DON'T FORGET That every vote for Julius Sterling forton is in favor of Government apropriations being expended by a few on-resident fayorites of Buchanan, who ill as they have heretofore done, squanered 75 per cent. of it, and the Territoderive no benefit therefrom.

Produce Wanted .- Farmers and hers who are in arrears for the Adverser, job work, advertising, or otherwise. will cenfer a favor by furnishing us with heat, corn in the ear, potatoes, pumplins, wood, etc, etc. We want to lay in car supplies for winter. We havn't said money to any body for a long while; because we know it is not in "the market." Produce of all kinds we need, and will eceive at the highest cash prices. We want some corn and wheat immediatelly. Vho'll bring it.

Telegraph Script.—The proprietors the St. Joseph Gazette are now receivtelegraph scrip in payment for subons or advertising. Those holding erip in Brownville, and having it to spare ould probably do well to forward it to e Gazette at once, as another opportuty for disposing of it may not occur soon.

Personal.-We were delighted, yeserday, to meet again in our city, Col. OHN SHIRTS, of Mercersburg, Penn. he Col. first visited this Territory about year since, and spent considerable time looking at the country. He was deghted with it; and made investments ere and hereabouts, and is now with us gain. Few men are endowed with more xcellent social qualities than Col. Shirts. Ie made a host of friends when here beore, who will be glad to welcome him.
