FOR ALL THE PURPOSES OF

FAMILY PHYSIC THERE has long existed a public demand to effective purgative pill which could be relied as sure and perfectly safe in its operation. This is been prepared to meet that demand, and an era sive trial of its virtues has conclusively shows a what success it accomplishes the purpose desired. It is easy to make a physical pill, but not any make the best of all pills—one which should be none of the objections, but all the advantage. every other. This has been attempted here with what success we would respectfully mine the public decision. It has been unfortunate the patient hitherto that almost every purper medicine is acrimonious and irritating to the la els. This is not. Many of them produce so may than counterbalance the good to be derived by them. These pills produce no irritation of he unless it arise from a previously existing obsition or derangement in the bowels. Being pubvegetable, no harm can arise from their use n. quantity; but it is better that any medicine that be taken judiciously. Minute directions for the use in the several diseases to which they up plicable are given on the box. Among the m plaints which have been speedily cared by the plaints which have been speedily cared by the may mention Liver Complaint, in its various in of Jaundice, Indigestion, Languor and Los of h petite, Listlessness, Irritability, Bilions Hugh Billious Fever, Fever and Ague, Pain in the S and Loins; for, in truth, all these are but them sequence of diseased action in the liver, At aperient they afford prompt and sure relief in tiveness, Piles, Colic, Dysentery, Humors, San and Scurvy, Colds with screness of the book Da and impurity of the blood, Irregularities; it is any and every case where a purgative is required They have also produced some singulars a cessful cures in Rheumatism, Gout, Dropsy, Gre

Erysipelas, Palpitation of the Heart, Paraint Back, Stomach, and Side. They should be be taken in the spring of the year, to purify the and prepare the system for the change of season An occasional dose stimulates the stomach of bowels into healthy action, and restores the me-tite and vigor. They purify the blood, and, by the stimulant action on the circulatory system, mewater the strength of the body, and restore to wasted or discussed energies of the whole organis. Hence an occasional dose is advantageous, en though no serious derangement exists; but m necessary dosing should never be carried too fir. as every purgative medicine reduces the strend when taken to excess. The thousand cases in which a physic is required cannot be enumented here, but they suggest themselves to the man of every body; and it is confidently believed the pill will answer a better purpose than any thing which has hitherto been available to mankind. When they virtues are once known, the public will no longe doubt what remedy to employ when in need of a cathartic medicine. Being sugar-wrapped, they are pleasant to take, and being purely vegetable, to harm can arise from their use in any quantity.
