INSTRUCTIONS.

Containing conditions to be incorporated in the contracts to the extent the department may deem proper.

1. Seven minutes are allowed to each intermediate office, when not otherwise specified, for assorting the mails; but on railroad and steamboatroutes there is to be no more delay than is sufficient for an exchange of the mail bags.

2 On railroad and steamboat lines, and other routes where the mode of conveyance admits of it, the special agents of the Post Office Department, adto post office blanks, mail bays, locks, and keys, are to be conveyed without extra charge, 3. On railroad and steamboat lines the route agents of the department, also the British and Canada mails, when offered, and the agents accompany and them, are to be conveyed without charge, and for their exclusive use, while travelling with the mails, a commodius car, or apartment in the centre of a car, properly lighted, warmed, and furnished, and sdapted to the convenient separation and due security of the mails, is to be provided by the contractor, under the direction of the department.

Railroad and steamboat companies are required to take the mail from and deriver it into the post offices at the commencement and end of their routes, and to and from all offices not more than eighty rods . rom a station or landing. Proposals may be sabinitted for the performance of all other side service—that s, for offices over eighty rods from a station or Receipts will be required for mall bags conveyed in charge of persons amployed by railroad companies. There will also be "way bills" prepared by postmasters, or other agents of the department, to accompany the mails, specifying the number and destination of the several bags. On the principal stage routes, likewise, receipts will be required and way bills forwarded; the latter to be examined by the several postmasters, to insure regularity in the delivery of mail bags.

4. No pay will be made for trips not performed; 14020 From Saint Stephens, Neb., by Rush Bottom, Me., Jone's Point, and Forest City, to Oregon, Mo., and for each of such omissions not satisfactorily exlained, three times the pay of the trip may be deducted. For arrivals so far behind time as to break connexion with depending mails, and not sufficiently excused, one fourth of the compensation for the trip Ar. Fro at St. Stephens by 6 p m.

14021 From Falls City, by Geneva, Scott's, Table
Rock, Pawnee City, and Beatries, to Patterson's specified in the contract. For repeated delinquencies of the kind herein specified, enlarged pennities, proportioned to the nature thereof, and the importance of the mail, may be made. 5, For leaving behind, or throwing off the mails, ar any portion of them, for the admission of passen> an express conveying intelligence in advance of the 6. Fines will be imposed, unless the delinquency be promptly and satisfactorily explained by certifi-cates of postmaters or the affidavits of other aredible persons, for failing to arrive in contract time; for aeglecting to take the mail from or deliver it into a post office; for suffering it to be wet, injured, destroyed, robbed, or lost; and for refusing, after demand, to convey the mail as frequently as the contractor runs, or is concerned in running, a coach, car, or steamboat on the route.

7, The Postmaster General may sunul the coutract for repeated failures to run agreeably to con-

ment to do so; for running an express as aforesaid; or for transporting persons or packages conveying mailable matter out of the mail. 8. The Postmaster General may order an increase of service on a route by allowing therefor a provotes increase on the contract pay. He may change schedules of departures and arrivals in all cases, and particularly to make them conform to connections with railroads, without increase of pay, provided the running time be not abridged. He may also or-der an increase of speed, allowing, within the restrictions of the law, a pro rute increase of pay for the additional stock or carriers, if any. The contractor may, however, in the case of increase of speed, relinquish the contract, by giving prompt notice to the department that he profers doing so to carrying the order into effect. The Postmaster General may also curtail or discontinue the service, in whole or in part, at pro rata decrease of pay, allowing one month's extra compensation on the amount
