Important from the Cherokee Nation. Two men who arrived at Rolla on Saturday, report that about two weeks ago, Ross the Cherokee Chief, had called 8,000 Cherokee to him, and declared for the Union.

The Washington correspondent of the Philadelphia Press, writing on the 10th, says: "An extraordinary Cabinet meeting was held last evening from 7 1/2 till 10 o'clock, at which Generals McClelland and McDowell were present.

On approaching Racine, Wisconsin, on his sporting tour, while surrounded by his sportsman's traps, Mr. Russell was welcomed by an old farmer of the vicinity with, "We are all glad to see you, Mr. Russell. Hope you will find lots of game. You can have all the game you want, but you must not make game of the American eagle over here."

"ODE TO NEGRO LIBERTY."—The pastor of the church in Dayton, Ohio, where Vallandigham attends, the other day gave out the beautiful hymn: My country, 'tis of thee, Sweet land of liberty, Of thee I sing.

Whereupon, Vallandigham wrote the pastor a scurrilous letter, roundly abusing him for introducing an "ode to negro liberty" into religious exercises.

Those who denounce Fremont's proclamation as an invasion of men's rights, may be entirely corrected in their views upon that subject, still they may well bear in mind that the proclamation interferes only with the rights of those men who would destroy by force of arms all the rights of United States citizens under the United States Government.

A Richmond Union Man. A lady, who recently returned from Richmond, Virginia, relates the following incident: Col Payne, United States army, and for many long years a friend of General Scott, had excited a reluctant admiration there on account of his persevering and immovable determination not to desert the stars and stripes.
