The Potomac War Policy.

"Invisible," the special corresponders of the Cincinnat i Times, writes thus of the Generals of the Potomac:

I find here great dissatisfaction with the army of the Potomac. McClellan's Bart - On Tuesday last the Omaha movement in the peninsula have not ad-Flarence left at our wharf more ded to his reputation. He lost precious time after his troops were first disembarked, and did not advance until the enemy had time to prepare for resistance. I am informed, on high authority, that had he obeyed the instructions of the War Leslie, for July, have been re- Department, he would have been in Richmond three weeks ago. Whatever may be said to the contrary, he is in disfavor with the Administration, and I feel warranted in saying that unless he shortly displays more enterprise and skill, he will be superseded.

McDowell has stood in high favor with erein the third, and Gen. McChellan the the Administration, but his snail like movements are wearing out the patience

There will be a flare up in that direction before long, as there ought to have been long since. In fact, just as fast as circumstances bring out the real chieftains, will the old, slow and over-cautious leaders of the army of the Potomac he removed. Sigel is already here, and During the storm the other night a is to be assigned a permanent command: be in Nemaha City was blown down because of his undaunted military enterprise. In a speech the other evening Sigel got off a good thing. He said :-"That in his opinion a bad retreat was better than a good stand still, for military inaction was at all times ruinous," That is the right kind of talk. I think General Sigel, who now wears double stars upon his shoulders, will supersede McDowell or will be given a new department that will wall up the principal portion of the army of the Rappahanock. On the whole, I think the Administra tion is just waking up as to the policy which has governed the Army of the Potomac, and that Uncle Abe, disgusted with the dillydallying of the Potomac mile sale, to satisfy a claim of Wil- Chi-frains, has taken command himself. and is determined to press the grand army forward. If those now in command do not push ahead, he will push them out. and give command to the fighting Generals. He is "taking the responsibility"

ANNOUNCEMENT OF

The Subscribers are now publishing a narrative of the Perils, Adventures and Suffering

REV. W. G. BROWNLOW, Among the Secessionists of Tennesses. The Manuscript is c mpiete 1, and is now in press and will be issued about the 1st of June. The appearance and typegraphy of the work will be of the first class, and it will be fully and handsomely illustrated with sketches of the scenes referred to, and a finely e. graved STEEL PORTRAIT OF THE AUTHOR. As to its contents we have no hesitation in saying that the public will be startled at this narrative of tacts. It country. tedcommunities once prosperous, and sundered fami- faction. lies once happy; more than all, it will expose the bad and reckless ambition and the relentlessness and blood thirstiness by which the ringleaders of the conspiracy were stimulated to their work of crime and treason. The narrative is one of personal experience. The author vouches for the accuracy of its statements. The public may therefore accept it as not only a reliable but s peculiar chapter in the general history of the times, Greenwood, Ot.o, Hart and Were, to Pent and we are confident that no mere significant, startling or instructive memorial of the rebellion, in its minute ersonal and social bearings, is now accessible. The public are well aware that Mr. BROWNLOW is a bold speaking man. In this narrative of his suffer. composed mostly while in custody in the jail at Knoxville, he has uttered his thoughts in language of extraordinary force and tearlessness, ecathing his adversaries even while in their power, and appealing to his countrymen even from his cell, with the urgency of a It will be published in one volume, 12mo., handsomely bound in cioth, of about 400 pages.
