KEROSENE OILS, DISTILLED FROM COAL, (SECURED BY LETTERS PATENT.) KEROSENE ILLUMINATING OIL.—The light obtained from this Oil exceeds in brilliancy that of any other oil or fluid heretofore discovered; it is explosive, and will remain limpid in the very coldest weather. The Company recommend as the lamp best adapted to this Oil, the Kerosene Lamp, manufactured by the following parties: Messrs. Cornelius & Baker, also, Dyott, of Philadelphia, E. V. Hargrave & Co., 481 Broadway, the Brooklyn Flint Glass Co., No. 73 Broad Street, Messrs. Dietz & Co., 133 William Street, L. Mevler 137 Elm Street, N. Y.—Samples of different styles of Lamps can be seen at the Office of the Company. KEROSENE LUBRICATING OIL, No. 1.—Prepared to suit the finest, and all other kinds of Machinery burns brilliantly in Locomotive Head Lights, Car Lamps, and all the ordinary Solar and Hand Lamps, and stands as good a degree of cold as Best Spert Oil, and is admirably adapted to Railroad and Steamship use. KEROSENE LUBRICATING OIL, No. 2.—Superior Lubricator, and will be found to possess advantages over any Oil in the market at same prices will not burn—and has been thus prepared to meet the requirements of Railroads and others. KEROSENE ILLUMINATING OIL.—Prepared expressly for Ship's use, and will be found admirably adapted for use of Steamships, Men of War, Merchant Vessels, Lake and River craft, and burns in all saloon staterooms, binnacles, forecastle lamps, signal lanterns, &c. Binnacle Oil will remain fluid as long as best Spert, and will burn all night without requiring to be trimmed, an advantage that will be obvious to every Shipmaster. The Kerosene Oil can be obtained from the Wholesale Oil Dealers, Ship Chandlers, Druggists, and Grocers in New York, and the regularly appointed Agents of the Company in many of the principal Towns and Villages of the United States, the Canada, and the Islands of Cuba. Local Agents appointed (in conformity with the rules established by the Board of Trustees), on application to— AUSTENS, General Agents, Brownville, N. Y. N. B.—Circulars with full particulars, testimonials, prices, &c., will be forwarded on application as above. June 25th, 1857. v2-2ly Notice. THE PROPRIETORS of this new town, recently laid off in Nemaha county, Nebraska, wish to call the attention of the citizens as well as those in other parts of the Territory, to the advantages they offer, and are confident that they will take the trouble to examine will acknowledge, surround it. In the first place it is as near as possible in the geographical center of the country. Second, the course of population and improvement—is on the main thoroughfare leading North and South and East and West. The town site is nearly level, gently rolling is surrounded by the timber of the Missouri and Little Nemaha good water is of easy access, several fine springs are on the town site. Good building stone near at hand—stone coal has been found in abundance within a short days travel, which can be brought into requisition for mechanical purposes of all kinds. Another matter, it is confidently believed that this city is not far distant from the Railroad, which will be constructed along the river of counties in Nebraska, from the northern to the southern boundary. The nature of the country is such that this road must pass through El Dorado. With its position and all these advantages surrounding it, the proprietors with many others, feel assured that it will be for the best interests of the country to locate the city at El Dorado. Believing thus and feeling willing to assist the country we pledge ourselves and will enter into bond, if necessary, to donate to the County two hundred acres of land in return for the concession of a city site located there within a reasonable length of time.
