Main Street

By the indomitable energy and perseverance of our "City Fathers," Main Street has become the principal thoroughfare to the interior, leading west. The trees, stumps and brush have been cleared away, an easy grade made, the ravines and hollows filled up, and a good, substantial bridge constructed over the west branch of City Creek.

However, allow us to make a very imwe hope the mere suggestion, or calling be tresh, sweet and new.

Every article warranted as represented, and at prices attention to it will be sufficient. Let at be as low as any other house in the city for correspond tone! What say you, gentlemen?

Perambulating along the levee and the river bank a few days ago, our attention was called to the huge piles of wood, tree tops, rubbish, &c., completely blocking up the passage, and obstructing travel up the river. We allude to the levee north of the steamboat-landing. Has this been done unavoidably, or intentionally? Or did the permission so to do issue from the City authorities? It is not material with us by what circumstances, fortuitous or LUTHER TUCKER AND SON. otherwise, it happened. A removal of such obstruction should be effected. A footman-leaving teams out of the question-can scarcely find space enough clear of robbish, to pass up the river.

Another matter calls for a passing allusion, viz: The protection of the timber to be found in many of our unimproved streets and alleys. Hundreds of dollars worth of this property has been destroyed the past winter, and the city not benefitted one cent by the loss. Who gave the permission.
