

ADVERTISER.

WEDNESDAY, OCT. 11, 1862.

LOCAL.

C. N. SCRIVEN, ADVERTISING AGENT, and Dealer in Colored Ink of the Best Quality...

How engaged in drafting in the counties of Ohio.

How engaged in drafting in the counties of Ohio.

How engaged in drafting in the counties of Ohio.

How engaged in drafting in the counties of Ohio.

How engaged in drafting in the counties of Ohio.

How engaged in drafting in the counties of Ohio.

How engaged in drafting in the counties of Ohio.

How engaged in drafting in the counties of Ohio.

From The South—Hard Fighting In Progress.

[From the Leavenworth Conservative, October 5th.] We received a letter from Fort Scott late last night, from which we take the following extract:

"Messengers have come in to-day, (Thursday), who report that our forces under Brig. Gen. Salomon, have had a severe engagement, but report no incidents more than that our forces are retreating towards Sarcoxie, and intend to make a stand there; and that the Wisconsin 9th was severely cut up. One regiment of our troops broke during the engagement and ran through one of the other regiments, which so disconcerted them that two or three companies were merely annihilated.

A dispatch came from Gen. Blunt this evening, ordering Captain Insley to send a messenger to the 11th Kansas, to hurry them on, and to have enough wagons in readiness to carry that regiment on to the scene of action with all possible dispatch—the messenger has just started, and expects to meet the regiment between this and Paola. (This news may be contradicted, but I know of no orders against it.)"

Because Daily failed to secure appropriations for completing the capitol—for building a Penitentiary at Bellevue—for bridging the Platte River—for opening up military roads—to reimburse the city of Omaha for money expended in the capitol building—is no fault of his; he labored for them as well and as faithfully as any former delegate, and is entitled to credit therefor. One thing he claims to have accomplished, which affects, beneficially, every tax payer in the Territory, to-wit: the diversion of the Legislative appropriation for 1862, to the payment of the direct "Land Tax" upon the people of this Territory.

During all his Congressional career, Daily cannot be charged with having pursued a sectional course. His record is incontrovertible evidence to the contrary. Hailing from a section of the Territory especially without the limits where sectional interest control the action of the people, his course cannot be construed as having been biased in favor of this or that locality. Daily has disregarded sections and labored for the general good.—Nebraska.

The Newark Mercury says that the Union men of the 11th District of New Jersey think of presenting Orestes A. Brownson as their candidate for Congress. We trust they may do it. Dr. Brownson is emphatically a strong man, and independent, vigorous thinker, and a most earnest, unqualified champion of the policy inaugurated in the President's Proclamation of Freedom and of the most vigorous and energetic measures to crush out the Rebellion. We really need such men as Dr. Brownson in the next Congress, on which will be devolved the immense responsibility of settling a new peace policy for our restored and regenerated Republic; and we believe he can be elected if the loyal men of his district shall nominate and heartily support him.—N. Y. Tribune.

Benjamin F. Hallett is dead. He was a Rhode Islander thirty-five years ago, an anti-Masonic editor, and was transferred to Boston in that capacity, and one of the early Abolitionists of the radical school. After a time he turned Democrat, and, being an able, shrewd man, became one of the small number who dispensed—or rather, divided—the patronage of the Federal Government for the New England States. He was the author of the Democratic National Platform put forth at Cincinnati in 1856.—N. Y. Tribune.

Our Delegate in Congress has been harassed with a "contest" for the seat, and in a manner prevented moving and accomplishing as much as he might have done. Let the voters of Nebraska see to it that Mr. Daily's majority place the matter beyond dispute. As Congress would be compelled by positive law to refer a seat to Kinney should he get the votes, it is advisable, certainly for the credit of Nebraska, to place the thing beyond a contest, by casting our votes for Samuel G. Daily.—People's Press.

EMANCIPATION.—Among the men who are heartily in favor of the President's proclamation as a military means of suppressing the rebellion, and of the most vigorous measures for crushing treason everywhere, are the Hon. Joseph Holt, now acting here as Judge Advocate General, and F. B. Cutting, of New York.—Mr. Holt goes so far as to style the border State influence; so called the bans of the republic.—Wash. Cor. N. Y. Tribune.

OFFICIAL.

LAW OF THE UNITED STATES.

Passed at the Second Session of the Thirty-Seventh Congress. [PUBLISHED BY AUTHORITY.] [PUBLIC-NO. 28—CONSOLIDATED.] AN ACT making appropriations for the legislative, executive and judicial expenses of the Government for the year ending thirtieth of June, eighteen hundred and sixty-three, and additional appropriations for the year ending thirtieth of June, eighteen hundred and sixty-two.

For salaries of the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court and eight associate justices, fifty-four thousand five hundred dollars. For salaries of the district judges, one hundred and fifteen thousand seven hundred and fifty dollars.

1862. 1862. THEODORE HILL, THE LARGEST AND THE BEST STOCKS OF GENERAL MERCHANDISE, FROM NEW YORK, PHILADELPHIA AND ST. LOUIS.

Legal Advertisements. SPECIAL NOTICE. Probate Notice. SHERIFF'S SALE. HELLO, STRANGER! NEW GOODS? J. BERRY & CO'S, THE VERY CHEAPEST HOUSE IN BROWNVILLE.

LETT, STRICKLER & Co. MAIN STREET, BROWNVILLE, N. T. OF DRY GOODS: Prints, Muslins, Drills, Onaburg, Denims, Cotonades, Apron Check, Hickory, Jeans, Berages, Linsen, Dress Goods, All Wool Delaines, Fancy and Plain Silk, Lawns, Saten Vestings, Broad Cloths, Cassimere, Hooped Skirts, &c., &c., &c. OF GROCERIES: Coffee, Tea, Soap, Molasses, Candles, B. C. Soda, Sugar, Vinegar, White and Brown Sugar, Sack, Barrel and Dairy Salt, Chewing and Smoking Tobacco OF HARDWARE: Axes, Hatches, Butts, Screws, Locks, Latches, Nails, Tacks, Penknives, Knives and Forks, Hand Saw and Mill Files, &c., &c., &c. OF QUEENSWARE: Plates and Platters, Dishes and Tumblers, Coal Oil Lamps, Lamp Chimneys, Wicks, &c., &c. OF BOOTS & SHOES: Women's Shoes, Kip, Calf, Buff and Kid, Gaiters, Calf Shoes, Oxford Ties, Misses Shoes, Slippers, Men's Calf, Men's Brogans, Copper Toe, Kip and Course Boots, &c., &c. OF HATS & CAPS: Panama, Leghorn, Planter's, Straw Wool, Cassimere, Plantation, Shaker Hoops, &c., &c., &c. OF FARMING UTENSILS: Cradles, Rakes, Forks, Plows, Scythes, Snaths, Shovels, Spades, Hoes, &c., &c., &c. OF LUMBER: Clear and 2nd rate Pine Flooring, Siding, Boards 1, 1-2 and 2 Inches Thick, Sash, Doors and Blinds, Pine Lath, All Sizes Sash, All Sizes Doors, All Sizes Blinds.