FRUIT AND ORNAMENTAL TREES. OVERMAN & MANN,

Bloomington, Ill., DEG leave to announce that they have, for t B ser ies of years, been engaged in the culture of hedges and hedge plants, and having been greatly encouraged by the success of the Maclura Hedge. and stimulated by the immensely increasing deman for the material, they have sown, the present season on good, new land, about 150 bushels of excellent seed-the produce of which is estimated at fifteen millione plants ! I which they offer for the Spring trade, It would have required more than that amount to supply the demand the past Spring. The terms for plants will be reasonable, and to dealers and othand filled in the order in which they are received,-For the last three years they have been unable to supply the demand, and it is probable that late orders cannot be filled the next Spring, as the domand is expected to be four times greater than heretofore, Plants will be accurely packed and delivered on board the cars free of expense, except for cost of ma-

They are also extensively engaged in importing hedge seed, which they sell on the best terms, an always warrant fresh and good; orders for which should be sent in prior to the 15th of October next. They will be prepared to sprout seed for such as de-

Having several extensive nurseries, they offer, at wholesale and retail, a large stock of thrifty Fruit and Ornamental Trees, Vines, Roses, Shrubbery, &c., at the following points, to wit: Bloomington, Ill.;
Mound Nursery, Canton, Ill.; Henry, Elmwood, and
Havana, Ill. All Fruit Trees warranted to be of the hest varieties and true to name. All information eheerfully given, and catalogue and premium essay on Hedgeing sent to all applicants. Address, OVERMAN & MANN. Feb. 5, 1857. Bloomington, Illinois.
