

THE ADVERTISER. LOCAL.

BROWNVILLE, DEC. 20, 1860.

The "Advertiser" has been published for the last year, and its circulation has been steadily increasing. It is the only paper published in Brownville, and its readership is growing.

Post Office Removed.—The Brownville post office has been removed to Dr. Holladay's building, on Main street, where it formerly was. The public will be notified and govern themselves accordingly.

Dance all Night, &c.—There will be a "grand dance" at Rock Port on the 26th inst., at Cook's. The Brownville Band will make the music, which will be good, "you can bet your bottom dollar." "Everybody is invited to come" and "balance to your partner" and "w-o-g" promenade all "first class" on the right balance to the gent on the left.

Literary Society.—There will be a discussion to-morrow evening before the Literary Association instead of a Lecture. Subject: "Is the passage of a Usury Law by the Nebraska Legislature demanded?" Principal disputants, affirmative, A. G. Schommer, Esq., negative, E. W. Thomas, Esq.

The public are invited to be present, and those desiring, to participate in the debate.

Solid Chunks of Fun.—Winchell, the veritable Jeff. Winchell, the funniest man on top of the ground, held forth in this city at Johnson's Hall on Saturday night last, and also on Monday night in the large Dining Room of the Brownville House. Winchell is a regular "button-bearer," "side splitter," and "blues" eradicator. Such an opportunity of "getting one's money back" seldom presents itself. His proficiency in mimicry; his accurate delineations of characters and tongues; his rapid transfer of costume; instantaneous change of physiognomy, all render him the most entertaining fun maker living. Everybody in town has been on the laughing list since Winchell gave his first exhibition.

Thanks.—Hon. T. W. Tipton, of the Council, and Hon. T. R. Fisher, of the House, have our thanks for legislative favors.

Arthur's Home Magazine.—Well, here comes the January number—commencement of the new year; "dressed all up in new clothes," and looking as fresh as a spring morning. In Arthur's Home Magazine there are leading characteristics certainly superior to all other periodicals. We refer to its admirable adaptation to the fire side. It is suited to "youth, manhood, and old age."

Terms $20, or seventeen copies for $20. Every $3 subscriber will receive a copy of "Seventy Six," or "He Knew the Scriptures from his Childhood," two large steel plate engravings, 16 by 23 and 14 by 20. Address T. S. Arthur & Co., 323 Walnut street, Philadelphia.

TRY IT! TRY IT! THE NEBRASKA FARMER.

Send for specimen numbers and Prospectus. 150 three year old apple trees will be given to the holder of the largest crop of 81 subscribers, sent in on or before February 1st 1861.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 12. SENATE.—After debate the House loan bill passed, previously returning the amount from 10 to 3 millions. Mr. Youle gave notice for a reconsideration.

After the bill passed the resolutions in reference to secession were called up. Mr. Foster in the Chair.

Mr. Wigfall commenced speaking, when Mr. Youle interrupted him and asked him to move a reconsideration of the bill providing for the issue of Treasury Notes.

Mr. Wigfall continued his remarks till 3-1/2 p. m.

When, on motion of Mr. Hunter, the Senate proceeded to the consideration of executive business; after which Senate adjourned.

House.—The Speaker, pursuant to an order of yesterday, called on the various States for propositions relating to the present condition of the country.

Mr. Thayer submitted a series of resolutions declaring among other things that the representatives of the people regard it as their duty to forget all parties and sections and devote themselves honestly and earnestly to the cause of the country, that any citizens of this republic willing to barter the public welfare for their own advantage, thus creating animosity between the States, are wholly unworthy the confidence of the American people; that the present unfriendly feeling has arisen from the usurpations of Congress and the Executive; that the rights of American people are above Congress and the President; that the Territorial governments should not be compelled to derive their powers of their consent; that they shall no legislation whatever on the subject of slavery; that every Congressional district shall be entitled to one presidential elector and each State to two on a general ticket.

Mr. John Cochrane submitted a preamble declaring a conflict of opinion dangerous to the peace and prosperity of the Union concerning the meaning of the Constitution relative to African slavery and property, an amendment to the Constitution to establish a dividing line similar to the Missouri Compromise line, and declaring all State laws infringing on the fugitive slave law null and void.

Mr. Morris of Penn. offered a resolution instructing the Union committee to inquire and report whether state personal liberty bills are in conflict with the constitution, also whether the fugitive slave law is susceptible of amendment to ascertain more certainly the actual condition of the fugitives.

Mr. Leask offered a resolution that the constitution ought to be so amended that Congress may have no power over the question of domestic slavery in the territories, that no territorial government has power to legislate on the subject, and asserting the right of the master over his slave while temporarily sojourning in non-slaveholding states, and that fugitive slaves shall be delivered up to be paid for by the States in which they might be rescued.

Mr. Smith of Va. introduced a resolution instructing the committee to report as to the policy of declaring out of the Union any State which may aim to nullify the acts of Congress.

Ex-Gov. Thomas, of Maryland, has accepted the Secretaryship of the Treasury at the instance of the com. of 33.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 13.

SENATE.—Mr. Johnson, of Tenn., introduced joint resolutions providing amendments to the Constitution of the United States in accordance with the 5th article of the Constitution. He also introduced a resolution that the Senate committee be requested to inquire into the expediency of establishing, by Constitutional provision, a line running thro' the territories of the United States, making an equitable division, so that slavery can exist south of the line but not north of it; that the States preventing the return of fugitive slaves shall pay double the value of said fugitives; that slavery shall exist in the fugitives where it now exists, but not in others; that Congress shall never interfere with slavery in the District of Columbia so long as it remains in Maryland; that Congress shall not touch the representation of three-fifths of the slaves.

The Sec. of the Treasury is authorized with the approbation of the President to issue Treasury Notes at such rates of interest as may be offered by the lowest responsible bidder who may offer to take the loan. But upon those bids no fraction less than 1-1/4 per cent. per annum shall be considered.

Provision is made and the Secretary authorized to purchase the notes at par for the amount of principal and interest due at the time of purchase. The power to issue and receive notes ceases Jan. 1st, 1863. The usual provision is made for punishing forgery.

A letter from a distinguished source just received from Alabama says it is now certain that the co-operation of the conservatives will carry every county in northern Alabama in the election of delegates to the convention, and ten or more delegates in Southern Alabama, thus settling the question as to which side will triumph in the convention. Col. Taylor, a leading Bell man of that State has published a letter strongly favoring co-operation. If, however, the ordinance of secession be passed the conservatives will insist that it be submitted to the people for ratification.

Private accounts from Georgia state that the conservatives under the lead of Stephens, Johnson, Jenkins and others are in strong hopes of carrying a majority of the members of the State Convention.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 14.

This being the anniversary of Washington death, delegations of Free Masons from different States met to-day to honor his memory and pledge their influence in the promotion of harmony and fraternal feeling.

Secretary Cass' resignation has made a profound impression here.

The committee of 33 and the majority in Congress will stand by Mr. Cass resolution, as a basis of compromise. The ultra republicans and secessionists oppose.

There is a rumor that Sen. Douglas will in the Senate declare it to be the duty of the President to resist secession by the force of arms.

FT. KEARNEY, DEC. 17.

The C. O. C. & P. P. Ex. Co. coach passed here yesterday, leaving the following news:

Denver, 13th.—H. Duncan, working with 6 men, took out from his claim on Georgia Gold, last week, in 21 working hours, over $500 in nuggets alone, valued at from $1 to $30 each. There was also fine gold enough to pay all working expenses. Mr. Duncan said he had cleared $500 per week every week since the 13th of July last.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 17.

Senator Crittenden declared to-day that he could perceive no inducement to compromise on the part of the Republican leaders, and that unless some guarantee is given, Kentucky will go with the South.

the support of it. It was adopted almost unanimously. Slavery extension and the right of secession and coercion were ignored.

New York, Dec. 17.

A rumor was prevalent yesterday that a mob would attack Plymouth Church, Brooklyn, in the evening, when it was expected that H. W. Beecher would preach another eloquent anti-slavery sermon. A posse of 300 police officers were detailed in and about the building. Notwithstanding the immense crowd in attendance, the police were not called in requisition. A subscription for the relief of Kansas was taken up in the morning.

COLUMBIA, S. C., Dec. 17.

The Convention had four ballots for a permanent President. On the 3d ballot Gov. Gist received 23 and Senator Chestnut 17, Ex-Speaker Orr 32. Mr. Jameson received 118 votes, Orr 32. Mr. Jameson on taking the chair said he found no language to express his thanks for the honor conferred upon him. He was engaged in a most important duty, the most important that ever devolved on a South Carolinian. God only knows what will be the result of our proceedings. But he would implore God's protection for the State.

A resolution was then offered that when the Convention adjourns, it be to meet at Charleston at 4 P. M. to-morrow.

This resolution caused considerable debate.

Mr. Miles appealed to the Convention not to adjourn to Charleston, but to remain here regardless of the small-pox or other physical or moral causes. He urged that other States would jostle at their tardiness in the present crisis.

Mr. Cochrane of Abberville said he would never consent to leave Columbia until the ordinance of secession was passed.

Others engaged in the discussion pro and con.

The motion to adjourn to Charleston was finally carried by a large majority.

A resolution was adopted inviting the Commissioners of Mississippi and Alabama to seats on the floor. Also that they address the Convention to-night.

A motion was made, which prevailed with a few dissenting voices, to invite Hon. Howell Cobb to a seat.

At the inauguration of the Governor to-day, the galleries of the Representatives Hall were crowded with ladies.

Mr. Perkins read the inaugural. His sentiments were decidedly firm for secession and were warmly applauded.

The Convention re-assembled at 7 P. M.

Mr. Ingles introduced the following:

Resolved, That a committee of 8 members be appointed to draft an ordinance proper to be adopted by this Convention.

Resolved, That any member desirous of presenting any draft or scheme, be requested to hand the same to a committee of "blank."

Resolved, That the acts of the General Assembly of this State providing for the assembling of this Convention, be referred to the same committee with instructions to act thereon.

The Commissioners from Mississippi and Alabama then made speeches. Both were moderate in tone.

The first resolution was then adopted. Ayes 159; Nays, none.

In the 2nd resolution Mr. Gadsbury moved to fill the blank with 21.

Mr. Reith moved to amend by inserting other matters for consideration of the committee or which may be presented to them.

Mr. Cheever. The great aim and object is to avoid every side of the question on which there may be a division. We have had proof this evening that there is not a single voice within the State. Business is expedited by confining ourselves to secession. Our first aim is to break the charm of this Union. The next point will be to study the point of direction.

Mr. Payne. The proposition as I understood it, is that the committee of 21 be appointed to take into consideration the various measures that might be introduced in the Convention, and that they should receive all such schemes from whatever quarter they may come, and they shall have the privilege to do whatever pertains to the business of the Convention. I take it there has been sufficient expressions of opinion here to guide that committee. Secession is a subject upon which all agree mainly.
