A man tried in Boston for stealing a horse and wagon, being called upon to speak for himself, said :... "I have nothing to say in particular,-

The fact is, when I get half or two-thirds drunk, I think everything belongs to me." Whereupon the Boston Post makes this act as if they think just as Joe does when John Phonix went to the theatre once, hen Mrs. Smith was advertised to appear in two pieces. After the performance, he demanded the return of his money, for he said Mrs. Smith appeared
