

General Intelligence.

LATER FROM NICARAGUA. Advices are received from Rivas to December 5th. Walker had arrived...

A few skirmishes had taken place between the advance guard. Walker's men are said to be badly off...

The 200 men hemmed in at the Church of Granada were destitute of water and subsisting on their horses. They nevertheless obstinately refused...

Mr. Morse, the American Minister to Bogota, had proceeded in the British steamer to Carthagena.

A. B. Corwin has been officially recognized as United States Consul at Panama.

The coalition against Walker is more extensive than is generally supposed. Not only all the States of Central America, but Venezuela, Chili, Ecuador, Peru, and New Granada, appear to be concerned in it.

"By Mr. CHAPMAN: A bill to complete the Capitol building at Omaha City, in the Territory of Nebraska, and for securing to said Territory the square on which said Capitol building is being erected and the other public grounds in said city, and for other purposes."

"We hope the bill may pass, and that the Capitol building of Nebraska, so long commenced, will be speedily completed. The numerous friends of our worthy delegate cannot but be gratified to observe that he is alive to the interests and welfare of the Territory which he so ably represents.—Nebraskaian."

GRACE GREENWOOD'S GOT A BABY.—Grace Greenwood (Mrs. Lippincott) has become one of the mothers of the land. Perhaps the following paragraph from her own pen announcing the fact in the "Little Pilgrim" may be read with interest by those similarly situated:

"Since I last addressed you, another year has passed over us—A peaceful and fortunate year to most of you, I trust, yet doubtless bringing to the happiest hearts and homes something of change and sorrow. To me it has brought the most profound and sweet, the most solemn and sacred happiness of womanhood—for within this year I have been joined to the great and noble army of mothers. I am now one of you. Oh, if there is a time when woman may feel that she, like Mary of old, is 'blessed among women,' it is when she folds in her arms her first-born child—feels the touch of its tender little hands thrill her heart strings—feels upon her cheek the first soft breath of a life immortal—sees faintly twinkling in the misty depths of sleepy little eyes, a love that shall yet brighten the world for her. This joy unspeakable, is Heaven's abundant compensation for all that is suffered by woman."
