

A Warning. Events which have recently transpired have produced among the people of this community the solemn conviction that for the sake of the peace and quiet of our county, no stranger should be allowed to settle among us unless he can produce satisfactory evidence of being a loyal man.

K. G. C.'s in Nemaha County. It has been believed for several months that one or more lodges of the Knights of the Golden Circle exist in this county; but who were members, or where they met, was not positively known.

Rumors by Telegraph. We do not publish very much telegraphic matter in this number of the paper, for the reason that the reports that come one day would be contradicted next.

A Copperhead City. In Dayton, Ohio, where there is a larger secession element than usual in the public schools, numbers of children have been expelled because they wore on their clothing the emblems of our nationality.

Union Meeting at Brownville. A Union meeting was held at Brownville, on Saturday last, which is said to have been one of the largest gatherings of people ever seen in any part of Nebraska.

The order of the Knights of the Golden Circle is an institution that existed in the South previous to the commencement of the War, and by means of it the original Rebels were enabled to "fire the Southern heart."

The latest by telegraph, and which does not appear in our telegraphic columns, is that Stonewall Jackson is dead, from the effects of a wound received at Fredericksburg.

The organization in this county, if we have learned the whole truth, was merely primary. They were to receive their instructions of somebody from Plattsburgh; but they became alarmed and discontinued their meetings.

ARMY CORRESPONDENCE. From the Nebraska First. CAPE GIRARDEAU, May 13, 1863. Editor Nebraska Advertiser: Again the First Nebraska has been in a fight, and has come out as usual, remarkably clear of losses, and with additional honors.

Charge and Specification against Clemt L. Vallandigham. CHARGE.—Publicly expressing, in violation of General Order No. 38, from Headquarters Department of the Ohio his sympathies for those in arms against the Government of the United States.

There can now be no impropriety in saying that the President and Gen. Halleck visited Hooker and the army, and returned to the city to-night. At about one o'clock this morning information was received that Stoneman had safely arrived at Rappahannock Station with the remainder of his forces.

Stoneman's force got within sight of Richmond and one of our officers and two men were captured within a mile and a quarter of Richmond. There were only 400 troops in Richmond.

The whole number of prisoners captured by Davis and Winham is over 1,000. A Washington dispatch states, "The force was pushed through on Friday and Saturday, before Stoneman cut the connections."

The Times special says Sigel has been commanded of his old corps, in place of Carl Schurz.

A General Court-marshal has been convened at this place by order of Gen. Cook, and is now in session. The following officers compose the Court: Lieut. Col. Pollock, Capt. Calligan and Capt. Cram, of the 6th Iowa; Capt. Marshall, Lieut. Maun and Lieut. Hewett of the 2d Nebraska, with Lieut. Maun, A. D. C., as Judge Advocate.

shot and powder. Lieut. Griffin supplied the ammunition, as army ordnance officer. And as it would require too much time in which to particularize further, I have only to say that every Captain and Lieutenant, non-commissioned officer and man, did his duty.

It is reported that private advices have been received in this city from Fort Monroe, stating that 10,000 troops arrived there on the 5th inst., as reinforcements, and immediately moved forward for an attack on Richmond.

Washington, S.—Richmond papers show that Stoneman's corps went within two miles of Richmond and effected many captures and great destruction of property at least a part of this gallant force has reached Gloucester in Key's command, opposite Yorktown.

Stoneman's force got within sight of Richmond and one of our officers and two men were captured within a mile and a quarter of Richmond. There were only 400 troops in Richmond.

The Herald has a letter from a prisoner named Vassar, dated Richmond 5th, stating the alarm left there Sunday and do not doubt if Stoneman's force, or a part of it, had entered Richmond Sunday night, which they could have done, they could have seized Jeff. Davis and his whole cabinet, with a majority of the rebel Congress and could have burned the bridges across James River, and cut off all communication southward.

The Herald's special states Gen. Stone has been assigned to duty with General Banks.

The Times special says Sigel has been commanded of his old corps, in place of Carl Schurz.

A General Court-marshal has been convened at this place by order of Gen. Cook, and is now in session. The following officers compose the Court: Lieut. Col. Pollock, Capt. Calligan and Capt. Cram, of the 6th Iowa; Capt. Marshall, Lieut. Maun and Lieut. Hewett of the 2d Nebraska, with Lieut. Maun, A. D. C., as Judge Advocate.

shot and powder. Lieut. Griffin supplied the ammunition, as army ordnance officer. And as it would require too much time in which to particularize further, I have only to say that every Captain and Lieutenant, non-commissioned officer and man, did his duty.

It is reported that private advices have been received in this city from Fort Monroe, stating that 10,000 troops arrived there on the 5th inst., as reinforcements, and immediately moved forward for an attack on Richmond.

Washington, S.—Richmond papers show that Stoneman's corps went within two miles of Richmond and effected many captures and great destruction of property at least a part of this gallant force has reached Gloucester in Key's command, opposite Yorktown.

Stoneman's force got within sight of Richmond and one of our officers and two men were captured within a mile and a quarter of Richmond. There were only 400 troops in Richmond.

The Herald has a letter from a prisoner named Vassar, dated Richmond 5th, stating the alarm left there Sunday and do not doubt if Stoneman's force, or a part of it, had entered Richmond Sunday night, which they could have done, they could have seized Jeff. Davis and his whole cabinet, with a majority of the rebel Congress and could have burned the bridges across James River, and cut off all communication southward.

The Herald's special states Gen. Stone has been assigned to duty with General Banks.

The Times special says Sigel has been commanded of his old corps, in place of Carl Schurz.

A General Court-marshal has been convened at this place by order of Gen. Cook, and is now in session. The following officers compose the Court: Lieut. Col. Pollock, Capt. Calligan and Capt. Cram, of the 6th Iowa; Capt. Marshall, Lieut. Maun and Lieut. Hewett of the 2d Nebraska, with Lieut. Maun, A. D. C., as Judge Advocate.

BY TELEGRAPH.

PHILADELPHIA, May 9.—The bulletin of this city publishes the following highly important intelligence this evening: We learn from one of the editors of the Philadelphia Inquirer, that one of their correspondents, who has just returned from Washington, informed them that Gen. Joe Hooker recrossed the Rappahannock in force yesterday.

It also learns from another source that is vouched for as reliable, that Gen. Keyes has taken Richmond, having advanced upon it via Yorktown, and that the Federal flag floats over the rebel Capitol.

It is reported that private advices have been received in this city from Fort Monroe, stating that 10,000 troops arrived there on the 5th inst., as reinforcements, and immediately moved forward for an attack on Richmond.

Washington, S.—Richmond papers show that Stoneman's corps went within two miles of Richmond and effected many captures and great destruction of property at least a part of this gallant force has reached Gloucester in Key's command, opposite Yorktown.

Stoneman's force got within sight of Richmond and one of our officers and two men were captured within a mile and a quarter of Richmond. There were only 400 troops in Richmond.

The Herald has a letter from a prisoner named Vassar, dated Richmond 5th, stating the alarm left there Sunday and do not doubt if Stoneman's force, or a part of it, had entered Richmond Sunday night, which they could have done, they could have seized Jeff. Davis and his whole cabinet, with a majority of the rebel Congress and could have burned the bridges across James River, and cut off all communication southward.

The Herald's special states Gen. Stone has been assigned to duty with General Banks.

The Times special says Sigel has been commanded of his old corps, in place of Carl Schurz.

A General Court-marshal has been convened at this place by order of Gen. Cook, and is now in session. The following officers compose the Court: Lieut. Col. Pollock, Capt. Calligan and Capt. Cram, of the 6th Iowa; Capt. Marshall, Lieut. Maun and Lieut. Hewett of the 2d Nebraska, with Lieut. Maun, A. D. C., as Judge Advocate.

Spring, who to escape, abandoned their wagons and provisions. On the 21st Louisiana Court House was occupied without opposition, the railroad track towards Gordonsville was destroyed ten miles, and two trains of cars were burned.

Another detachment under Col. Windham proceeded to Columbia on James River, and destroyed five locks on the canal, five bridges, boats, and a large quantity of commissary stores.

On the fourth Hampton and Lee with two brigades attacked sixty men of the Fifth Cavalry on picket duty. This charge was met by a counter-charge and the rebels were temporarily repulsed but rallied and captured seventeen of our men.

It is reported that private advices have been received in this city from Fort Monroe, stating that 10,000 troops arrived there on the 5th inst., as reinforcements, and immediately moved forward for an attack on Richmond.

Washington, S.—Richmond papers show that Stoneman's corps went within two miles of Richmond and effected many captures and great destruction of property at least a part of this gallant force has reached Gloucester in Key's command, opposite Yorktown.

Stoneman's force got within sight of Richmond and one of our officers and two men were captured within a mile and a quarter of Richmond. There were only 400 troops in Richmond.

The Herald has a letter from a prisoner named Vassar, dated Richmond 5th, stating the alarm left there Sunday and do not doubt if Stoneman's force, or a part of it, had entered Richmond Sunday night, which they could have done, they could have seized Jeff. Davis and his whole cabinet, with a majority of the rebel Congress and could have burned the bridges across James River, and cut off all communication southward.

The Herald's special states Gen. Stone has been assigned to duty with General Banks.

The Times special says Sigel has been commanded of his old corps, in place of Carl Schurz.

A General Court-marshal has been convened at this place by order of Gen. Cook, and is now in session. The following officers compose the Court: Lieut. Col. Pollock, Capt. Calligan and Capt. Cram, of the 6th Iowa; Capt. Marshall, Lieut. Maun and Lieut. Hewett of the 2d Nebraska, with Lieut. Maun, A. D. C., as Judge Advocate.

prisoners. The same paper has the following: JACKSON, Miss., May 7.—It is reported that Banks' army has been repulsed into three columns—and are forcing the town Opelousa—one remaining at Chalataha and Baton Rouge. The negroes seized all the negroes on Government plantation.

Five federal gunboats passed Sunday night—four ascended the Red River. HEADQUARTERS ARMY OF THE POTOMAC, May 12.—The medical director reports that our wounded on the field are all comfortable, and number about 1,100. An ambulance corps has been sent for them, and is expected in camp to-night.

OBITUARY. Died in Brownville, May 13, 1863, William A., son of A. G. and Matilda T. Wood, aged twenty-four days.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS. TAXES! TAXES!! The undersigned will attend to the collection of all taxes for all non-residents who may choose to have them collected.

AMBROTYPES AND PHOTOGRAPHS. HENRY M. SILL, DAGUERREAN ARTIST. Is now temporarily located in Brownville, where he desires their likenesses taken. Will send to any part of the country.

THE HORACE WATERS MODERN FULL IRON FRAME PIANOS. Are both of the best and most thoroughly sound materials, and will stand any climate. The tone is deep, round, full, and mellow; the touch easy and responsive.

THE KNICKERBOCKER MONTHLY. A NATIONAL MAGAZINE OF LITERATURE, ART, SCIENCE, POLITICS AND SOCIETY.

ANNOUNCEMENT. The pioneer of American Monthly will be published by the Knickerbocker Monthly.

MASTERS SALE. In pursuance of a decree of the District Court, in and for Nemaha County, Nebraska, Territory, sitting in Chancery, bearing date May 16th, 1863, in a certain cause pending in said court, wherein William Schurz was complainant, and John Adams, et al, were defendants, the following real estate is to be sold to wit: The premises situate in front of the Court House, in Brownville, in said county, being the place where said court was last held, offer for sale to the highest bidder for cash, the following described premises, to-wit: The east half of the south west quarter, and the southeast quarter of the southwest quarter of section twenty eight (28) of township number four (4) north of range number fourteen (14) east of the 6th principal meridian in Nemaha County, Nebraska Territory.

PROBATE NOTICE. The undersigned hereby announces that the estate of James H. Johnson, late of Nemaha County, Nebraska Territory, deceased, all persons claiming any interest therein, are to appear at the probate court of Nemaha County, Nebraska, at the place of payment, on the 15th day of May, 1863, at 10 o'clock, A. M.

NOTICE. To all persons having claims against the Estate of Frederick G. Pavy, deceased, you are hereby notified that all claims against said estate must be presented to the Probate Court of Nemaha County, Nebraska, for allowance on or before the 15th day of October, 1863, or the same will be forever barred.