals, this plan will prove so overwhelmingly and amazingly successful that the American people will never again consent to issuance of an interest bearing bond for an internal improvement. When the Government needs money it will raise it by issuing currency against its imperishable natural wealth. Other countries, seeing our success, will do likewise. The function of the money seller will have disappeared."

"What would be the attitude of other countries about accepting this money based on Muscle Shoals?"

"There need be no difficulty about that. Some of our currency even today is not acceptable to foreign countries in payment of debts. Gold is the international basis. Muscle Shoals is a national, not an international matter. This money would only be for use at home."

"Do you expect congress will act favorably on your suggestion?"

"Well, I don't know as to that. Maybe they won't. But I'll bet the average American citizen will see the righteousness, the soundness and the common sense, of this thing."

"No matter what becomes of this suggestion, I shall act so that no money speculator will make anything out of Muscle Shoals, even if I have to take up the whole bond issue myself. I will see that the interest goes toward lowering the cost of the product. Understand that I am suggesting how this project can be financed in a better way; but if this is not done, we stand ready to do our utmost to save the people from the enormous interest charges by taking it ourselves and turning it back into the plant."

"My ambition is not to own Muscle Shoals, but to complete it, develop it, get it working, and then fix it so that it can never be exploited for private ends but shall always remain in the service of all the people, their own property, operated for their own benefit."

SINGLE STANDARD OF MORALITY

(From Chicago Tribune, April 14, 1922.)

A father of a daughter sat in judgment on another father's son yesterday in the office of Health Commissioner Herman N. Bundeson and applied the single standard of morality with an iron hand. The tears of the son and the entreaties of his father failed to move the girl's father, who had been given permission by Dr. Bundeson to "Pass sentence" on the case.

Incidentally, Dr. Bundeson announced that hereafter the age old "double standard" will be discarded in dealing with venereal disease cases. The policy of the health authorities which until, yesterday, resulted in court orders sending women found to be infected with a venereal disease to the Lawndale hospital and permitted the "man in the case" to go free, has been subjected to much criticism and has brought forth many resolutions from women's clubs. "Hereafter man and women will be treated exactly alike," Dr. Bundeson said. "The law says it is the duty of the health commissioner to isolate contagious disease victims. Sex is not mentioned. Venereal diseases are contagious diseases. The law will be enforced as long as I am health commissioner."

Yesterday's dramatic scene in Dr.

Bundeson's office was the result of a raid on the Plymouth Hotel, 4700 Broadway, on March 13. Among the couples arrested were a man and a woman who gave their names as George Ruskin, 22, Plymouth Hotel, and Anna Nichols, 20, 833 Montrose Avenue. Both names and addresses were fictitious. When the case came up in the Morals Court it was continued. Meanwhile the 20 years old girl, was examined and sent to the Lawndale hospital. Yesterday she returned to court, and was pronounced cured. She was discharged and the youth arrested with her was fined $10. A medical examination caused him to be turned over to the health authorities. In Dr. Bundeson's office the girl, the youth, and the girl's father faced each other.

"What should be done with this boy?" Dr. Bundeson asked the girl's father. "I have a definite idea of what should be done, but I will let you pass sentence." Then the father gave his "single standard" decision: The boy broke into tears. His father had been kept in ignorance of his plight through the assumed name. If he were forced to spend a month in a hospital the father, a wealthy furrier, would learn of it. In desperation he called his father on the telephone. The father hurried to the health department. "I'll pay a larger fine," he announced, but Dr. Bundeson only permitted the girl's father to reiterate his sentence. "I'll promise you that my boy will receive expert medical treatment at once and that he will remain at home until he is cured," the father entreated, "let him go." Dr. Bundeson turned to the girl's father, who is a south side business man. The latter remained adamant. "What was fair for my girl is fair for your boy," he declared. The young man spent last night in the county hospital. The girl went home with her father.

Under the health department rules, the names of venereal disease victims are not made a part of any public record. Following this practice, The Tribune does not include the real names of the girl and the boy in its account of the case.

Rupture Kills 8,000 Annually

Eight thousand persons each year are laid away—the burial certificate being marked "Rupture." Why? Because the unfortunate ones had neglected themselves or had been merely taking care of the sign (swelling) of the affliction and paying no attention to the cause. What are you doing? Are you neglecting yourself by wearing a truss, appliance or whatever name you choose to call it? At best the truss is only a makeshift—a false prop against a collapsing wall—and cannot be expected to act as more than a mere mechanical support. The binding pressure retards blood circulation, thus robbing the weakened muscles of that which they need most—nourishment.

But science has found a way, and all truss sufferers in the land are invited to make a FREE test right in the privacy of their own homes. The PLAPAO method is unquestionably the most scientific, logical and successful self-treatment for rupture the world has ever known.

The PLAPAO PAD when adhering closely to the body cannot possibly slip or shift out of place, therefore cannot chafe or pinch. Soft as velvet—easy to apply—comparatively inexpensive. To be used whilst you work and whilst you sleep. No straps, buckles or springs attached.

Learn how to close the hernial opening as nature intended so the rupture CAN'T come down. Send your name today to PLAPAO CO., 1338 Stuart Bldg., St. Louis, Mo., for FREE trial Plapao and instructive information.—(c) P. L.
