

Corporation Election.

At the election held for city officers, on Monday last, the following was the result:

- O. D. HOWARD, Mayor; T. W. BENDSON, Recorder; DAVIS SIBBELL, Treasurer; C. B. SMITH, J. B. MORRISON, Aldermen; J. V. HARRIS, J. W. HARRIS, J. W. HARRIS, Aldermen.

The election was well attended, and successful interest manifested; the great object being, on the part of all, to secure a Board of Aldermen who would take an interest in, and labor conscientiously for the various much needed improvements in the city of opening up and perfecting streets.

While no law has been behind other places in the way of improvements, and have advanced as rapidly as business would admit under all circumstances, there is yet much to be done.

We expect hereafter to "depart" from our usual course of creating "challenges" which go to often receive and decline, because of our position as a citizen.

Wants to Make it Pay. Motion and COMPANY, it is said, have received from Albany, New York, the bill passed at the last session of the Nebraska Legislature.

Local Items. True to his Word. An old vine cultivator says, "one year old vines are best; but cultivators are often anxious to have large vines, without thought that the top must be cut back in proportion as the roots are destroyed."

News Rems. The number of emigrants who arrived at the port of New York during the past year, was 78,589, or 105,180 less than during the year immediately preceding and 23,053 less than in 1896.

A Good Joke. It is rumored through the country that a certain assistant for Delegate to Congress—a man of stirring yet a merit—wishes to secure the influence of a certain politician, determination, and enterprising the like the enterprise would never be put through very generously offered a donation of twenty acres of land and ten thousand dollars in money, to aid in carrying out his plan in a neighborhood.

Wholesale Indulgences. We learn by the Omaha papers, that in the late District Court, the Grand Jury brought in a bill of indictment against various persons.

A Kentucky Green Horn. The Westport Star, in describing the route to the gold diggings, says: "There is a man now in this neighborhood, from Davis county, Kentucky, who came on some two weeks ago under the impression that he could buy a horse and travel along very comfortably at Pike's Peak this winter, stopping whenever he got hungry or sleepy, at one of the numerous 'mail stations,' 'staves,' etc., that are so thickly strewn along the route.

The "man in Massachusetts" ought to have known better than to lead a "woman bride to the altar." Better take one not so far advanced next time.

"Some Military."

The editor of the "Advertiser" being a "military man by practice and inclination," having the "free use of his limbs," able to "ride a horse with care and safety," and possessing a practical knowledge of the use of the "musket, rifle, pistol, broad and small sword," has been selected by Gov. Morrill, as will be seen below, to fill an "office of both honor and profit." He hopes to so discharge the "arduous duties" of his office, as to become "justly celebrated for modesty and a self-sacrificing disposition," and feel in the end the "proud conviction that he has done his duty" and have the consolation of having imitated the example of "worthy predecessors."

TO ALL TO WHOM THESE PRESENTS SHALL COME, KNOW that I have appointed you to the office of Secretary and Assistant Secretary of the Territory of Nebraska, in the name, and by authority vested in me, as hereby appointed by the President of the United States, and in full faith of the said President, I have hereunto set my hand and the seal of the said Territory, at Washington, this 27th day of March, A. D. 1899.

A Card.

To my ardent friends who so kindly presented my name before the public, as a candidate for the office of Mayor of the city of Oregon, I hereby tender my sincere thanks; but, though deeply grateful for the high honor they propose to confer upon me, by selecting me to fill that most exalted and responsible station, I must respectfully beg leave to decline in favor of some more capable and patriotic citizen. Allow me to suggest the name of Capt. Peter Price as a candidate for that office. Respectfully, B. B. FRAZER.

The above we clip from the Holt County News. We always knew that Ben was modest—very; but we think in this instance, he should have considered himself "in the hands of his friends."

Letter from Ft. Yuma, California. The following letter was handed to us by Mr. Heck, Pinkston of this city. Our citizens all know the writer. About the middle of last winter he went to Arizona for the purpose of mining; but finding there was nothing to be made, left there for California, and at Ft. Yuma wrote the following letter:—Holt County News.

Dear Heck:—I am now seated on the ground, on the west bank of the Colorado of the West, in the heart of the poorest country I ever saw, or ever expect to see; neither timber nor water except in the vicinity of the Colorado river.

The Washington Union, of April 1st, has an apparently semi-official article on the Clayton-Bulwer treaty, saying that the President has never changed his policy concerning it, that the American construction will be substantially carried into effect, that the Mesquite protectorate and the Bay Islands, will, no doubt, be surrendered to Nicaragua and Honduras respectively; that the substance of Sir William Gore Ouseley's instructions has been communicated to this Government only through Lord Napier, that it has full faith in the loyalty of the British Government, and that Sir William Gore Ouseley has exceeded his instructions in any particular, he will, no doubt, be called to a right account.

Steamer Omaha.

On Friday last, the reliable, well furnished, staunch, fast running and gentlemanly officered Missouri river boat Omaha, reached our wharf from St. Louis, and after leaving with us passengers and freight, left for Sioux City. Mr. Wilcox will accept our thanks for valuable papers.

The Hannibal. Also made our landing on the same day with freight and passengers for this place. She went down yesterday.

The Delinquent List, and the demand for advertising space by our business men, compels us to cut short reading matter this week, and for several weeks to come. Notices of a number of books and periodicals furnished us by publishers are necessarily crowded out.

Repaired. HERMAN UTCHET, Esq. of St. Frederick, informs us that the bridges between St. George and St. Frederick are again in good repair.

Scamers from Cincinnati. We see by the last Cincinnati papers, that some half dozen boats are advertised to leave for as high up the river as Sioux City.

The Weather. One would think the clerk of the weather had been on a "high" the past week. Cold and snow have laid an embargo on vegetable progress.

Nemaha County Corn. The Captain of the Hesperian informed us that a larger shipment of corn was made from this point than any other in Nebraska. There are yet many thousands of bushels to ship from here.

Judge Miller, passed up the river, on the steamer Latta, yesterday evening. As the Judge has arrived in his District, we suppose he will hold the regular term of Court for this county.

Presbyterial. The Presbytery of Omaha, will meet at Bellevue next Tuesday, at 7 o'clock, P. M.

Religious. Rev. A. S. HILLSBERRY will preach on the "Observance of the Sabbath," next Sunday, in Nemaha City, at half past seven o'clock, P. M. The Bible Class and Sabbath School will meet at church at the usual time.

100 Acres of Improved Land for Sale. The tract of land known as the "Cock Farm," one and a half miles south of the city of Brownville, will be sold on easy terms, if application be made soon. It is not disposed of before the 15th, first day of the next month, it will be sold to the highest bidder. Terms made known on the day of sale. A. S. HOLLADAY, Brownville, N. T. April 7, 1899. 4121
