

THE ADVERTISER. LOCAL.

BROWNVILLE, DEC. 13, 1860. The "Nebraska Advertiser" having the largest circulation of any paper in the Territory...

Bank, Blanks. We have on hand, printed in superior style, and for sale at cheap rates...

"Capitol" Joke.—CHARLEY TOMPSON, who presides over the "decenties" of "Back's Saloon," "slipped" into our office...

Willow Ware.—We noticed a wagon load of Willow ware in this city, manufactured in this country, by Mr. SUCCX...

Very Lively.—Last Saturday was an unusually lively day in Brownville. It seemed the country people were all in.

Daily Telegraph.—We are in receipt of the Daily Telegraph, published at Council Bluffs and Omaha by H. Z. CURTIS...

Steal Not At All.—Some of our subscribers complain that their Bulletins are carried away, before they get a chance to look at them...

Another Addition.—Our cabinet was increased the other day by a contribution from Mayor HILL: a piece of the Atlantic Telegraph Cable...

Street Work.—The weather being the Commissioner SUMMERS is putting street work through in "2.40" time. A few days' work more will put Main street in perfect order...

Oysters and Rich.—WORTHING, of the City Eating Saloon, has another having lot of fine, fat, fresh oysters, which you can have fried, fricasseed, or broiled up any way you please...

Bargains.—Everybody desiring cheap goods should not fail to come to Brownville. Our merchants can't be undersold in this upper country.

Another Chance.—Who wants money? BOEK M'DANIEL, of the "Capitol" will give the man making the largest run of Billiards on his table, between now and New Year's day, five dollars in gold.

Ranch Trade.—We notice an unusual number of Ranch men in our city, the past week, purchasing supplies. A private letter to us says: "Nebraska City complains that Brownville is getting more than her share of Ranch trade..."

Whisky Insurrection.—Capt. Whiskey took a notion to "secede," "dissolve the Union," "burst," or something of that kind, Saturday evening; a number of drunken rowdies were entirely too belligerent on the streets. The Marshal should promptly arrest such offenders; and if need be good citizens should assist.

Quite a Curiosity.—We noticed a real genuine buck nigger on our streets Monday, the third one ever in our place. He excited as much a curiosity as would an elephant.

Our Devil broke loose last night and perpetrated the following: Why is our daily like a "gentleman bovine," upon being turned into pasture? Because it is a Bull-let-in.

What is the difference between the City of Brownville and a discharged rifle? The latter has no Bull-et-in, and the former has.

Medical aid was immediately sent for, but previous to its arrival the said devil was resuscitated through the agency of burnt brandy in small doses, and a cold brick applied to his "phrenological box."

The "Series of dances" you "read about" commenced "down below," down below, the other night.

PETE on the "Highland Fling."

TRY IT! TRY IT! THE NEBRASKA FARMER.

A Monthly Journal, Published at BROWNVILLE, NEBRASKA. Devoted exclusively to the Agricultural and Educational interest of the "Far West" more especially that region within the boundaries of Nebraska, Kansas, North-Western Missouri, and South-Western Iowa.

TERMS.—SINGLE COPY $1; FIFTEEN COPIES $15. A liberal per cent will be given responsible Agents. Volume 2 commences January 1st 1861.

Treasury Replenished.—Not having the fear of sheriffs and others before his eyes, the proprietor ventured out upon the streets yesterday, and actually succeeded in collecting one dollar. We feel greatly encouraged.

Secretary Floyd writes to the Enquirer holding the right of secession, but he would not exercise it until every means had been employed to preserve the Union. He favors a State Convention.

At the banquet, last night, strong speeches were made favoring a Convention of the Border States. Mr. Balls opposed secession, and advised force if the laws could not be upheld without. This view was opposed by two speakers.

INDEPENDENCE, Mo., Dec. 7. The Santa Fe mail coach arrived here to-day. A band of Kiowa Indians detained the coach and passengers at Kaw creek, and kept them half a day.

CHARLESTON, Dec. 6. The Georgia Senate has rejected the resolution calling for a Convention of the Southern States. This is received as an indication of the intention of Georgia to secede separately.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 7. The House passed the bill to provide for an armed military force without opposition. During the discussion Mr. Rheist said there had been for several years in Charleston eight of the largest sized Paixhan guns, which might perhaps be used in taking the forts.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 6. Information here states that a force of 3000 strong was organized in South Carolina for the purpose of taking the forts there, whenever the government shall refuse to relinquish them after secession.

NEW YORK, Dec. 7. The Times' Washington correspondent says that the Governors of Virginia and Kentucky are arranging for sending Commissioners to South Carolina to urge delay.

to propose amendments to the Constitution of the U. S., to insure full protection to the rights and property of citizens of every State, and insure the equality of the States.

Laid over for the present. The Senate adjourned at 12. Latham memorial provides for carrying the entire letter mail by the Pony Express, and the residue of the mail to be given to Butterfield. The daily route to run through San Juan and Placerville. The statistics exhibited show its feasibility.

In the House, Mr. Vallandigham, from the special committee appointed at the former session on the Senate bill abolishing the franking privilege, made a report thereon and proposed certain amendments.

Mr. Cobb, from the committee on Public Lands, reported a bill to construe the words minimum price of the public lands.

Mr. Branch hoped that such bills would be waived, in order that Congress might consider measures of more importance. Mr. Cobb replied he would for that purpose withdraw what he had offered.

Secretary Floyd writes to the Enquirer holding the right of secession, but he would not exercise it until every means had been employed to preserve the Union. He favors a State Convention.

At the banquet, last night, strong speeches were made favoring a Convention of the Border States. Mr. Balls opposed secession, and advised force if the laws could not be upheld without. This view was opposed by two speakers.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 6. The President sent to the House, to-day, a very large mass of documents in response to a resolution of a former session; from a cursory glance at which it is shown that the cost per annum of the African squadron from the year 1843 to 1859 was $3,540,000 the cost for the present year is estimated at about $800,000.

Senator Yulee of Florida has written to the Legislature of that State, announcing that upon learning at any time of the determination of Florida to secede, he will promptly and joyously return home to support the banner of his State.

CHARLESTON, Dec. 6. The Georgia Senate has rejected the resolution calling for a Convention of the Southern States. This is received as an indication of the intention of Georgia to secede separately.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 7. The House passed the bill to provide for an armed military force without opposition. During the discussion Mr. Rheist said there had been for several years in Charleston eight of the largest sized Paixhan guns, which might perhaps be used in taking the forts.

Mr. Marshall said the State had 382 infantry companies, 60 cavalry, 18 artillery, and 62 rifle, making 121 battalions, 56 regiments, 16 brigades, and 5 divisions; a total military force of 60,000.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 6. Information here states that a force of 3000 strong was organized in South Carolina for the purpose of taking the forts there, whenever the government shall refuse to relinquish them after secession.

the popular heart cherishes the love of the Union. The New York Herald's Washington correspondent says after the House adjourned so severe were the southern men on Mr. Wilson that a bloody conflict came near being the result of a conversation in one of the Hotels, in which Mr. Wilson was charged with being a d—d black Republican.

Until the House settles the question of excusing Mr. Y. from serving on the committee, the chairman, Mr. Corwin, will not call them together. The report to-day is that Riggs & Co. and others, who contracted the last million loan, had advanced about six million-dollars and now refuse to pay any more on the ground that South Carolina, a member of one of the contracting firms, refuses her proportion and part of the bargain.

Late advices from the coast of Africa report the capture by the U. S. steam ship Constitution of the slave bark Corra of New York, with 700 negroes on board. The special Pacific R. R. Committee will meet soon. They will undoubtedly adhere to the old bill recommended last year, and action will depend much upon the course of the southern States; should a general secession of Cotton States take place no favor will be shown to the Southern route. It is considered an important matter by Republicans.

The Cataract City Bank of Patterson, N. Y., closed its doors Monday. The loss on its bills will be inconsiderable if anything.

considered in the Council to-morrow, and will probably pass that body in a few days. A bill to incorporate the Missouri and Western and Pacific Telegraph Companies has been introduced and will doubtless become a law.

Snow fell yesterday to the depth of 8 inches. Weather moderately cold. Fr. KEARNEY, Dec. 10. Capt. Steele with his company of infantry returned last night from Cottonwood Springs, where he met chiefs of the Ogala and Brul, Sioux tribes. They refused to come here and make treaty with the Commander. Talk of war in spring to avenge the death of a son of chief Oguala, Sioux, on the 28th of November, by citizens of Kearney city.

NEW ORLEANS, Dec. 10. There is an understanding between the members of the Texas Legislature to meet at Austin on the 17th inst., without a formal call from the Governor. It is understood the Legislature will call a Convention for the 9th of January.

NEW YORK, Dec. 10. Wm. Mulligan previous to his departure to Sing Sing prison, to-day, was married to Mrs. Serris, a boarding-house keeper on East Houston street.

NAPERVILLE, Dec. 8. Vanaman, who closes the Burch case for the complainant, not having concluded his speech at the adjournment of the court, the case will not go to the jury before Monday.

ST. LOUIS, Dec. 10. A new census has been taken in "Cincinnati. The total population of the city, including persons on the river and canal, and in public institutions, foots up 171,293 or about 10,000 more than the federal census taken by the U. S. Marshal assistants last summer.

Denver Sh.—Thos. Freeman, a well known gardener who lived two miles below this city, was murdered for money by an Irishman named Pat Watters. Freeman formerly lived near Racine, Wis. Watters has not been arrested.

The body of an unknown man has been found in the Platte river near Ft. Supton. From appearances, he had been murdered and robbed.

A negro named Clark, who has a white wife, shot a man near Central City a day or two ago. Clark's wife left him recently and came to Denver. He then tried to get another white woman to live with him, and subsequently shot her husband, but not mortally.

LEAVENWORTH, Dec. 11. We have information from the scene of the late troubles. The troops from Ft. Leavenworth had moved to Mound City, there joining a force of 150 men from Ft. Riley. Attempts were made to arrest Samson, but neither he nor Moot-gomery could be found. The rumors that Montgomery is prepared to resist, &c., are simply absurd. The inhabitants of Mound City and vicinity were much excited, fearing harsh treatment from the federal authorities.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 11. HOUSE.—Mr. Cobb of Alabama, expressed an anxious desire that the select committee should commence their business and present their deliberations in some tangible form. If anything was to be done to save his state, it must be done at once. The election of delegates to the state convention takes place on the 29th inst. and the convention meets on the 7th of January. Alabama would not remain in the confederacy longer than the 15th of January unless something was speedily done. He was not a secessionist. He desired peace.

Mr. Davis of Mississippi briefly gave his reason why he should serve on the committee. He might be blamed or censured, but whenever his conscience approved, he defied the opinion of the world.

The House voted and refused to excuse Mr. Hawkins by 95 against 101. Mr. Hawkins, lest sentence would be construed into consent, wished to say, with all deference and good feeling, that he would not serve on the committee.

Mr. Boyce asked to be excused from service on the committee. AUGUSTA, GA., Dec. 3. Mr. Prescott, bearer of the President's message to S. Carolina, was also charged with the duty of counseling the State authorities as to their purposes after the passage of the ordinance of secession, he returned last night, reports everything quiet, and no danger of collision with the Federal Government; to-day the arrangement is perfected, and things remain in statu quo until after the Commissioners shall have failed to arrange for a peaceable separation.

To-day a messenger from S. Carolina arrived bringing the vote of that State for President for the ensuing four years, he delivered the vote and drew pay for his services.

Mr. Buchanan has tendered the office of Secretary of the Treasury to Guthrie, who has accepted by telegram. The authority for this is reliable. The business of the Treasury was entirely suspended to-day, the President not having commissioned Mr. Clayton, Cobb's Assistant, to fill the office as in such cases heretofore. This omission was considered significant.

Reverdy Johnson, just returned from Cal., declares himself for the Union at all hazard and against all opposition.

The Dem. from the northwest have had several conferences, and they generally take the position set forth in Messrs. McClintock and Vallandigham's speeches yesterday, namely: that the Union cannot be dissolved peaceably that the northwest will under no condition consent to be cut off from the Gulf of Mexico and the city of New Orleans.

Lieut. Gen. Scott will arrive here to-morrow. BAYON ROUGE, La., Dec. 11. The Governor in his message to the Legislature recommends a Convention, and asks an appropriation of half a million of dollars for the purchase of arms. Senator Clay of Alabama has tendered his resignation, to take effect on the 4th of March unless Alabama should secede sooner.

NEW YORK, Dec. 10. Van Arman, who closes the Burch case for the complainant, not having concluded his argument at noon to-day, having spoken 9 hours. The Court then adjourned till 2 o'clock, P. M. On opening the afternoon session, the Judge read written instructions on behalf of both sides, 42 in all. He submitted the case to the jury at 3 o'clock. The jury were out an hour and a half, and returned a verdict in favor of Mrs. Burch. The verdict was received with demonstrations of enthusiasm which spread rapidly through the village. The counsel for the defence made a motion for the custody of the children and allimony. The Court adjourned.

THE TRIAL REACHED HERE AT 7 O'CLOCK, and was received with great rejoicings by the friends of Mrs. Burch. 100 rockets were fired from the roof of Tremont House.

ALEXANDRIA, Va., Dec. 10. Mr. Botts' letter on the subject of secession is an extraordinary production. He declares he will have no part in the wickedness of secession, and thinks that Virginia will not secede. He says the position of South Carolina is bold, plain, daring, flatfooted rebellion and treason. To the President of the United States he thinks the only question contained in the South Carolina imbroglio is, whether it is worth while to keep her in the Union. He believes that the federal laws should be enforced, and is bitter on the secession party.

CHARLESTON, S. C., Dec. 9. There is great activity at Ft. Moultrie. The defense is being rendered stronger. The Legislature will probably set during the Convention.

News from Alabama shows perfect unanimity in the State for secession, and the enthusiasm is increasing daily. Lincoln was burned in effigy at Ferdinand on Friday last.

Fr. KEARNEY, Dec. 11. The coach express from Denver passed here at 2 o'clock this afternoon, leaving the following:
