The subscribers take great pleasure in informing the Planters, Farmers and Gardners, that they have secured from the most reliable sources a limit ed supply of Fresh Seed of this very valuable plant, the properties of which may be briefly summed up as follows:

lst. One acre of the stalks, properly cultivated, will yield from 200 to 500 gallons of fine Syrup, equal to the best New Orleans! and from the same roots, second crop of excellent fodder.

2d. Sown broadcast or in close drills, on land deeply plowed or highly manured, it will yield thirty to fifty thousand pounds of superior fodder to the

3d. It surpasses all other plants for soiling (feeding green,) and fodder, on account of the grea amount of sugary juice which it contains; and is greedily enten by stock of all kinds. 4th. It bears repeated cuttings, like Egyptian Millet, growing off freely and rapidly, after each cut-

5th. It stands drouth much better than common corn, retaining its green color and juiciness even after

6th. The seed is excellent for human food, when ground into meal, and fattens domestic animals very peedily. From twenty-five to seventy-five bushels an be raised on an acre.

The seed, which has been very carefully kept pure, from the original importation, will be offered in cloth packages, each containing enough to plant about one-fifth of an acre in drills 4 feet by 18 inches, with full firection for the cultivation, which is perfectly

GEORGE PAGE, Patentee. By Authority! THE STATE SUPERINTENDENT And Board of Education.

Have ordered the following Desirable Works for the Township Libraries of Indiana. Some of them have been put into every Library, others or v into the more populous townships. The careful attention given to the examination of works for these libraries, is a guarantee of the merit of the books chosen. Many families will desire to own the books, and read at their leisnre, rather than wait start East at that time for a new and full stock of their turn to get them from a library. The works may be purchased of Bookseliers, or will be sent by mail, free of postage, upon payment of prices annex-
