Coroner's Inquest.—On Monday the dead body of a man was discovered in the river near the steamboat landing in this city.

The deceased was about five feet six inches high; supposed to be from twenty to twenty-five years of age; light beard, and dark hair.

Man Overboard.—The same evening our volunteer company left here for Omaha one of Capt. Boydston's men fell overboard at the Peru landing and was drowned.

West Wind.—This steamer has been chartered by the general government, and is at present stationed at St. Joseph ready for any emergency.

Hon. S. G. DAILY, Delegate in Congress from Nebraska, went down this week on the Steamer Omaha on his way to Washington.

We hear various rumors as to disturbances along the river in Missouri; at Savannah, Kansas City, Booneville and other points.

It has been reported above and below us that in this town we have had difficulties with Missouri secessionists from the county opposite us.

Noe Wheat.—We have a small supply of Noe Wheat recently procured from France by the Patent office and sent out for distribution.

Small's Livery Stable.—See the Advertisement of John Small in another column. John keeps good fast horses and nice buggies, and will rig 'em out for you in double quick time.

Secretary Paddock.—While at Omaha, last week, of course we did not fail to visit our old friend Hon. A. S. Paddock, the newly appointed Secretary of the Territory, and for the present Acting Governor—Gov. SAUNDERS being east.

No Mails.—We have had no mails from St. Louis for near a week past. We advise those here desiring to send letters east, or those east in sending letters to Nebraska, to direct via Iowa routes.

St. Joseph Daily Papers. A number of our business men and others have for a long time been subscribers to the Daily St. Joseph Gazette.

Keep Cool.—The thermometer yesterday stood 103 in the shade. Comfortably warm that. We are constantly reminded by a deposit in our water pail, that working of the City Saloon is yet equipped with a "good article" of cool ice.

Somebody bring us a few wood.

Steamer Omaha.—Since our last issue we enjoyed the pleasure of a round trip on the well known and popular steamer Omaha. We may well know and popular, as she was built expressly for the upper Missouri trade where she has been running for the five years past. The Omaha has always been fortunate in having experienced, accommodating and gentlemanly officers, and as a natural consequence they were popular with the traveling public. Never has she been more fortunate in this respect than now. Capt. KERCHVAL, Chief Clerk ED. DAY, and Assistant JIM MALIN have no superiors. With them we have enjoyed a long personal and intimate acquaintance, and take great pleasure in re-termining in their favor. No man, woman or child ever traveled with these accomplished officers and were not the recipients of unremitting attentions.

Notwithstanding the Omaha stops at every intermediate point—even between points when hailed—she makes the best time of any boat on the river. Her last two round trips between St. Joe and Omaha were both made inside of six days. She left St. Joe on the 13th and reached that point again returning on the second trip on the 19th. That is not only good but tall running on the Missouri river.

Some evil disposed persons have been circulating the report that the officers of the Omaha are secessionists. It is a base fabrication. Souther Union men never breathed than the whole of the officers and crew from captain down to cabin boy.

P. S.—CHARLEY, who has become a permanent fixture on the Omaha, still compounds, clarif punches, sherry colblers, mint juleps and such with "neatness and dispatch."

Man Overboard.—The same evening our volunteer company left here for Omaha one of Capt. Boydston's men fell overboard at the Peru landing and was drowned. We did not learn his name. He was from St. Joseph and on his way to join Capt. B's company at Omaha.

West Wind.—This steamer has been chartered by the general government, and is at present stationed at St. Joseph ready for any emergency.

Hon. S. G. DAILY, Delegate in Congress from Nebraska, went down this week on the Steamer Omaha on his way to Washington.

We hear various rumors as to disturbances along the river in Missouri; at Savannah, Kansas City, Booneville and other points. The Telegraph lines are down, railroad bridges in that region are damaged and we have been some days without mail therefore have had no news.

It has been reported above and below us that in this town we have had difficulties with Missouri secessionists from the county opposite us. Nothing of the kind has yet occurred, nor do we apprehend any difficulty from that source. We shall not meddle with their affairs on their side of the river, and have no reason whatever to believe they will molest us. Our policy here is, and should be to mind our own business, and to take care of and protect ourselves against any invasionists let them come from where they may.

The American Freeman.—We hail with pleasure a new Paper bearing this title, the first No. of which dated March, 1861, has just been received. The appearance of this sheet is handsome, the articles well timed and exhibiting a very creditable degree of literary ability, and the price—well, the price is so ridiculously low—in Clubs of seventy and upwards being but forty cents each, per annum—that we can conceive of no reason why any Freeman would be without a copy of it. A single subscription is One Dollar a year. A very satisfactory endorsement of the Editor appears, from the pen of Mr. John W. Simons, the present Grand Master of Masons of the State of New York. Each No. of this paper contains matter equal to fifty ordinary octavo pages, much of it original, all of it entertaining, moral and instructive. Valuable premiums are offered to those who desire to make up Clubs, to each of whom a specimen number and printed subscription paper will be furnished on application to the publisher, J. F. Brennan, Box 4217 P. O. New York.

Notice—New Firm. The undersigned doing business in the city of Brownville, Nebraska, under the name and style of SEIGLE GREENBAUM & CO., have sold their interest in the Clothing Store to David Seigle, who will hereafter carry on the business at the old stand.
