To Correspondents.
It is a rule of this paper not to publish anonymous communications. The names of persons writing for the "Advertiser" must always accompany their productions.

To Farmers.
Those who have engaged to pay for the Advertiser with wood, will find it gladly accepted if brought to this office soon.

Blanks.
Blank Simons, Excavators, &c. for sale at this office. Also deeds, of a form suitable for any State or Territory.

Health of Nemaha County.
With few exceptions ordinary good health has prevailed in this county during the season just past.

Winter near at hand.
Those of our friends who have not the necessities for the winter should be "up and doing."

Nearly a Fatal Mistake.
A young gentleman of this city came within an inch of losing up the line of march to that bourne, from whence no traveler has ever returned.

Look out for Wasps.
Just now it might be well for our readers to keep a sharp watch for this little stinging insect.

Accident.
Daniel Rodman's fine 2 1/2 ton got stuck last Saturday in the "mud pit."

Woman's Nose.
A lady writes to say she has a very large nose, and she is tired of it.
