The Crops in Nebraska.-Owing to the extensive drouth the present season. crops in Nebraska will fall very far short of what they would have been ordinarily. As we have before stated, in this county, steadily through the dry weather, will years. prove more than an average crop.

Many farmers entertain a mistaken notion as to planting and tending corn. Too many furrow out the whole field before commencing to plant. Then when the seed is dropped it falls upon dry soil, is covered with the same, and unless the season is a wet one, cannot do well. Again, they appear to think when the ground is very dry it does no good to to plow. The fact is, the dryer the ground the more need for frequent stirring. Constantly torning over dry soil has a tendency to create and keep up moisture. As a general rule, and to secure a good corn crop n any soil, country, or climate, the seed should be planted in good time in a fresh farrow with a planter, or immediately after the plow, covered deep, and by al means well cultivated; especially if the season should prove as dry as the present

We recently took a short trip through portions of Otoe and Cass counties; met with farmers from nearly every county in the Territory, and from whom we were particular to enquire relative to the crops. What we have said in regard to crops in our own county, we are safe in saying is applicable to the Territory generally. Agricultural interests are surely on the ncrease in Nebraska. In Otoe and Cass counties fine large farms, well fenced, well cultivated; and provided with good wildings are numerous, especially is this the case in the latter county. In Cass there has been much more small grain planted than in any other county in the was very fair indeed.

The Weather.-For several weeks past, has been oppressively hot. Indeed, on two different days, we have been visited by perfect simoons. The thermometer high as 110, in the shade. The air was sufficiently hot in the shade to almost blister flesh, and in some instances vegetation was literally burned up. With the present financial condition of the county we see no reason whatever for county, warrants being but little below par. If some plan could be adopted by our County Commissioners by which the hawking of County Orders around, at from 50 to 75cts on the dollar, could be prevented, it would not only be creditable but beneficial to the county. We suggest that if the Commissioners would create, or set aside a fund with which to promptly pay the interest on County Warrants, semi-annually, they would not deone in Nebraska, the oftener it is plowed preciate in value, but would always pass current at their face.
