Are authorized Agents to solicit Subscriptions and Advertisements for the Advertiser, and receive and receipt for monies thereon.

JOB WORK.

With recent extensive additions of new Type, Rich Colorial Inks, Bronzes, Cards, &c., made to the "Advertiser" Office, we claim to be able to turn out Job Work in a manner unsurpassed by any office,—being the proprietor being a practical printer himself, and having in his employ an accomplished and experienced hand in the execution of Job Work. Cards executed in any of Foster's latest improved Card Figures, Blanks, Work in Colors, Bronze Work, &c., will meet with particular attention.

Orders from a distance will be promptly attended to and warranted to give satisfaction or no pay.

Persons resident in this Territory, coming from various portions of the States, often suggest to us the names of persons in their old neighborhoods, who would doubtless become subscribers if they could see a copy of the "Advertiser." We always send a specimen copy, and persons receiving, will consider it a solicitation to become a regular subscriber. Postmasters and others, feeling sufficient interest to make up a club, can retain the usual per cent for their trouble.

☞ Single papers, neatly enveloped for mailing, will be sent without charge, by visitors and others who wish to send occasionally to their friends in the States. ☜

Subscriptions received for three, six, nine or twelve months.

☞ Territorial Warrants and Nemaha County Orders—drawing interest—will be taken at par in payment for indebtedness to this Office. ☜

☞ The "Nebraska Advertiser" having much the largest circulation of any paper in the Territory, Wholesale Merchants in St. Louis, St. Joseph, Cincinnati and other Eastern markets where Nebraska merchants purchase, will find no better advertising medium in the Western Country. ☜

UPLAND CRANBERRY PLANTS.

WE have for sale, a few thousand plants of Hales' Superior Upland Bell Cranberry."

LAND OFFICE ARRANGEMENTS.

We are informed by the officers of the Omaha Land Office, that that office will be continued open for business in every portion of the Territory as heretofore, until the day offices are opened in the other Districts.

ANSWERS TO CORRESPONDENTS.

"A. W. S.," of Ohio: "How far is Brownville from the Kansas line? What are your school and church privileges?"

Brownville is thirty miles north of the Kansas line.

We have had a very good school, of course of the lower grades, taught seven months in the last year. We have as yet no school building. The Territorial School Law is very liberal, somewhat similar to the Ohio law. This year the Brownville District received $50 of the public monies.

Our people are mostly church-going people. We have preaching every Sabbath by some one of the denominations. The only organized church is the Christian. The Methodist Conference have made an appointment for this place, and we presume a church organization will be effected this season. There are numbers of those belonging to other denominations here—United Brethren, Baptist, Presbyterians, &c., nearly or quite enough of each to organize.

"W. R.," of Indiana: "Is Nemaha City in your county? How far from Brownville, and what are its prospects?"

It is in the same county, and five miles from Brownville. We think its prospects are rather flattering than otherwise. The town site of itself is unsurpassed on the Missouri; it is cut off, however, from being a river point by a heavy body of low ground lying between it and the river. Its proprietors think that a good landing can be secured. It is almost immediately at the mouth of the Little Nemaha river, and is surrounded by a heavy settlement and as good land—mostly prairie—as ever seed was put into. They are building and otherwise driving matters quite briskly this season.

"G. B. M'C.," of New York: "What is the population of your place? How many mercantile houses have you, and what, about what amount of capital do they employ?"

Our population is something over 500. We have three mercantile houses, with a capital, each, of about $20,000.

"I. C. W.," of Michigan: "Did your farmers raise a surplus of grain last year to supply emigration? What kind of a soil have you? Is it productive? Are horses or cattle used mostly by farmers?"

It was thought last fall there would be a surplus of corn, hay and fodder for any emergency; but the demand being much greater than was expected, and the spring unusually late, we have had to draw again upon our Missouri neighbors. Corn, however, has not been over 50 cents per bushel until quite recently: it is now selling at $1.

Our soil is black, rich, loose, deep and very productive. We saw a stalk of corn last year which measured 16 feet 3 inches in height. We measured the growth of a young apple, tree set out about the middle of May, which measure 4 feet 10 inches. We came from what is known as the "Miami Bottoms" in Ohio, famed land, the world over almost for productiveness, and we feel confident in asserting our belief that Nebraska soil is very far superior. Our opinion is backed, too, by men who have farmed both. There is something peculiar, too, about this soil: it is not affected either by wet or drouth, like other land, but will stand either extreme without injury to the crop in it.

Oxen are used mostly in opening up farms, after which horses or mules are mostly used. We notice, however, that some of our farmers who discarded oxen last year are looking up others again this spring.

Thousands of persons looking at the country have visited our town this spring, and all agree that Brownville possesses more natural advantages than any other town on the river. They are equally unanimous, too, in another matter, viz.: that we need more energy. These are both facts there is no getting around. Nothing under heaven but a lack of energy will prevent us from taking the lead, in a few years, of any other point in Nebraska. But, says one,—with considerable old fogyism in his veins,—have we not progressed rapidly the past two years, more so than almost any other place? Yes, that's true, we have. But is that any reason why we should "fold our arms" this season, "lay back in the shade," and allow some other point to spring into existence and outstrip us? Nonsense—worse than nonsense to think of such a course. We want improvement this season of a public nature more than at any time heretofore, and more too than at any time for years to come. Now is just the time we need them, and the fact is, we must have them, or will feel the consequent bad effects for years to come. The improvements we need most particularly now, are a good hotel, a good respectable church building, and a school house. We need a court house, but can get along better without that than the other buildings we have mentioned. Several attempts have been made to erect these buildings, but some trifling affair or other upsets the whole matter, the subscription paper is torn up, and the whole thing "fizzles." One man who owns considerable property wont give anything unless the hotel is built "next to those lots of mine," or "if you will agree to purchase this lot of me, at my price, and put the hotel on it, I will be liberal," or "if you will agree my friend Mr. —— shall keep the hotel, I will do something nice for you." Just such foolish positions as these have thus far prevented the erection of a first class hotel in Brownville. The fact is just this, we have a few persons here,—enough to "clog the wheels"—who are afraid some one will make a "dollar or two" more in an enterprise than they will.

It is high time we throw aside such childish feelings and actions, and act like men. It requires no argument, surely, to prove that every dollar put into public improvements in a new place like this, adds dollar to dollar in value of other property. Twenty thousand dollars put into the buildings we have named will enhance the value of property in Brownville fifty thousand dollars the moment they are completed, there is no mistake about it.

If we have "stepped on anybody's corns," we are sorry, but can't help it. As the preacher sometimes says, "duty requires us to be plain," and we intend to be more so in future, than we have been in the past.

NEW DRUG STORE.—J. H. MAUN & Co. have just opened up in their new room on Main street an extensive stock of Drugs, Medicines, fine bottled Liquors, Preserved Fruits, &c. We have tried a can of Peaches from this house, and find them as nice and fresh as though just from the tree. They have also a fine stock of goods "just suited" to the ladies—perfumery, and a thousand and one fancy articles "too tedious to mention." Call and see for yourselves.

MERCHANT TAILOR.—We have failed to call attention to the advertisement of Mr. E. E. PARKER, Merchant Tailor, who has recently come to this city. He has purchased property, erected a building, and gone to work like he meant something. He is a good workman, and we bespeak for him a liberal patronage.

Gen. Sam Houston is the American candidate for Governor of Texas.

We notice the St. Joseph papers, as well as some of our up-river papers, are complaining of a practice of which all our boats, perhaps, are more or less guilty in some degree, viz., charging as much for freight from St. Joseph to Brownville, Nebraska City, Omaha, and the Bluffs, as they do from St. Louis to those points. We have noticed this frequently, and heard no little complaint about the matter, and hope boats will see the impropriety of such a course, and in the future adopt a different one. There is also another matter we have had reason to complain bitterly of, and also heard much from others, that is the very careless manner of handling goods. It is nothing uncommon to have goods damaged more by carelessness than the freight and insurance both amount to. There is no reason why boxes well hooped and securely nailed should be broken all to pieces in coming from St. Louis to this place; and yet such is frequently the case. We call attention of steamboat officers to this matter, and sincerely hope they will consult their interests as well as that of others, and introduce a speedy reform. This "up country" opens up a "fat trade" for you, gentlemen, and you can well afford to exercise great care and attention in your business.

THE WHEAT CROP.—Speculators in flour have been endeavoring this spring to create a notion that the wheat crop this year is going to prove a failure. Our exchanges are nearly unanimous in pronouncing this a "panic for speculating purposes." We are satisfied, from all the information we can gain, that the wheat crop everywhere looks well, and the prospects flattering.

A NEW TOWN—LAFAYETTE, KANSAS.

Knowing the perfect mania for "laying off" new towns in this Territory and Kansas, we have heretofore, and intend hereafter to be exceedingly careful in what we say relative to new enterprises, lest we be charged with being "accessory" to palming off "fancy affairs."

A personal knowledge of a number of men concerned in the CITY OF LAFAYETTE, recently laid out on the Missouri river, Doniphan county, Kansas; a knowledge too of its location, many natural advantages, and the amount of capital actually engaged in giving it a "start," warrants the belief that this place will amount to something—that its proprietors mean something—in short, that Lafayette will be a point of importance in a very few years.

It is situated, as before stated, on the west bank of the Missouri river in Doniphan county, Kansas, eight miles below Iowa Point, twenty miles above St. Joseph, and seven miles from Oregon, Holt county, Mo., two and one-half miles below the mouth of Wolf river, and two and one-half miles above the mouth of Musquito. Surrounded by a fine agricultural country, with a supply of water, timber, stone and coal. A steam sawmill is now in operation at the place, and another, with which is connected a gristmill, in process of erection.

A PRESENT WHAT IS A PRESENT.—Hold on, now, and we'll knock the lid off this box, and "see what lies beyond—there surely is some good in store for us." Well, here we have it—Mushroom Catsup, Walnut do., Tomato do., extra fine Pickles, Turkish Smoking Tobacco, box Regalias, and—and bottle Native Wine, do. Brandy—one dozen bottles in all, and smoking stock to last all summer—all "manufactured and put up by JOHN WILLIAMS, Main street, Troy, Ohio." Well, that's tolerably "fat," but it's just like the "Injun"—he will do it that way, and we can't help it. He will "'ave" things about right, and "'eave 'em" at a feller too sometimes.

Our thanks are also due the United States and Richardson's Missouri River Express Companies, who were kind enough to send the box containing the above through on the "D H Line."

GIFT ENTERPRISE.—Stull & Co., of Nebraska City, are getting up what they call a "Grand Gift Enterprise," for the distribution of town lots in South Nebraska City, horses, carriages, gold and silver watches, jewelry, cutlery, &c. Mr. David Siegel and Charles Dorsy, Esq., are agents for this place. Tickets $1; drawing 2d June; number of prizes 3000. "Pitch in."

The steamer NEW MONONGAHELA made her appearance at our wharf on Friday last with an extra large number of passengers. The good management of her gentlemanly officers cannot fail to render her a popular boat in this trade. The clerk has our thanks for late papers and the boat our best wishes for her success.

SILVER HEELS.—This new and excellent steamer landed at our wharf Monday, May 18th, furnishing us St. Louis papers of the 13th. She was only 18 hours coming from St. Joseph to Brownville. It will be seen she is making the time of the season. Her trip before this one, was the quickest made this season. Her present trip, however, is ahead of that. Her excellent model, good machinery, and experienced officers cannot fail to make her a fast and popular boat.

EMMA.—We again return thanks to the gentlemanly officers of the steamer Emma for files of St. Louis, New York, and St. Joseph papers. This boat is well known in the Missouri river trade, and we need only say she is yet what she has ever been, makes good time, and has good accommodations.

OMAHA, May 9, 1857.

Mr. Advertiser:—I send you the townships in which the land is subject to pre-emption at the Land Office received up to this date:

Township.	Range.
16, 17, 18, 19, 20,	9
1, 2, 3, 4, 9, 10, 11, 12, 16, 17, 18, 19 20,	10

5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, 11, 12, 15, 16,	13
1, 2, 3, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, 12, 13, 14, 15, 16,	14
5, 6, 7, 8,	15
5, 6,	17

The office is constantly crowded with pre-emptors, and the Register kept very busy in the discharge of his duties.

The steamer Washington City has just been purchased by a company in Omaha for hotel purposes, and is to be kept as such until the hotels now under contract are completed and ready for occupation. I understand that Mr. Burham, formerly one of the gentlemanly and accommodating landlords of the Hamilton House, is to occupy it.

Fifteen thousand dollars was the price paid for the boat, just as she stood, including furniture and every thing connected with it. FRIEND.

PERIODICALS.

We have of late been somewhat delinquent in noticing the numerous excellent monthlies which find their way to our table.

HARPER, is still what it has ever been—conducted on a plan most comprehensive, and with admirable taste and judgment. It is well worthy the extensive patronage it receives.

PUTNAM.—This spirited work still maintains the "even tenor of its way." It must continue what it has ever been, popular everywhere in the United States.

NATIONAL MAGAZINE.—This periodical is conducted with marked ability. In addition to literature and art, a large space is devoted to religion. Its articles are not trashy, but well calculated to benefit intellectually and morally.

BLACKWOOD.—We have so often spoken of the character of this periodical and it is already so well known that we need scarcely do more than call attention to it. It is a work that brightens by use. We hope a club will be sent from here.

LITTEL'S LIVING AGE.—This sterling work gets the cream of all the newspaper and periodical literature of both this country and England. It is what its name implies, and he who reads it constantly cannot fail to keep well informed about this stirring age of ours.

DICKEN'S HOUSEHOLD WORDS.—"Familiar in their mouths as Household Words" is the motto, and to make everything useful and interesting thus familiar appears to be the object of the conductor, and right well does he succeed.

KNICKERBOCKER.—What has become of this old stand-by? It has failed to reach us for several months past.

LADIES' REPOSITORY.—This is a work of less fiction, perhaps, than any of the periodicals. It aims high in a moral point, and has the ability to carry it through. We look upon it as one of the most valuable of the monthlies.

HORSE SHOEING: a plain treatise, with illustrations, by WM. MILES, Esq., author of the "Horse's Foot, etc." Philadelpia: Henry Carey Baird. Contents—preparing the foot—the shoe—choosing a shoe—cutting off the heels—the nail holes—fitting the shoe—filing up the shoe-nails—nailing on the shoe—shoeing with leather—removing—General observations.

The publishers have furnished us a copy. Perhaps no matter connected with the care of that noble animal, the horse, has been so much neglected as proper attention to shoeing; and yet there is nothing more important. This work is just what is needed, and should be in the hands of not only every smith, but every lover of a good horse. It is a plain, practical treatise, in the simplest language, such as the least informed are familiar with, and every improvement illustrated.

HOOPER'S WESTERN FRUIT BOOK:

A compendious collection of facts from the notes and experience of successful Fruit Culturists, arranged for practical use in the Orchard and Garden, by E. J. HOOPER, formerly Editor of the Western Farmer and Gardener. Cincinnati: Moore, Wilstach, Keys & Co.

Through the kindness of the publishers we have received a copy of the above. We profess to have some experience in fruit culture, and have given this work a very careful perusal, and do not hesitate to pronounce it very valuable. The arrangement is admirable, and cannot fail to prove an acceptable companion to any lover of fruit and fruit culture.

WEST ARCHER.

Perhaps there is no point in Nebraska Territory that offers greater inducement to the speculator or settler than West Archer. Situated nearly in the geographical centre of Richardson county, and surrounded by one of the most populous and fertile farming districts in Nebraska Territory, it cannot fail to command an extensive and permanent trade.

West Archer is ten miles from the Missouri river, on the dividing ridge of land between the Great Nemaha river and Muddy creek, both of which streams afford excellent mill privileges. The falls of the Great Nemaha, three miles distant, is the best water power in the Territory. A sawmill on Muddy creek, 2½ miles distant, is now in active operation. The saw and gristmill on the North Fork of the Nemaha, is but six miles distant. These mills are now engaged sawing lumber to be used by the town company in erecting such buildings as the present press of emigration demands.

The mails routes from Omaha, Nebraska City, and Brownville, pass through this place to Iowa Point, St. Joseph, and Southern Kansas, and a cross line passes through from Oregon, Mo., to Fort Laramie; thus fixing on this point as the centre of travel and trade.

The merchant, mechanic and professional man can find a beautiful home and profitable business at this point.

AN ACT

To incorporate the Brownville Lyceum, Library and Literary Association.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the Council and House of Representatives of the Territory of Nebraska, That E. Brown, A. S. Holliday, H. S. Thorpe, G. W. Bratton, C. S. Langdon, D. L. McGary, Charles Dorsay, A. J. Benedict, J. M. Wood, J. L. Dozier, I. T. Whyte, J. Noel, H. W. Lake, and R. W. Furnas, and their associates and successors, be and are hereby created a body corporate and politic by the name and style of the Brownville Lyceum, Library and Literary Association.

SEC. 2. For the present the aforesaid individuals shall constitute the board of trustees for said institution.

SEC. 3. The objects of said incorporation shall be the promotion of and establishment of a Lyceum, Library and Reading Room in Brownville, Nemaha county, Territory of Nebraska.

SEC. 4. The corporate powers hereby created shall be such as are necessary and essential in the attainment of said object, and such as are usually conferred upon such bodies.

SEC. 5. The trustees of the corporation or a majority of them shall have power to elect such officers, adopt such by-laws, rules and regulations, purchase, erect or lease suitable buildings and grounds for the use of said incorporation; to purchase, receive by donation, bequest or otherwise books, maps, charts, and necessary apparatus to carry out the objects of the association, as they may deem proper and the funds of the corporation will warrant.

SEC. 6. This corporation shall have power and authority to raise a capital stock in shares of five dollars each to the amount of fifty thousand dollars, exclusive of such sums as may be given by donation, bequest or otherwise, and shall have perpetual succession.

SEC. 7. This act to take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved February 9, 1857.

AN ACT

To incorporate the Brownville College.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the Council and House of Representatives of the Territory of Nebraska, That A. L. Conte, Richard Brown, D. C. Sanders, and R. W. Furnas, their associates and successors, be and are hereby created a body corporate by the name and style of the Brownville College, to be located at or within one mile of Brownville, in Nemaha county, Territory of Nebraska.

SEC. 2. For the present the aforesaid individuals shall constitute the Board of trustees of said institution.

SEC. 3. The object of said corporation shall be the promotion of the general interests of education and to qualify students to engage in the several pursuits and employments of society, and to discharge honorably and usefully the several duties of life.

SEC. 4. The corporate powers hereby created shall be such only as are essential in the attainment of such object, and such as are usually conferred on similar bodies corporate, viz: To have perpetual succession, to make contracts, sue and be sued, to plead and be impleaded, to grant and receive by its corporate name, to do all other acts the same as natural persons; to accept, acquire, purchase, or sell property, real, personal, or mixed, in all lawful ways; to use, employ, manage, and dispose of all such property and money belonging to said corporation in such manner as shall seem to the trustees best adapted to promote the objects aforementioned; to have a common seal and to alter such at pleasure; to make such by-laws for its regulation as shall not conflict with the constitution and laws of the United States, or the organic law of this Territory, and to confer on such persons as shall be considered worthy all such degrees of merit and honor as are usually conferred by colleges and universities.

SEC. 5. The trustees of the corporation shall shall have authority from time to time to prescribe and regulate the course of studies to be pursued in said institution in the preparatory and other departments attached thereto, and to fix the rate of tuition, room rent, and college expenses, to appoint or employ instructors, professors, and such other officers and agents as may be necessary in managing the institution, to define their duties, powers and employments; to remove either or all of the instructors, officers or agents as said trustees shall deem the interests of said institution to require; to fill all vacancies of said instructors, officers and agents, to purchase books, chemicals, and philosophicals aparatus, and other suitable means of instruction.

SEC. 6. That the trustees shall have full power and authority to organize, in addition to the library department, a medical department, at any time when in the judgment of the board the interests of the institution and the public wants require it, and that the said medical department may be managed by a separate board of directors, whom the trustees may provide, and the property, assets, and liabilities of each be and remain distinct from the property, assets and liabilities of each other.

SEC. 7. The trustees of said institution shall not exceed nine, who may hold their office for the term of three years, to be so classified as to admit of an election of one-third of the whole number annually, and they shall elect a president, secretary and treasurer from their own body, the latter of which shall give bonds with such security as the board may require, and all process against said corporation shall be by leaving an attested copy with the treasurer of said institution, at least thirty days before the return day thereof.

SEC. 8. This corporation shall have power and authority to raise a capital stock in shares of twenty-five dollars each, to the amount of one hundred thousand dollars, exclusive of such sums as may be given by donation, bequest or otherwise, to be used as a college fund, and devoted exclusively to the purpose of education; and in case any donation, device, or bequest shall be made for particular purpose, and the trustees accept the same, any such donation, bequest, or device shall be applied in conformity with the express conditions of the donor or devisor.

SEC. 9. All elections for trustees shall be by ballot, and shall be given in person or by proxy, allowing one vote for each share of the capital stock raised, and such persons having the greatest number of votes shall be trustees of said institution; and in case of a tie where one or more of the trustees election is undecided, then the trustees who are duly elected shall proceed by a plurality vote and determine which of said persons so tied shall be trustee or trustees, and the election of said trustees shall take place annually on the fourth day of July at Brownville, Nemaha county, and under the direction of the board.

SEC. 10. A quorum for the transaction of business shall consist of a majority of the whole number of trustees, and all meetings of the board (except an adjourned meeting) seven days notice thereof shall be given, with the objects, time and place specified, and signed by the president and secretary. The secretary shall report annually through the medium of some newspaper in the Territory the progress and condition of the institution.

SEC. 11. The trustees shall have power to remove any of their number from office for any dishonorable or criminal conduct, but not unless two-thirds of the whole number shall concur in such removal; they shall faithfully apply all funds by them collected (or to be collected) hereinafter according to their best judgment in purchasing land, erecting suitable buildings, in supporting the necessary instructors, officers and agents, in procuring books, maps, charts, globes; philosophical, astronomical and chemical apparatus; to aid in the promotion of sound learning in the college.

SEC. 12. The said college and its preparatory and other departments shall be open to all denominations of Christians, and the profession of any particular religious faith shall not be required of those who become students; all persons, however, who are idle or vicious, or whose characters are immoral, may be suspended or expelled by a majority of the trustees.

SEC. 13. All the real or personal property belonging or which may hereafter belong to said corporation, shall be exempt from taxation for any and all purposes whatever.

SEC. 14. That the provisions of this act shall be interpreted liberally for every beneficial purpose hereby intended, and no omission to use any of the privileges hereby granted shall cause any forfeiture of the same, nor shall any gift, grant, conveyance or devise to or for the benefit of the corporation be defeated or prejudiced by any misnomer, misdescription, or informality whatever, provided the intention of the parties can be shown or ascertained beyond all reasonable doubt.

SEC. 15. This act shall take effect from and after its passage.

Approved February 9, 1857.

HOOPER'S

WESTERN FRUIT BOOK.

Practical use in the Orchard and Garden.

By E. J. HOOPER, member of the Cincinnati Horticultural Society, and formerly editor of the "Western Farmer and Gardener," with exquisitely Colored Illustrations of Western Fruits. One volume, 12mo: Price $1. Will be sent by mail for that price, or can be had of booksellers.

Our country, covers so large a space, that it is impossible to make books of this character adapted to all meridians. This volume embodies the experience of practical men, and will be found precisely fitted for the use of Western Farmers and Fruit Growers. The work has been carefully examined by several of the most scientific among Western Pomologists, who have given it the highest praise. The orders before publication day (April 1st), reached 2,500 copies for this work.

These books are worth working for and are worth buying because they possess a high order of merit.
