THE PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE. Second Session of the Thirty-Seventh Congress, December 1st, 1862.

OUR FOREIGN RELATIONS. The correspondence touching foreign affairs which has taken place during the last year, is herewith submitted, in virtual compliance with a request that effect, made by the House of Representatives near the close of the past session of Congress.

OUR FOREIGN RELATIONS. The new commercial treaty between the United States and the Sultan of Turkey has been carried into execution.

OUR NEIGHBORING NATIONS. During the last year there has not only been no change of our previous relations with the Independent States of our continent, but more friendly sentiments than have been heretofore existing are believed to be entertained by those neighbors whose safety and progress are so intimately connected with our own.

SUPPRESSION OF THE SLAVE TRADE. The treaty with Great Britain for the suppression of the slave trade has been put into operation with a good prospect of complete success.

THE COAST BLOCKADE. A blockade of 3,000 miles of seacoast could not be established and vigorously enforced in a season of great commercial activity like the present without committing occasional mistakes, and inflicting unintentional injuries upon foreign nations and their subjects.

TO PREPARE TREES FOR PLANTING. With a sharp knife cut off sloping from the under side, any bruised or broken roots, then reduce the tops to correspond with the loss of roots, cutting off the surplus branches, and reducing those forming the head to three or four buds on each of last year's shoots.

WAR AND NAVY REPORTS. The reports of the Secretaries of the Navy and War are herewith transmitted.

THE POST OFFICE DEPARTMENT. It gives me pleasure to report a decided improvement in the financial condition of the Post Office Department, as compared with the several preceding years.

THE CURRENCY INFLATION. The continuance of the war, however, and the increased disbursements made necessary by the augmented forces now in the field, demand your best reflection as to the best mode of providing the necessary revenue without injury to business, and with the least possible burdens upon labor.

AFRICAN EMIGRATION. Applications have been made to me by many free Americans of African descent to favor their emigration, with a view to such colonization as was contemplated in recent acts of Congress.
