SWEET POTATOES.

A few thousand more Sweet Potato Plants for sale. It is yet time to set them out. They are in fine condition. Apply at the Advertiser Office Brownville.

To Correspondents.—We find upon our table a very large number of letters, requiring answers, which we will attend to as speedily as possible. Absence for near four weeks is our apology for seeming tardiness.

Notices.—We find on our table, for the month of June, the Knickerbocker, Atlantic Monthly, Ladies' Repository, Home Magazine, Cassell's Illustrated Family Bible No. 2, and Cassell's Illustrated Natural History, No. 4.

We have not time at present, to peruse them, but feel sure, from the established character of each, that they are good. We will notice next month more extensively.

Hon. R. Brown—This gentleman, one of our oldest and best citizens, and who, last year removed to Texas, has returned and located in this city. After a twelve month's peregrination through Texas and Southern Kansas, Mr. Brown concludes there is no better point in the country than Brownville, Nebraska, and consequently returns to his "first love." We are glad of it; he is welcome here, where he has a host of friends.

Hartford Insurance Company.—The undersigned having been insured in the Hartford Insurance Company, take pleasure in saying to the public that the moment the Company learned of our loss by the late fire they dispatched a special agent to adjust the same, and we have this day received the full amount of our policy in cash. Such promptness and consideration certainly deserves this public acknowledgment, and we commend this company to the confidence of our citizens. Their large cash capital, active and obliging agents, liberal system of doing business and promptness in paying losses will entitle them to their present high standing all over the country.

HAWKE & NUCKOLLS.

Nebraska City, May 22d, 1850.

Lushbaugh & Carson are Agents for this place and will issue policies as cheap as the risk will admit.

Sweet Potato Culturist.—We have received from the Publisher, J. W. Tenbrook, proprietor of Parke Nursery, and Sweet Potatoe House, Rockville, Indiana, a very valuable little book of 95 pages,—"The Sweet Potatoe Culturist." It gives practical instructions for cultivating and preserving for family use, and for market, and the best mode of sprouting, planting, cultivating, digging, and selecting soil and varieties. It is a valuable work. Price 25 cents. We have a few copies for sale for the publisher.

Stenography Acquired in Fifteen Minutes.—Any person desirous of learning short-hand in an incredibly short space of time, can do so by procuring Crary's Stenographic Chart. His system is an abbreviation of less than one eigth of common writing, and it is practiced by more reporters than any other system in use. After acquiring it, all that is necessary to report a speech or sermon is to practice. Price of Chart with full instructions, $1; ten copies $5; one hundred copies for $25. Perfect satisfaction guaranteed, or money returned. Address James E. Quinan, Agent, Monticello, Sullivan Co., New York.

[Any paper giving the above with this paragraph, one insertion among the reading matter, will be entitled to one copy.]

Allen House, St. Joseph.—We have no hesitation in pronouncing the Allen House, St. Joseph, Mo., one of the best conducted houses in the West, we speak from experience. The former proprietor, Mr. S. S. Allen, having deceased, the house is now conducted by W. B. Lounsby, Proprietor, and F. Knickerbocker, Manager. Mr. K's long experience in Eastern Hotels renders him qualified in an eminent degree for the place. We advise our readers to sojourn at the Allen House should they visit St. Joseph.

Fresh Drugs.—John H. Mauk, corner Main and First streets, has received the finest stock of fresh Drugs ever opened in this market. The "sick and afflicted" will surely patronize John.

Mammoth Bakery.—Read the advertisement of W. C. Comfort in another column. He is an old hand at the busines, and does up everything in superb style.

All hands about the Advertiser Office join in acknowledging the receipt of a fine, large and most excellent pound cake, such as Comfort keeps on hand or makes to order.

The River—Has been on the rise for several days past. It has risen over two feet in 24 hours, and is now in good boating order—sandbars invisible.

Public Documents.—Hon. S. G Daily will accept our thanks for public Documents.

Grand Lodge Meeting.—The Grand Lodge of Nebraska, A. F. A. Masons, commences in this city, on Tuesday next.
