THE ADVERTISER.

R. W. FURNAS, EDITOR.

THURSDAY MORNING, APRIL 12, 1860.

FOR PRESIDENT IN 1860,

STEPHEN A. DOUGLAS.

Of the United States.

FOR VICE-PRESIDENT,

ANDREW JOHNSON,

Of Tennessee.

JACOB STRICKLER'S Annual Message takes up a large portion of our paper today. Hereafter it will appear in the form of a supplement, so that our regular advertisements may not be interfered with.

Whats The News.

Really we scarcely know; we have been so busily engaged since our last issue that we have not attempted to keep up with it. The Charleston Convention, however, comes off on the 23rd of this month; at which time and place Douglas and Johnson will be nominated as candidates for President and Vice President of the United States; elected next November, and inaugurated on the 4th of March, 1861.

Heenan, a New York bully, and Sayers, an English shoulder-hitter, propose to pound each other on the 16th of this month, on a bet of $8,000 or $10,000, and to gratify the hyena in a lot of other people no better than they are themselves. Hope the thing may turn out to be a second Killkenny cat fight—both used up.

Gov. Steward, of Missouri, has vetoed a bill granting State aid to Railroads in that State. He convened an extra session of the Legislature for that express purpose; then vetoed the bill. Great indignation is manifested in many portions of the State towards him. He has called another extra session.

The Homestead Bill has not yet passed Congress, and the probabilities are, should it do so, it will be in a mixed up unintelligible shape, something like the Nebraska Homestead Bill.

Kansas has not been admitted; most likely will, however, the present session; South Platte will not be attached.

The Senate Territorrial Committee has reported Bills to organize the Territories of Jefferson, Arizonia and Colorado, also a Bill to suppress polygamy in Utah.

Medill, Comptroller of the United States Treasury, has got himself into hot water in settling the Post Office accounts. Senator Green, of Missouri, offered a preamble and resolution, setting forth that his conduct renders it improper for him longer to continue in office.

The Connecticut election has resulted in the success of the Republican ticket, which secures to them a U. S. Senator. More of the fruits of "soft delusion."

The Carstang vs Shaw breach of promise case, St. Louis, after a long and tedious trial has been decided in favor of the defendant. It will be recollected this is a new trial; the first took place about a year ago, when $100,000 was awarded the plaintiff. The jury ought to have done the same again. Any man who will live a stag life to the the age of old Shaw; accumulate as much of this world's goods as he has; court a young confiding girl; making a thousand and one presents, ranging in value from a basket of fruit to a $500 Piano, and then, in one of his old bachelor freaks, throw off, and to justify himself in the eyes of the community endeavor to blacken the character of the girl, ought to be made pay the round sum of $100,000.

On Wednesday April 4th, the first Courier of the Pony Express left St. Joseph, Mo., for California. It is the intention to make the trip in 8 days. This is undoubtedly the commencement of a great enterprise—an overland Express company.

Jails vs. School Houses.

"BROWNVILLE," the Brownville correspondent of the Nemaha City Herald, it seems prefers Jails to School Houses. So we infer from the following:

"The Advertiser in an article asks: 'Is it cheaper to build jails than it is to educate our children in good morals, and thus prevent their becoming inmates of our prisons?'

"Furnas' hobby is education for the people or rather the children of the people—and right here allow me thank him for his noble devotion to the cause of Education.

"Furnas also framed, and was instrumental in the passage of our present license law, and in his zeal for education, appropriates the revenue arising from licenses, to the school fund.

"Bah! Only think of it! Educating our children with money derived from such a source! Who wants to have their children, as they grow to be men and women taunted with the fact, that they were educated with money derived from license to manufacture drunkards?

"I hope our next Legislature will so amend the license law, as will devote the revenue arising therefrom to its proper object—the building and support of county and State prisons. Then it would not be many years before we would have a strong and durable jail in

"BROWNVILLE."

Well, there is said to be "no accounting for differences of taste." If there were no advocates for jails, either by word or conduct, there would be no need for them. Hence, while we have among us, those who prefer "strong and durable jails," to good school houses; and others who think it "cheaper to build jails than to educate our children in good morals;" and still others who desire to be surrounded by the walls of a dungeon, rather than those of an Academy, we are forced to admit the necessity for jails.

But seriously, "Brownville," don't you think that a good educational system, and a high standard of morals would greatly decrease the necessity for jails, and be far cheaper, too? We do.

As to the sensitiveness of "BROWNVILLE," in regard to children being "educated with money derived from licenses;' it is far-fetched. By the same reasoning, or rather over-sensitiveness, the poor boy, unable to educate himself, would refuse an education under the common free school system, now prevalent in almost every State and Territory in this Union, because among the many tax-payers there should be a few men who had grown rich in the manufacture or traffic in intoxicating liquors! Or the christian would refuse to read his Bible because it might have been printed by an immoral, unregenerated printer. To paraphraze a medly quotation we believe in—in all your gettings, get education—honestly if you can—but get education.

Man Honored, Township Not.

The County Commissioners of this county, at their last session, perpetrated a hugh joke on a fractional township in the extreme Southwest corner of the county, range 12, Township four—named it Buchanan! We entertain serious doubts as to the future of that township. Don't believe the soil hereafter will produce even white beans; fear the inhabitants, if any are in it, or dare remove there, will be tormented with ague, apparitions, and all manner of similar afflictions; the same disease that ran a lot of swine into the sea, of olden time, will visit the neighbor's hogs; sheep will be killed off by the wolves; and horses and cattle die with the "sick stomach."

Seriously; we think the naming of the townships should have been left to the inhabitants of each.

Death of Rev. Geo. C. Light.

"Rev. George C. Light, of the Mississippi Conference," says the Nashville Advocate, "died very suddenly in Vicksburgh, on the 28th ult., at the residence of Rev. D. C. K. Marshall. He died on his seventy-fifth birthday. He first entered the ministry in Clermont county, Ohio, fifty-six years ago, and after residing for a while in Kentucky and Missouri, removed to Mississippi." We remember "Father Light" as one of the great, Methodist Camp-meeting preachers, in the days of our boyhood. He was a great, good and useful man.

In a Bad Shape.

An exchange says:

"There appears to be a new Mrs. Heenan turned up. Mr. Menken, the repudiated Spouse of Ada, has received a letter from New Orleans, signed "Josephene Heenan," wherein the lady claims the exclusive right to the hand of the redoubtable John C., to whom she avers she was married in the Crescent City."

QUERY: How came the "new Mrs. Heenan" in such a novel position; and is she likely to remain so any length of time "exposed to public view?"

From the Brownville Boys—Brownville Route.

We are permitted to make the following extracts from a letter to G. W. Bratton, of this place, from J. M. Cotton, of the first company leaving here this Spring for the gold mines. It is dated Denver City, March 25th, 1860. He says:

"We made the trip in thirteen days from Brownville, and can say the route from Brownville is the best to Ft. Kearny we have traveled. [Mr. Cotton has traveled the St. Joseph, Nebraska City and Omaha routes.] The roads have been excellent; not a drop of rain or snow since we left. We are all in good spirits, and health. Our mules are in better condition than when we left. Times are good, money plenty, and produce not scarce; American flour $25 per 100; Mexican do $16, and other things in proportion." J. M. COTTON.

Letter From the Plains.

Hackney's Ranch, N. T.,
March 25th, 1860.

FRIEND FURNAS: You will percieve by the date of this that we are fairly on our way, and have made pretty good time so far, having traveled five days and made about one hundred and twenty-five miles, and that, too, over the worst part of our journey. We reached here yesterday (Saturday) about two o'clock A. M., where we are now comfortably housed up for Sunday. Our friend Hackney is a pioneer in his way of entertaining his friends and guests. He is located about one days travel from the Little Sandy, near the point, where the Brownville road intersects the road from Leavenworth to Fort Kearney, and although he has been here but about one year, has things put up in better style than any other establishment we have seen between this point and Brownville, when he completes the improvements he is now making he will doubtless make as good a show as any other Ranch keeper on the road.

We have not yet seen much of the life and excitement of travel on this road. Rush has not yet commenced. The Pike's Peakers, however, have started, and some seem to be hurrying along with more speed than discretion.

The Leavenworth and Denver Express, extra, passed yesterday soon after we arrived. It stopped a moment and we had an interview with your old friend Gen. Larrimer, who was aboard with six other passengers bound for Denver.

We supposed when we left the Beatrice settlement that we had passed the Rubicon of civilization, and that we should not again meet with any sign of settlement, only occasionally a ranch on the route to Ft. Kearney till we arrived at Denver. In this, however, we were disappointed. After crossing Cub Creek, about six miles this side of Beatrice, we passed over an open prairie, for about twenty miles to the Little Sandy and thence to the Big Sanday, (near to where it meets the Little Blue, about three miles, at Patterson's Ranch, where we camped Friday night.

The pioneer has made his way to these streams, and from the Little Sandy to the place where we strike 18 mile Ridge, all the timber claims seems to be occupied. Here are settlements directly west from Brownville for a distance of about one hundred miles, which naturally would make Brownville their point for trade. There is not a better natural road anywhere to the Missouri river, from the Little Sandy via Beatrice and Tecumseh to Brownville, and a few days work upon the crossings would make it all that could be desired. Yours,

O. B. H.

The above letter is somewhat out of date—was received just after our last issue—but as it contains some matters of interest we yet give it a place. We have since heard of "O. B. H." and party, 120 miles beyond Ft. Kearny. They are now at the mines, undoubtedly.

For Sale Low to Close a Concern.

The Goddess of Liberty, being about to retire from business, begs leave to offer the entire stock in trade of her establishment for sale.

The G. of L. would offer, at the same time, the "good will" of the concern, but unhapily it is a long while since her excellent supporters and customers have exhibited any good will towards her. The attention of distant nationalities, who may be thinking about a revolution, Hungarians, Poles, or Irishmen, is specially invited to the great sale.

Among the articles for which she has no further use, and which will be disposed of, without reserve to the highest bidder, are the following materials in a slightly damaged condition:

LOT No. 1—Will comprise that most respectable fowl, the American Eagle, of the single-headed species, with his claws full of sheet lightning and thunder bolts. Warranted genuine. Any nation in need of an emblem will be treated with on the most liberal terms.

LOT No. 2—A fine assortment of Liberty Poles, with caps to match. The attention of L. N., who is said to have a curious collection of similar articles in his private cabinet in the Tuileries, is particularly requested to these worthless commodities.

LOT No 3—The beautiful motto "Epluribus Unum," which rendered important services in times past, but is no longer available for national purposes. The attention of the Argentine Confederation and the Mexican people is respectfully invited to this very excellent article.—The G. of L. is sorry to part with what she has heretofore regarded as one of the most precious jewels in her regalia, but the change in her circumstances compels the sacrifice.

LOT No. 4—The Stars and Stripes, which she would prefer to wrap around her, like the late Mr. Kirby of the National Theater, and die as would become a Goddess retiring from business; but she hopes, after the next Presidential election, to be on her feet again, and therefore she will not entertain the idea of dying just now.

LOT No 5—Will consist of a lot of fine sentiments, not at all the worse for wear, among which will be found, "The Memory of Wasington," the "Declaration of Independence," the "Rights of Man," "United we stand, divided we fall," "Sic Semper Tyrannis," "Give me Liberty, or give me death," and Governor Wise's beautiful sentiment, "The Union of the Whigs for the sake of the Union." A large lot of Fourth of July orations and Bunkum speeches will be thrown in, gratis, if the purchaser of this lot should desire them.

LOT No. 6—A large lot of national melodies, songs, anthems and choruses—an entire invoice, consisting of "Hail Columbia," "Yankee Doodle," "Adams and Liberty," "The Star Spangled Banner."

LOT No. 7—That lovely ei lolon called Uncle Sam, or Brother Jonathan, which has been found so very valuable for the purposes of burlesque and comic illustrations.

The Goddess of Liberty begs leave to refer to the following named gentlemen, for further particulars, who have been appointed the assignees for her estate:

REFERENCES—Robert Toombs, of Ga, Jeff. Davis, of Miss., James Gordon Bennett, of New York, William Lloyd Garrison, of Boston, Horace Greeley, late of Vermont.

Terms—Indefinite credit."

The above we clip from the Vanity Fair, and it is about the best take off on the state of national affairs we have read. The author might have added to the list of references the names of Seward, Bright, Fitch; and Wigfall of Texas in particular, who, on the Senate floor the other day, uttered the following:

"These Northern people, of all parties, are a mean, despicable set of starvelings, unable to see beyond a dollar, and caring for no consideration except money. Threaten them, and they will crouch to your feet like so many hounds. Only swear that you are going to dissolve the Union, and the timid creatures will get down on all fours, bite the dust, and kiss the rod raised to chastise them."

Wigfall is the man who left his native State in a hurry, for murdering one of his fellow-citizens, and went to Texas, when that country was considered a refuge for cut-throats from all the world. How he ever managed to get into the U. S. Senate, even from Texas, is a mystery.

Complimentary.

We find in the Cincinnati Daily Times of the 24th, ult., under the head "Western Towns," the following complimentary notice of city, and of our enterprising Bankers, LUSHBAUGH & CARSON.

"While many embryo cities in the promised lands of the West, laid out along the shores of the Missouri a year or two ago, in the full expectation of rising in a season or so to metropolitan dimensions, have now as wholly disappeared from the surface of terra firma as Herculaneum or Pompeii, there are a few well selected positions in which, ever since the first building was erected, the growth of population has been very rapid. Brownville, in Nebraska Territory, has attained a large population, and is the emporium of quite a considerable trade—the very well improved agricultural district back of it, is undoubtedly helping to build it up and nurture its present prosperous condition. A first-class real estate agency has been established in Brownville by Messrs. Lushbaugh & Carson, whose references to eastern houses, bankers and merchants, &c., include some of the most reliable firms in the country; and to these on recommendation of Mr. T. Shinkwin, Law Reporter for the Associated Press of this city, (who is well acquainted with the standing of Messrs. L. & C.,) the Hon. Wm. S. Groesbeck, late Representative for the Second Congressional District of this State, Judge Storer of the Superior Court of Cincinnati, and Henry Kessler, Esq., Sheriff of Hamilton County, have added their names."

Doings of the County Court.

To T. W. BEDFORD, Esq., County Clerk, we are indebted for the use of the Record Book, from which we extract the following proceedings of the last County Court. As the Session was an important one and much business transacted, we copy liberally, believing it will prove interesting to our readers in this county:

Public Opinion has declared that Curtis' Compound Syrup of Sassafras stand unequalled among the remedies offered for speedily curing diseases of the lungs, chest and throat.

His Mamaluke Liniment has become one of the staples articles of trade. Merchants might as well be without sugar and coffee. Every family should keep a constant supply of these medicines on hand. n23
