BROWNVILLE, THURSDAY ARRIL 12, 1565

Last Sunday was one of the most glorious days in the history of our country, on that day the rebel army of Northern Virginia surrendered to our invincible army under Gen. Grant. This army has been the main hope of the Confederacy, with it, a few weeks since, they hope'd to defeat both Grant and Sherman, and now it has vanished, nothin remaining to show for it but paroled prisoners.x The battles preceeding the fall of Richmond were the most obstinately contested of the war, but once outside of their earth-works and forts the rebels were flanked, surrounded and cout off without any difficulty. No considerable battle was fought after both armies were in the open field. Here is one of denouments of the superior genwhich has just resulted so gleriously, lover thousands of miles, and operating from center to circumference of the Confederacy, and so far it has been most of the Omaha Reservation-and his own the Confederacy of any magnitude- both numbering about 40 000-is that under the relief of Gen. Lee. Sherman is in Joseph Herald, of the 6th : close proximity to this army, and we . At Julesburg about 2,000 troops were expect good news from that quarter, soon. The loss in killed and wounded in Lee's army, during the late battles, is reported at 20,000, while our loss is elonly 6,000.

Jeff. Davis is reported has gone to Danville, where, it is reported, he intends to "convene the Southern Congress and fortify" for another stand. Mobile is reported in the possession of wares help compose this regiment. the Union.

The very latest news contradicts the depredations by the red-skins. -Fumor that Mobile is in our possession. All the coast south of it is in our posses- We have just received No. 3 Vol. 1 and cut off from all communication.

It is reported that Jeff. Davis has gone to Danville, and is trying to join Johnson with the archives of the late rebel government and a large amount of specie. Secretary Stanton expresses the opinthat there will be no more hard fighting.

Sec. Seward, who was recently thrown from his carriage and had his arm broken, is reported much worse. The Tribune's special says "the danger of erysipelas is passed, but medical men fear that ewing to his inability to take solid food he cannot repair the waste of his vitality in time to meet the heat of the coming warm weather."

John F. Kinney, in 1862, because as they argued, he was more honest than Sam'l G. Daily, the following will doubtless be a delicious morsel. It is an extract from a speech delivered in Utah, while he (Kinney) was a candidate Congrees from that Territory : "President Young, has told you I would make a political speech. It is true I have been an active politician in the great National Democratic Party; but in the present condition of the affairs of the country I have no heart for politics (Amens and cries of good.) I tell Overseer of the Poor in Nemaha you my friends, that this rebellion began City Precinct, 3 days to April 3, with the martyrdom of Joseph Smith, 1865. the Prophet, in Illinois; and the murder of Joseph and Hiram Smith was the Seymour Howe, for Boarding, great first cause of the war, and for Clothing and washing for Thos. which the nation will be Lroken up and B. Murray, a pauper, from the 9th destroyed, and ought to be. Ever since I made the acquaintance of Brigham the most friendly feelings have existed, (and pointing to him;) I do lave that man .-(Amens by the crown.)"

He is the biggest demagogue the west has ever produced, and from the above extract a traitor, to boot.

Nebraska, Colorado and Utah have been merged into one District, called the . Department of the Plains," with headquarters removed from Omaha to Denver

City, Gen. Conner, Gen. Mitchell. late commandant of this Department, has been assigned to command the military district of Northern Kansae, with headquarters at Fort Leavenworth,

The Omaha Republican of the 7th has the following ;

Lieut. Williams, of Gen. Mitchell's staff, and Provest Marchal, made thirteen arrests on yesterday, and two this morning-all of the parties suspected of being Missouri bushwhackers."

A tolerable fair haul, that; but, from H. B. Strong, for services as Suthe way they are being crowded out of Missouri, we think many more may be caught. We look for developments in this section, soon.

We learn, from the News, that Col. O. P. Mason has resigned his position as Deputy Provest Marshall.
