

BROWNVILLE, THURSDAY OCT. 27, 1864.

FOR PRESIDENT ABRAHAM LINCOLN OF ILLINOIS.

FOR VICE PRESIDENT ANDREW JOHNSON, OF TENNESSEE.

THE OCTOBER ELECTIONS. GLORIOUS TRIUMPH!

The Union Ticket carried in Ohio, Indiana, Pennsylvania, Maryland and Nebraska!!!

HITCHCOCK'S MAJORITY 1,200!!!

Nebraska has signified her appreciation of the peace doctrines of the Democracy in a most emphatic manner. She rolls up against them the largest vote ever given against any party in the Territory...

Table showing Majorities for Hitchcock, Miller, and other candidates with vote counts for various counties.

The remainder of the Territory yet to be held from will increase the majority to 1,600 or 1,800.

Pennsylvania.

The New York Tribune of the 17th, figures up a Democratic majority of 751, on the home vote...

Indiana.

The returns from 66 of the 92 Counties show a majority for Merion of 16,660.

Ohio.

The returns of Ohio show the triumph of the Union ticket. Seventeen Counties are yet to hear from, but they will not materially change the result...

Maryland Election.

The election in Maryland on the adoption or rejection of the New Constitution took place on the 12th inst., and resulted as follows, Baltimore alone: For the New Constitution, 9,660 Against it, 2,079 Majority, 7,581

It is thought that the residue of the State and the Soldiers votes will secure the adoption of the new Constitution, and redeem the State from the sight of slavery henceforth and forever.

Death of Col. J. P. Sanderson. Col. J. P. Sanderson, Provost Martial General of the Department of Missouri, died at his residence in St. Louis on the 14th inst.

Death of Mrs. Greenhorn.

The celebrated Mrs. Rose A. Greenhorn, a devoted rebel lady, was drowned at New Inlet Bar, Wilmington, N. C., on the 1st or 2d inst.

The Prospect in Missouri.

The State election in Missouri will not be held until in November, but there can be little doubt now of the result.

Colorado Items.

The Overland Mail route is to be changed in a few days from the Flate valley to the cut off. This will shorten the route thirty or forty miles.

Nevada Items. Nevada has adopted a State Organization by a large vote on the 7th of September, and now only awaits the proclamation of the President...

One was that, according to the Organic Act, we have but three Judges, and they sit both as Supreme and District Judges; and as it was impossible for them to transact all the business...

Party lines were very tightly drawn in the recent territorial election, and there was much excitement. The result is not yet definitely known, but the Democrats claim to have elected their delegate to Congress by a handsome majority.

Gen. Thomas Ewing, jr., is commanding the Department of Missouri at St. Louis in the absence of Gen. Rosecrans.

The rebel robberies in Washington, Mo. is estimated at $50,000 or $60,000, principally from private citizens.

A duel was fought at St. Louis on the 17th, between Maj. Grebe and Capt. Hanson, which resulted in the wounding of the latter. The cause seems to have been an old quarrel.

Headqu. of Dep't of Kansas, Ft. Leavenworth, Oct. 15, 1864.

Commanders and owners of Steamboats and Ferryboats, on the Missouri River, in this command, will see that their boats do not fall into rebel hands...

Poetic Mjar.

The Nebraska City News last week contains a detestable little poem called the Copperhead of 1864, which Ajax claims to have written.

Letter from Gen. Clark to his Father.

Hon. J. B. Clark-Dear Father: I have just time to write a line by return courier. You see I am in command of Marmaduke's brigade in the cavalry service.

To Correspondents.

Correspondents will receive a return by the next mail, and all other things desirable, free of charge by sending their address to EDWARD A. WILCOX, Editor of the Advertiser, Brownville, Nebraska.

Entay Notice.

By authority of the undersigned, being Gen. Nemaha Charles M. N. T. on the 30th day of September 1864, one horse, eight or nine years old, right hind hoof white, star in the forehead...

WAMMOTH STOCK

Just received at JOHN A. PONN'S CHEAP DRY GOODS AND GROCERY STORE, MAIN STREET, Brownville, Nebraska.

Going to the Front.

The following beautiful little waif which we clip from the Sunday School Times will find in the heart of every loyal Nebraskan a responsive 'God bless the boys at the front'!
