The Homestead Law.

In another column will be found the Homestead Bill, which has recently passed both branches of Congress, and has been signed by the President, and is therefore a law. It is very liberal in its provisions. It allows every person, (male or female, if we understand it,) who is a citizen of the United States, or any minor who is head of a family, or who has served in the armies or navy of the United States, the benefits of the law; providing, however, that persons who have born arms against the Government, shall be excluded.
