Magazine, whose success evinces that the efforts of its conductors have been appreciated by a discriminating public, we would call attention to its charactor on the part or the large body of readers who are not yet upon its subscription lists. Our purpose in this publication is the dissemination of practical information on subjects of positive utility $3 00 to the people, combined with a diversity of literary attraction-securing the services of the best pens in the various departments of Science, Belles-Lettres and General Literature. While aiming most espenially to render most effective service to the frade, Commerce and Material Production of the Country, many sides of the Country, many sides of the mental world receive due consideration—the Historical, Critical, Æsthetical and Imaginative, as well as the Financial, Statistical, Technological and strictly Mercantile. We employ alike the reseach of the savant and the fancy of the feuilston-ist, with the practical experience of the business man and the worker. In the treatment of scientific opies, the mode selected is the popular in style rather than the technical. The mental phase off the hour it shall be our endeavor to portray, and we avail ourselves of the contributions of new Discovery to the Circle of Knowledge, and shall record with all practicable succinctness Current Intelligence, which will be of future ntillity and historic nterest when the Present shall have become the Past. PROSPECTUS

Dolim of the Rebellion, witness the National Govrnment restored in the fallen States, these regenerated, and Slavery obliterated from the land ! The events of '61 will be among the most momentous in the History of the Country, and doubtless will include the return of Peace, and the entrance of America unon a new career of unparalleled greatness and prespecity. With Labor vindicated from the reproach of seridem, the People will stand upon a higher platform of intelligence and power, and feel a still profounder interest in all the details of the progress of their own and other lands. Mhe old world is entering upon a new series of commotions, to traminate in the triumph of Democracy beyond the Atlantic; while emigration to America will acquire a new and tramendous impetus, augmenting immensely car productive power.

The stiring events of the times will be graphically depicted in the column of the DEMOCRAT, which we are resolved to render more valuable and at tractive than ever as a faithful Mirror of Passing History.

Inspired by the spirit of Democracy-acknowledging no leader but Truth-The Missoum Des-OCRAT will continue to be solely the Organ of the People, and prompt to denounce and repudiate any pol'tical or military aspirant who seeks to betray their cause.

In times like the present, such a journal is either a power in the land or it is nothing. That the Continuntal is not the latter is about evadenced by what it has done-by the reflection of its counsels in many important public events, and in the character and power of those who are its taunchest supporters.

Though but little more than a year has elapsed since the Continental was first established, it I'm during that time acquired a sterength and a significance elevating it to a position far above that pre-viously occupied a strong th and a political signifi-cance elevating it to a position far above that pre-viously occupied by ony publication of the kind in America. In proof of which assertion we call attention to the following facts:

1. Of its polical articles republished in pamphles form, a single one has had, thus far, a circulation of one hundred and six thousand copies. 2. From its literary department, a single serial novel, "Among the Pines," hos, within a very few months, sold nearly thirty-five thousand contex—

Two other series of its literary articles have also been republished in book form, while the first per-

No more conclusive facts need be alledged to prove the the excellence of the contributions to the Continental, or their extraordinary popularity; and its conductors are determined that it shall not fall behind. Preserving all "the boldness, vigor and ability" which a thonsand journals have attributed to it, it will greatly enlarge its circle of action, and discuss, fearlessly and frankly, every principle innolved id the great questions of the day. As its title indicates, it is emphatically the lady's Iriand, and is replate with everything calculated to please and instruct The corps of contributors to its columns embrace some of the best literary talent in this country and in England. The fashion plates in this number; January, are superband of the latest style, while there is an abundance of patterns of all classes and descriptions. Gabriel Wilkie's Return from the War" is a splended steel engraving, from a design prepared expressly for the Magazine. This new enterprise is eminently deserving the patronage of our lady friends—Philadelphia Inquirer. A NEW LABIES' MAGAZINE.-Messrs. Dencon & Peterson have just placed before the public the first umber of a new magnitine, called The Lady's It is not required that all the papers of a Club shall be sent to one Post Office, the number may be sent to different Offices, and additions may be made illustrated; and is full of excellent original reading. among its contributors are Miss Eleamor C. Don-nelly, whose excellent little sketch called, "Gabriel
