OUR FLAG. Then up with our flag! let it stream on the air! Though our fathers are cold in their graves, they had hands that could strike, they had souls that could die for the land that was theirs!

The Legislature.

The last session of Congress diverted the money appropriated for Legislative expenses for Nebraska, or so much of it as was necessary to the payment of our War Tax. This was hailed with pleasure by our citizens, as it was believed it would be a great relief to tax payers. It was generally supposed there would be no Legislature this winter. But the last session of the Legislature passed a law providing for an election this fall. It was consequently the duty of County Clerks to give the required notice to fill the law. Some in this county were opposed to electing any members to the Legislature. But it was found that an election could not be avoided unless the people were unanimous in their opposition to it.

Other counties had held Conventions and nominated candidates, and it was thought best to elect men from this county who would be in favor of holding a session; or if that could not be accomplished, who would vote for an early adjournment. A Convention was held and candidates nominated, with instructions to carry out these views.

The Statutes of Nebraska could no doubt be improved in many particulars; at there is no change needed of much importance. Indeed the Territory has suffered from the law being changed too frequently. The principal argument we have heard advanced in favor of holding a session this winter is that it is necessary to pass appropriations for the Territorial officers. It would be pretty bad financing for the Territory to expend $20,000 or $30,000 on a Legislature for the purpose of paying the officers a few hundred dollars. But if it is necessary that cannot be avoided to pass appropriations, it can be done in twenty-four hours.

Some argue that the Organic Act provides for an annual session of the Legislature, and that it would invalidate the act unless the Legislature met every year. This clause, we think, was only intended to be "directory," and not to bind the Territory, under every contingency, to have a session of the Legislature every year.

In several counties the members elected were instructed to prevent a session of the Legislature this Winter, if possible; or if they could not do that, to vote for an immediate adjournment. Public opinion is very strongly opposed to the meeting of the Legislature, this winter. A full session would run the Territory to $20,000 or $30,000 expense, which, with our war tax, and our present debt, would be more than we could ever pay. Repudiation would be inevitable. Those elected under instructions would not dare to encounter the public indignation that will be raised against them by their violation. We should like to see some expression on this subject from the press of the various parts of the Territory. If the press will give full expression to the public opinion, we think there will be no session.

The Election.

Election returns have been received at Omaha from all the counties in the Territory—all official except four. Daily's majority is 136. This time we think there will be no contest. The people of Nebraska have become disgusted with fraud; and have disencouraged it. Perhaps there never was an election held for Member of Congress any where, that was absolutely free from illegal voting and slyloggering; and it may be there was some in this. The Nebraska City News thinks there was a great deal of fraud. It holds up its hands in horror, and wonders "when Nebraska will rebuke fraud, and assert her will." We are glad the News is reforming. For four years past it has endorsed and defended frauds committed in a wholesale manner, that disgraced the Territory wherever its name was known in the civilized world. The News no doubt judges by the manner it was conducted in Otoe County. Every means possible was there resorted to, to swell the vote for Kinney. We are told several thousand dollars were there expended for Kinney—a large portion of it donated by a prominent Republican.

Threats, intimidations, betting, whisky and money were used by wholesale. We learn from most reliable sources that even bribery was very extensively resorted to by the friends of the Democratic nominee. Daily's enemies charge that the vote received in Richardson county is evidently a fraud. They specify nothing, but merely think it strange he should receive so large a vote in that county. But Kinney received an increased vote in Cass as Daily did in Richardson. It is evidence of fraud in the place, it is in the other.

Nebraska Cavalry.

Two Companies have been mustered in—Company A, from Florence, and Company B, from Omaha. The Company from this county start on Monday. We are glad to see that they have prevailed on Dr. McPherson to become an applicant for Surgeon of the Regiment. We know nothing of the qualifications of Physicians from other parts of the Territory who may become candidates for Surgeon, or whether there are any others who may aspire to that position. But we do know that Surgery is a science that but a small portion of those who have Dr. attached to their name, or even those who have graduated in a medical college, have acquired. Too many ignorant quacks succeed in being admitted into the army as Surgeons, to mangle and butcher the wounded soldiers. Dr. McPherson, although engaged in other business for the last six years of his residence in this Territory, has, nevertheless, performed nearly all the surgical operations in this county, some of which by his consenting to do, has saved the parties from going to St. Louis or other cities. Amputations, club-foot, besides several other operations of an intricate nature, which have come under our immediate notice, have been entirely successfully performed. We therefore, with the company, entirely endorse his recommendation to the position for which he is an applicant. Doctor, success to you.

"Skisms."

Judge Kinney, in his speech in this place, said he was sure of being elected. Many Republicans were going to vote for him, and unless he was defeated by the most stupendous frauds, his success was certain. And one of the reasons assigned by Mr. Taylor why Republicans should not vote for Daily, was that he could not be elected. They very much underrated the ability of "Skisms" as a stump. He had much to contend against—more than at any previous election, and he had few friends to assist him in stumping. Yet he has proved more than a match for all the boasted "intellect" of the Territory. Wherever Mr. Daily addressed the people, they have given him large majorities. Could he have had time to have made three speeches in each county he would have beaten Kinney 1500 votes. There is no man in Nebraska who is equal to Mr. Daily as a stump speaker—no man in the Territory who has more native intellect.

Army Correspondence.

CAMP NEAR SULPHUR SPRINGS, Mo., October 20th, 1862.

Mr. Editor: Since my last was written the regiment has removed several degrees north, and now the bracing winds impart the healthy vigor to the frame, and conjure up the flush of health upon the weather-beaten cheeks of the patient soldier. On the 5th of the present month we struck tents at camp near Helena, Ark., packed our wagons, and marched on board steamer Rocket, and steamed up the river to this point. Five hundred miles of steamboat travel added a little spice to our life's variety, and made us momentarily forgetful of the weary past. Indeed it proved a Sabbath to the wearied frames of the "rump" of the regiment; and during our thirteen months of active service, such Sabbaths as that only, our men have known! It may sound strangely to civil ears, but 'tis a fact beyond refutation that there are men in the army who live week in and week out, without knowing the name of the day that glides so swiftly onward. Why, even the present writer, who was a moral observer of the sacred day in civil life, has "breathed the breath of life" on several Sabbaths, in the army, without knowing them as such. But those were days when cannon thundered, and the sound of strife was heard, when bang the muskets spoke, and whiz the bullets flew, when peril hovered near and grim death stalked abroad, when picketing was rife, and excitement was the chief, when all made up the clangor of "ferocious intestine war." One year ago to-day, our regiment broke up camp at Syracuse in this State, and took up the line of march for Springfield, as a part of that grand army which the genius of Fremont called together so quickly, and which gave promise fair of deeds heroic and sublime under the leadership of its chosen chief. Alas! its star of destiny which rose so resplendently soon sank obscurely beneath a cloud of jealous hate, and though a year has well nigh gone, it still remains unseen. The grand army scattered, and though in fragments under other names it has performed glorious deeds, it exists only in name, and will only thus be known in history: "The grand army of the West led by General Fremont effected nothing and was broken up."

It seems that we are to go over some, if not all, the ground we trod before, our first camping ground in Missouri was at Pilot Knob, and we are to go there again. To-morrow or next day we are to go by rail to that point. We may there remain awhile, and may not. It was hoped our regiment would be stationed somewhere until filled up, but it seems our destiny is to continue in active service until annihilated or our term of service expires. We do not expect very desperate fighting this side the river, unless the rebels leave Tennessee and Mississippi by way of Vicksburg and make a determined stand in Arkansas, or attempt to capture St. Louis. The latter effort will prove very futile should they undertake it. The former may answer for a time, but eventually they must succumb.

Col. Thayer did not come with us, and we have heard that he has been appointed Brigadier General. We expect him every day. We are here waiting for our transportation. When that comes we will go on. Col. Livingston is absent, sick, and Major Baumer commands the Regiment. It is presumed if Thayer is Brigadier General that Lieut-Col. Livingston will be our Colonel, Maj. Baumer, Lieutenant-Colonel, and Capt. Majors, Major. The Governor could make no better appointments than those for the Regiment, and none that would suit the men better. Those officers have been with the Regiment all the time, have been tried, weighed in the balance and not found wanting."

However, you will be informed hereafter of the above, and of our peregrinations and doings from time to time.

We have yet had no recruits from Nebraska. The time has fully come when they should be forthcoming.

SOCIETY.—Will some of our subscribers give us their experience in raising Sugar Cane and manufacturing molasses; and also in producing sugar, if any of them have been so successful. Information on this subject is much desired.—Sugar is made in considerable quantities in various places; yet we have not noticed in our agricultural exchanges this season, any explanation of the mode of manufacturing it.

C. P. Richardson was elected constable for this precinct. D. H. McLaughlin was elected as Assessor of this precinct. S. R. Jamison, J. C. Deuser and John Hacker were elected Judges, and John H. Maun and H. H. Marsh, Clerks of election for this precinct.

Economy.—Farmers should this season save all their crops. Husk every nubbin of corn, dig every potato, and save all your garden vegetables. Prices are rapidly advancing. There will be a market and good price for all produce in the spring.

What is said from the feeling of the moment should excite but a feeling of the moment.
