City Bakery. See the advertisement of SAMUEL M. SUMMERS & CO., in another column. Sam. is bound to keep up in his business. Call around, "cool off," and take a lunch. You will not regret so doing.

Some Cake. Again the Advertiser office is placed under obligations to W. C. Connor, of the Mammoth Bakery for one of the largest and finest pound cakes we have ever "pitched into." Bill will have things in good order, and remember the printer. He cannot fail to prosper.

Amusements. There will be a grand Wheelbarrow Roll at the Mammoth Bakery, on Saturday, at 2 o'clock. All lovers of fun should attend and participate in Comfort's roll.

Mysterious, but important. A paper was received at the Brownville Post Office, to-day (Thursday) from which the wrapper containing the address (if it ever had any) was rubbed off. The paper contains a valuable article, which the owner can have by describing it to the satisfaction of the Postmaster.

N. B. The paper in which the article is wrapped, is the Chicago Press & Tribune.

The owner is requested to call for it immediately, or it will be sent to the Dead Letter Office.
