

Nebraska Advertiser

W. H. MILLER, EDITOR.

—The Brownville House has changed hands. Mr. James Wood has taken charge, and from the energy he displays, we feel warranted in bespeaking for him a good patronage.

—First among the men to whom we feel ourselves most indebted for personal favors are Messrs. Marsh Bros. & Zook.

—We are informed by J. Wheeler, that the bridge across the Nemaha about nine miles west of it, is now completed.

—We learn from Mr. John Small that Ben. Holladay's stages will be along in the course of two or three weeks, as soon as enough stock can be bought, to stock the line from Nebraska City to St. Joe.

—The Steamer J. H. Lacy passed down by this place on Sunday last.

—The Topeka Tribune 25th ult., announces the death of Lieutenant W. A. Delong, R. B. H. back and O. Burn Naylor, of injuries received in the late campaign against Price.

—Notwithstanding the bad weather we have had during the past week, business has been very lively.

Several of our Merchants have been receiving large stocks of goods for the winter trade, which they are now selling off with unparalleled rapidity.

Persons knowing themselves indebted to us for subscription, will please come forward at once and settle.

A little boy returning from the Sunday school said to his mother, "My ain't there a kitchyism for little boys? This out-dism is too hard for me."

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS. LAST CALL. Trench and will have money, those indebted to me will come and pay it before the 1st of January next, after that, accounts may be found with G. G. Duray.

BUCKSKIN AND RAWHIDE. A choice lot of Whip Lashes have been received and are now open for inspection. I have them from three to twelve feet long.
