Brownville, April 22. "COMBINATION PATENT." PRIGHT STEAM SAW MILL.

This mill commands the universal admiration of naw-nill men everywhere. As its merits become known, the demand for it increases. Orders are coming from every section of this country, Canada, Cuba, and South Ameri-ca. It is suited for every section of the world wherever there is limber to be sawed, no matter of what character how hard, how large or how small. Two extensive ma-nufactories are now engaged in building these mills, yet it is almost impossible to turn them out as fast as they are wanted. They embrace several valuable patents and improvements, and combine all of the following ad-Simplicity-Both the mill and power are so simple in their construction that any one of ordinary mechanical ability can comprehend them, put them up and run them without danger or difficulty,

Portability—The whole establishment can be very quickly taken apart and put together, thus remiering it Durubility-it is constructed in the most solid and substantial manner, runs perfectly still, is not liable to get out of order, and will last fur years without repair.

Rapidity—It will saw raster than any other upright upright mill. The speed of the last last three hundred strokes per minute, and the end from one-eights to three-quarters of an inch per stroke. Thus, at a medium speed the saw will cut through a log twenty-cour feet long in about three minutes. From this data any one throws the character of the timber. mowing the character of the timber can calculate how Efficiency-It does its work well, cuts amoother and traighter than the ordinary mills, and the arrangement of the saw is such as to render it utterly impossible for it to run out of line. Chespness—The entire lost of the mill, with afteen horse power and everything all complete and ready for running, boxed and ready for shipment in St. Louis, is This mill requires less power to drive than any other mill, and the power furnished is sufficient to drive extra machinery.

A circular containing full particulars will be sent to any one desiring it. All orders should be addressed to BRAGG & BURROWES, Corner Third and Market streets, St. Louis, Me., sole agents for the Western and Southern States.
