Off for Texas. Hon, RICHARD BROWN and DANIEL L. McGARY, Esq., of this city, leave to-day for Southern Texas, there to make a permanent residence. We know we speak the feelings of many other warm friends of these gentlemen, when we say we regret to part with them. Mr. Brown as is well know was the founder of this town, in honor of whom it was named. He honorably represented this county two years in the Council branch of the Territorial Assembly, and has done much in only of Brownville and Nemaha County, but of the whole Territory. Where did yeh all come from?

Gen. Estabrook in his speech here on Saturday last endeavored to make a joke of Land Sales in Nebraska and other home matters, the people are not disposed to forget so easily. He tried to be unusnally funny and interesting, and actually "brought down the house" -- over THE LEFT, on one occasion, which so perfectly astonished him that he stopped-stammered, and very earnestly enquired "where did you all come from !!!!"
