

OUR FLAG. Then up with our flag! let it stream on the air! Though our fathers are cold in their graves, they had hands that could strike, they had souls that could dare, and their sons were not born to be slaves!

The Election.

We give the returns as far as heard from. In some of the counties the official returns may differ slightly from the following figures:

Table with columns for counties and candidates: Kinney, Johnson, Clay, Gage, Jones, Lancaster, Saline, Cedar, Dixon, and L'Eau-qui-court.

We have not yet heard from the following counties, viz: Johnson, Clay, Gage, Jones, Lancaster, Saline, Cedar, Dixon, and L'Eau-qui-court.

"LATER" BUT NOT "BETTER." Since the above was in type we have learned that Johnson gives Daily 28, Kinney gets 30 in Lancaster and 44 in Gage.

Official Vote of Nemaha County.

Table showing election results for Nemaha County, listing candidates and their respective vote counts.

The "Banner Precinct."

If this was strictly a political contest, we should feel rather jubilant over the result in this precinct—the banner precinct of the Democracy.

The Election in the States.

The latest telegraphic news indicates that the Democrats have gained largely in Pennsylvania, Ohio and Indiana.

This result was partly anticipated; but not to such an overwhelming extent. There are many causes that combined to produce this reverse in favor of the Democrats.

But the second year after a new Administration comes into power, is generally a crisis with the party in power.

The result of the contest between Daily and Kinney in many of the counties and precincts of this Territory has proved entirely different from what any one anticipated.

Letter from the Nebraska First.

IS CAMP NEAR HELENA, ARK., September 27th, 1862.

Marching orders are now in order. To-morrow, perhaps, we will take up the line, and march, the General only knows where.

Crops in Nebraska.

When Moses stood on Mount Pisgah and viewed the land promised as an inheritance to the chosen people of the Lord, he beheld a country, we most sincerely believe, possessing no greater advantages from a bountiful providence than our own—Nebraska.

The Banner Precinct.

If this was strictly a political contest, we should feel rather jubilant over the result in this precinct—the banner precinct of the Democracy.

The Election in the States.

The latest telegraphic news indicates that the Democrats have gained largely in Pennsylvania, Ohio and Indiana.

This result was partly anticipated; but not to such an overwhelming extent. There are many causes that combined to produce this reverse in favor of the Democrats.

But the second year after a new Administration comes into power, is generally a crisis with the party in power.

ed grapevines, and consequently few domestic grapes. But wild grapes are found this season, in great abundance.

Several experiments in raising Cotton have been successfully tried in Nemaha county. Many who were at first inclined to be skeptical now admit that it may become one of the staple articles.

BY TELEGRAPH.

LATEST DISPATCHES.

BATTLE IN KENTUCKY.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 11. Intelligence received yesterday from official quarters says the Sioux in Minnesota have ceased hostilities, and are surrendering, and that the military authorities were punishing the most prominent of the guilty parties.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 10.

A Bardstow dispatch to Gov. Robinson says the rebels on Wednesday night retreated towards Harrodsburg, but were hemmed in by Kirby Smith's detachment having become separated from other rebel forces on Dick river Thursday morning.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 11.

Gen. Halleck's opinion as to the proclamation is understood to be that in depriving the rebels of the labor of three and a half millions of slaves is necessary to suppress the rebellion.

LOUISVILLE, Oct. 11.

The Memphis Bulletin says the late federal victory at Corinth has quieted all apprehensions of a rebel attack on Memphis, and it believes it will relieve all western towns, and allow the federal army to enter Mississippi and open that whole region to commerce with Memphis.

LOUISVILLE, Oct. 11.

The Nashville Union of the 9th brings full particulars of the breaking up of the rebel camp at Laverge, 15 miles from Nashville. It seems that on the night of the 6th a force consisting of one regiment of infantry, two of cavalry and one battery, under Gen. Palmer, went out on the Morfeboro road, while Col. Miller, with 4 regiments of infantry, took a direction to the left of the railroad.

NEW YORK, Oct. 13.

The Tribune Harpers Ferry letter of the 10th says: Notwithstanding the apparent inaction, I believe pre-emptory orders have been received for one of the largest and most important movements of the war.

HELENA, ARK., Oct. 1, 1862.

Mr. Editor: After a silence of more than sixteen months, during which time I have been in the service, I will address you a few lines, which, if you think them worthy may be published.

ly's Bird is strongly picketed, and Warren strongly protected by frequent visits of rebel cavalry.

Several experiments in raising Cotton have been successfully tried in Nemaha county. Many who were at first inclined to be skeptical now admit that it may become one of the staple articles.

BY TELEGRAPH.

LATEST DISPATCHES.

BATTLE IN KENTUCKY.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 11. Intelligence received yesterday from official quarters says the Sioux in Minnesota have ceased hostilities, and are surrendering, and that the military authorities were punishing the most prominent of the guilty parties.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 10.

A Bardstow dispatch to Gov. Robinson says the rebels on Wednesday night retreated towards Harrodsburg, but were hemmed in by Kirby Smith's detachment having become separated from other rebel forces on Dick river Thursday morning.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 11.

Gen. Halleck's opinion as to the proclamation is understood to be that in depriving the rebels of the labor of three and a half millions of slaves is necessary to suppress the rebellion.

LOUISVILLE, Oct. 11.

The Memphis Bulletin says the late federal victory at Corinth has quieted all apprehensions of a rebel attack on Memphis, and it believes it will relieve all western towns, and allow the federal army to enter Mississippi and open that whole region to commerce with Memphis.

LOUISVILLE, Oct. 11.

The Nashville Union of the 9th brings full particulars of the breaking up of the rebel camp at Laverge, 15 miles from Nashville. It seems that on the night of the 6th a force consisting of one regiment of infantry, two of cavalry and one battery, under Gen. Palmer, went out on the Morfeboro road, while Col. Miller, with 4 regiments of infantry, took a direction to the left of the railroad.

NEW YORK, Oct. 13.

The Tribune Harpers Ferry letter of the 10th says: Notwithstanding the apparent inaction, I believe pre-emptory orders have been received for one of the largest and most important movements of the war.

HELENA, ARK., Oct. 1, 1862.

Mr. Editor: After a silence of more than sixteen months, during which time I have been in the service, I will address you a few lines, which, if you think them worthy may be published.

ly's Bird is strongly picketed, and Warren strongly protected by frequent visits of rebel cavalry.

Several experiments in raising Cotton have been successfully tried in Nemaha county. Many who were at first inclined to be skeptical now admit that it may become one of the staple articles.

BY TELEGRAPH.

LATEST DISPATCHES.

BATTLE IN KENTUCKY.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 11. Intelligence received yesterday from official quarters says the Sioux in Minnesota have ceased hostilities, and are surrendering, and that the military authorities were punishing the most prominent of the guilty parties.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 10.

A Bardstow dispatch to Gov. Robinson says the rebels on Wednesday night retreated towards Harrodsburg, but were hemmed in by Kirby Smith's detachment having become separated from other rebel forces on Dick river Thursday morning.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 11.

Gen. Halleck's opinion as to the proclamation is understood to be that in depriving the rebels of the labor of three and a half millions of slaves is necessary to suppress the rebellion.

LOUISVILLE, Oct. 11.

The Memphis Bulletin says the late federal victory at Corinth has quieted all apprehensions of a rebel attack on Memphis, and it believes it will relieve all western towns, and allow the federal army to enter Mississippi and open that whole region to commerce with Memphis.

LOUISVILLE, Oct. 11.

The Nashville Union of the 9th brings full particulars of the breaking up of the rebel camp at Laverge, 15 miles from Nashville. It seems that on the night of the 6th a force consisting of one regiment of infantry, two of cavalry and one battery, under Gen. Palmer, went out on the Morfeboro road, while Col. Miller, with 4 regiments of infantry, took a direction to the left of the railroad.

NEW YORK, Oct. 13.

The Tribune Harpers Ferry letter of the 10th says: Notwithstanding the apparent inaction, I believe pre-emptory orders have been received for one of the largest and most important movements of the war.

HELENA, ARK., Oct. 1, 1862.

Mr. Editor: After a silence of more than sixteen months, during which time I have been in the service, I will address you a few lines, which, if you think them worthy may be published.

Special Notices. $40 WAGES PAID $100. To sell goods for the Adams Sewing Machine Company.

We publish the following advertisement for a citizen of San Deroin, for the reason that he differs with us in politics, and seemed to be suspicious that we were therefore rather inclined to do him injustice.

A CARD.

TO THE CITIZENS OF SAN DEROIN.

never been a secessionist; I have enlisted in the company forming at this place for the protection of the frontier. I have sent three sons to the U. S. army, one of whom was killed.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 14.

Last evening's Washington Star says a man who arrived in that city from Conrad's Ferry states that he was in Gen. Stuart's presence a few minutes before crossing the river.

CHICAGO, Oct. 14.

Reports of the late fights at Corinth and Hatchie continue to represent them the most desperate of the war. A dispatch from Cairo to-night says the country has yet no just conception of the late battles.

CHICAGO, Oct. 11.

Gen. Halleck's opinion as to the proclamation is understood to be that in depriving the rebels of the labor of three and a half millions of slaves is necessary to suppress the rebellion.

CHICAGO, Oct. 11.

The Memphis Bulletin says the late federal victory at Corinth has quieted all apprehensions of a rebel attack on Memphis, and it believes it will relieve all western towns, and allow the federal army to enter Mississippi and open that whole region to commerce with Memphis.

CHICAGO, Oct. 11.

The Nashville Union of the 9th brings full particulars of the breaking up of the rebel camp at Laverge, 15 miles from Nashville. It seems that on the night of the 6th a force consisting of one regiment of infantry, two of cavalry and one battery, under Gen. Palmer, went out on the Morfeboro road, while Col. Miller, with 4 regiments of infantry, took a direction to the left of the railroad.

NEW YORK, Oct. 13.

The Tribune Harpers Ferry letter of the 10th says: Notwithstanding the apparent inaction, I believe pre-emptory orders have been received for one of the largest and most important movements of the war.

Chicago Advertisements. FROM C. H. SCHIFFER. GENERAL ADVERTISING AGENT.

WEBER, WILLIAMS & CO. HATS, CAPS, FURS, BUFFALO ROBES, BUCKSKIN GOODS.

CASH PAID FOR RAW FUR. WEBSER, WILLIAMS & CO.

FAIRBANKS, GREENLEAF & CO. 172 LAKE ST., CHICAGO.

THE DAY SCHOOL BELL. THE DAY SCHOOL BELL.

EMPORIA SALOON. HANK HACKNEY.

WOMEN OF NEW YORK. A curious New Book of female Characters in New York.

APPLE TREES. BROWNVILLE NURSERY.

THE NEW GYMNASTICS. FOR MEN, WOMEN & CHILDREN.

MELVIN'S HILLS. FREIGHTERS TO THE WEST.

MELVIN'S HILLS. FREIGHTERS TO THE WEST.