Miscellaneous.
A Reviewed Prophecy Reduced to Rhyme.
We are the creatures here on earth of some supreme first cause.
Ere we were born, or Adam fell, that power gave us laws.
These laws were perfect, so we learn, and recognized by God.
Who would break them? presumptuous was his power,
Just then as now some lord of this King, and also his commanders.
One Ench taught them every day and labor'd with his hands.
A city by his skill was built; to God a temple given.
This work on earth accepted was; the builder took his children to his home.
The world now lost in wickedness; content with [out the law].
They neither had a prophet's voice, nor pious vision [law].
A Noah was with this king engaged in his work
And in his correspondence he was told to build an ark
[in power].
Yes! build an ark your God, command; all flesh
[in power].
My holy law they will not keep; water all must die,
A pattern now I give to you; let nothing be delayed,
And fall not, for it must be done just as the Lord
[has said].
Thus by the Lord of earth's commands did Noah sa[rely on].
And of all flesh into the ark there came by two and [two].
This Noah by the pattern wrought, nor murmur'd [against heaven].
Of beasts for food and birds that's clean he took them
[in by seven].
Now all these in the ark were saved before the wind [blow].
For just as God the model gave; so did Noah do.
Now had a thing been different, a plank too long or [wide].
The vessel would have scissel been, and founder'd
[in the tide].
Look further down the stream of time; A Moses [was sent].
The Lord he gave a plan to him and set three change
[in it].
Twas the pattern of the Mount, and this divine
[command].
By which the temple stood when in the promised land [was].
This temple when twas all complete was recognized [above].
By Him that doeth all things well, who fill'd it with [his love].
His presence fill'd the mercy seat; he said I'm God
[alone].
And I am Israel's savior too; beside me there is none
[alone].
This temple's fame flew far and wide; some err'd
[some err'd].
And some mistook in reason when and chose another
[for Lord].
A temple now to must have; Samaria boasted one
And Egypt too must do her part; so said the priest [of on].
And several others now were built, 'tis true by [zealous hands].
That on Moriah's mount alone was built by God's [command].
That pattern not to others given, their work not re[cognized by heaven].
They had no voice their ears to greet; no presence
[fill'd their sorry souls].
Yet Israel's king, to whom God gave such wisdom
and such plans,
Was made to sin by bowing to the gods of other lands,
To Moloch he an altar rais'd, and Baal was wor[ship'd].
The word then from his God went forth his king[dom to undo].
True teachers from it soon were driven, and one by [reason'd].
Said I alone of all am left and yet they seek my head.
The Lord then said not so bad, for many yet
[I own].
Who kiss not Baal and still confess that I am God
[alone].
This prophet by the power of God Baal's teachers [revers'd].
They pray'd and cried from more till night, and [then were put to shame].
The prophet call'd on Israel's God; their mocking
[he rais'd his ire].
He made them know he was his friend by answer-
[ing him with fire].
Elijah's heart was grateful too; he knew he'd been [a guest].
And for the ravens that him fed he made a noble [feast].
Not of the blood of bulls and goats was this great [describ'd].
But of four hundred hungry men who had been [teaching lies].
Yet Israel's still got worse and worse, more wicked
[still they grow].
God's presence left the mercy seat and back to heav[en it flew].
Their holy things were now expord, they had no
[power to stand].
And years threescore and ten they serv'd all in a [foreign land].
Their house of God Charles overthrow, the other [temples stood].
Why not of them have chosen one and said it was [good].
Up to that time God had not chang'd, his covenant [still was new].
And as he promis'd Abraham just so we find him do.
[He knew to him they would return when made to [feel the rod].
And for their sins sincerely mourn and own his for-
[their God].
You children I am God alone, when sought I am at [hand].
I will without your gold or blood now give you back
[your land].
A savior I have rais'd for you, a man you have not [known].
