Enlarging.

D. J. MARTIN & Co. are enlarging their store-room preparatory for spring trade. The room, already a large one, has now a new addition, making the depth 100 feet. Martin, the active man of the firm, is full of enterprise and goahead, and is determined to be behind in nothing. "Go in!" Mr. Nuckells of the firm is now, purchasing a complete spring stock, which will be here on first More Merchants.

We are soon to have three more extensive mercantile houses in this city, of which further notice will be given in due time. They will occupy the two business rooms in Whitney's new building, and the one in Dr. Holladay's.

We were shown this week a very ingenious invention, by R. S. HANNEFORD, of this vicinity; a bedstead fastening. It is entirely new and simple, and we should think ought to work well. Mr. H. will apply for a patent.

The public are now respectfully informed that the undersigned have procured from Cincinnati and partial operation one of Homer & Co.'s floor mills of the atest patent, and the first brought to this Territory. They were induced to exchange their former will for this one, from the high character they have gained in the east, and from the personal testimony of millers who have tried them throughout the Western States, and in view of the increased demand for grinding which will exceed that of any prayibas year in Nebraska, requiring a mill that will do the work better and quicker than any herotofore in ope-

In addition to their flour mill that will keep the Coro Mill constantly running, ready at all times to accommodate the farmers without detention, and by giving their undivided superintendence to the busices (assisted by their former milier, Mr. Wells,) they hope for the continuance and increased patronage of their friends. Assorted Lumber, Shingles and Latheonstantly on hand. GREEN & MANTES
