

Brownville, Thursday April 6, 1865.

Richmond, the Capital of the Confederacy has fallen, and the army of its defenders have skidded, after being severely whipped by the Union army...

Our captures in the fighting before Richmond, will be about 12,000 prisoners and 60 cannon.

There appears to be but little doubt that Andrew Johnson, was under the influence of liquor at the time of his inauguration as Vice President.

The new Internal Revenue Law is but little understood, and consequently many questions are asked of the Commissioner of Revenue...

Fairview, Brownville Precinct, March 31st, 1865. Fairview Club met pursuant to adjournment, Geo. Crow, Esq., in the Chair, and F. E. Allen, Secretary.

The following resolution was adopted: Resolved—That this Club believe it would be of the greatest profit and advantage to the Farmers of this County to have such a Mill, and that we do request the co-operation and assistance of all other Clubs in this county in this matter...

The following resolution was adopted: Resolved—That the proceedings of this Club be published in the Nebraska Advertiser.

Here is a question of vital importance to farmers, which requires a united effort. Farmers, think of it; in your Clubs discuss it, and if you have no Club organize immediately.

Much is expected, by the leaders of the slave-owners rebellion, from the construction of negroes allowed by the last rebel Congress. From the law passed, authorizing such conscription, it appears the freedom of conscripts, after they have fought the battles for their masters, is not contemplated.

"That nothing in this act shall be construed to authorize a change in the relation of said slave." This bill was passed by only two majority. The above clause was all that secured its passage, and shows with what tenacity the rebels cling to their original motive for the war.

The effects of the Equinoctial Storm on the Iron Mountain Railroad in Missouri is described as having been very disastrous. The loss is over $100,000. Nine bridges were carried away or so badly damaged as to become useless.

A large fleet is being fitted out at New York for the Mediterranean, consisting in part of the steam-frigates Brooklyn, Colorado, Minnesota, Powhatan, Wash and Kennerly, a few gunboats, and the iron-clads Dunderberg, Dictator, Puritan and New Ironsides.

The Vicksburg Herald has information that a few days ago a regiment of Texans moved on the prison pen at Jackson and literally demolished it, telling the prisoners confined there to go home, and that they themselves had enough of war, and were going to Texas.

The Rule Register is the best country paper on our exchange list, and contains some wise sayings, and new theories. The contents of the last number: A two column editorial, on both sides of the Reconstruction question, evincing great precocity in its author; a "Muddy creek's pondence," eulogizing the editor for his manliness and bravery in taking a neutral stand; and one sportive column for our especial benefit. It is the privity verdict of many of its patrons that it is a necessary article in their families.

The Secretary of War has decided that soldiers who have been in continuous service two years, are entitled to the United States bounty of one hundred dollars.

The proceeds of the Sanitary Fair held at Philadelphia last June, are just reported by its Treasurer at $1,035,398.66.

The following is said to be an extract from a letter recently written by Gen. Grant: We are now having fine weather, and I will be able to wind up matters about Richmond soon.

By order of the War Department, all Union prisoners belonging to Ohio, Indiana, Kentucky, Michigan, Virginia and North Carolina, will be sent to Camp Chase, Ohio. Those from Illinois, Wisconsin, Kansas, Minnesota and Missouri will be sent to Benton Barracks, Mo.

Miller was much chagrined last winter, while he acted as an Egrossing Clerk at Omaha, at not receiving an invitation to the Governor's party. Cause: the Governor had read Miller's paper, and didn't invite the copper-plated knave.

The Fall of Richmond. Washington, April 1—11 p. m. To Maj. Gen. Dix: The following dispatch from the President received tonight shows that the desperate struggle between our forces continues undecided, although the advantage seems to be on our side.

City Point, April 1.—To Hon. R. M. Stanton, Sec. of War: A dispatch just received, shows that Sheridan, aided by Warren, at 2 o'clock this evening, pushed the enemy back so as to take the Five Forks and bring his own headquarters up to Fort Barbeau. The Five Forks, barricaded by the enemy, was carried by Divan's division of cavalry. This part of the enemy seems to be now trying to work along the White Oak Road to join the main force in front of Grant, while Sheridan and Warren are pressing as closely as possible.

Washington, April 2, 6 a. m.—To Maj. Gen. Dix: A dispatch just received by the War Department from Gen. Grant announces the triumphant success of our arms after three days hard fighting, during which both sides exhibited unsurpassing valor.

City Point, April 2, 5:30, p. m.—A dispatch from Gen. Grant states that Sheridan, commanding infantry and cavalry, has carried everything before him. He captured three brigades of infantry, a wagon train and several batteries of artillery. The prisoners captured will amount to several thousands.

Washington, April 2, 11 a. m.—To Maj. Gen. Dix: The following from the President, dated 8:30 a. m., gives the latest intelligence from the front, where a furious battle was raging with continued success to the Union arms.

This morning Gen. Grant having ordered an attack along the whole line, telegraphed as follows: "Both Wight and Paine have got through the enemy's lines. The battle now rages furiously, Sheridan with his cavalry, the 5th Corps, is on the enemy's flank, and Wight already tearing up the Southside Railroad."

Washington, April 2, 12, m.—To Maj. Gen. Dix: The President in the subjoined telegram gives the latest news from the front.

City Point, April 2.—Di-patches are frequently coming in and all is going on hually. Gen's Parke, Wight and Ord's lines are extending from the Appomattox to Hatch's Run. They had all broken through the enemy's entrenched lines and taking some forts, guns and prisoners. Gen. Sheridan with his own cavalry and the 6th Corp and part of the 2d Corp, is on the enemy's flank, and Wight already tearing up the Southside Railroad.

St. Louis, April 3.—At half past nine o'clock this morning a dispatch was received at the telegraph office in this city, from the operator at New York, stating that Richmond had been taken. The announcement was not official and the publication of it was withheld till confirmation should be received.

At 10 o'clock a dispatch from Secretary Stanton to Gen. Dix was received confirming the news and placing it beyond all doubt. Secretary Stanton briefly states that General Wezel entered Richmond at quarter past 8 o'clock this morning and occupies the city. It does not appear that there was any opposition.

New York, April 3.—At 8:30 this morning the President reports that Petersburg is evacuated and Grant says Richmond is also.

Buffalo, April 3.—Dispatches from Eastern cities show great excitement and rejoicing over the fall of Petersburg and Richmond.

Washington, April 3, 12, m.—To Maj. Gen. Dix: The following official confirmation of the capture of Richmond and announcement that the city is on fire has been received.

The Grandest Scheme of the Age is the lottery by which the Patee House in this city is to be disposed of with all its furniture, which is of the richest and most costly kind. The drawing of this Lottery is irrevocably decided to take place on the 26th day of April, 1865, by order of the Proprietor, Treasury and Director.

We have the best assurance that this Lottery will be fairly and honorably conducted.
