UNION OF THE WORLD AND

The World, to which the New York Weekly Argus as been united, har to-day five times the aggregate circulation of any Democratic or conservative newspaper. It addresses weekly alone more than 100,000 subscribers and constant purchasers, and reaches at least half a million readers. With the steady increase in circulation which it now enjoys, these numbers will soon be doubled. Nothing less than this should satisfy those who believe that the only hope of restoring the Union and the authority of the Constitution over a new distracted and divided country, lies in wresting power from the hands of those fanaticism has helped to provoke. invite, and prolong the war; and that to accomplish this end, no means is so effective as the diffusion through able and enterprising newspapers, of sound political knowledge among the working men, the thinking men, and the votingmen of the North. Enterprise, industry and money will be liberally expended to make The World the Best Newspaper in America- Its news from every part of the world ready. It contains about two hundred choice songs wiil be early and uthentic. Wherever the telegraph exteds, or railroads run, or sheamboats ply it will gather the latest intelligence.
