Last Saturday evening our city was thrown into a small excitement by the fact that one of the prisoners held by the county in our city jail, had made his escape. His name is Chas. Randall, and was bound over to the District Court on charge of grand larceny. Two other prisoners, in at the same time, refused to leave, although the door was wide open. Our jail is not sufficient to hold a thief of ordinary energy, and it is a farce to incarcerate any but a drunken men in it.

One of the Greatest

Causes of ill health is costiveness, or indigestion. It has for its offspring dyspepsia, with all its attendant miseries, such as sick-headache, sour stomach, no appetite, no energy, in fact, complete prostration. Coe's Dyspepsia Cure is a soverign remedy, why do not you, who are suffering, make the experiment of the trial of a single bottle, it costs but a trifle to test it, and will surely bring you relief.

Who is responsible for the safe keeping of the prisoners lodged in our city jail. One has already escaped, and, instead of this producing extra vigilence, the other two seem to have the freedom of the city. On behalf of the tax-payers of the county we protest against this.—The ends of justice can never be reached through such criminal neglect of its officers. We shall make it warm for some one if either of these prisoners escape.

A Remarkable Cure.

Deafness of Sixteen Years standing—Hearing Restored by an Operation Performed by Dr. Bort at the Seymour House

This is to acknowledge that I have been deaf for over sixteen years, so much so that I could but scarcely distinguish any sounds. In this condition I entered Dr Bort's rooms at the Seymour House, this the 4th day of July, 1866. The Doctor performed an operation on my years for the restoration of hearing, and in less than twenty minutes I could hear, seemingly, as well as any one, and thanks to the skill of Dr. Bort so ably manifested in my case, that of restoration of hearing.

Signed Wm. G. Hynds,
41 2 Plattsmouth, Nebraska.

Dr Bort will pay his second professional visit to Brownville, by being at the Brownville House Wednesday and Thursday, July 25th and 26th, at which time he can be consulted by those who can appreciate and distinguish the services of a thoroughbred physician and surgeon from an unlearned and paltry quack

The Omaha Herald, in lauding the Nebraska Democracy, says that

"They say "get behind me Satan," intending no disrespect for the devil, but simply desiring to vindicate themselves."

The above shows the most flagrant disregard of parental affection we have ever heard of, and the appology to the old gentleman, is simply an admission that they cannot do without him, but would like him to "take a back seat" now that the "cruel war is over." We doubt much whether His Majesty will be exorcised by his off-spring so thoroughly "possessed."

If war breaks out what will be the attitude of the neutral powers? At Vienna the people flatter themselves that Russia will be with Austria against Prussia. That the St Petersburg cabinet has seen with the same display of pleasure as the rest of Europe the ambitious and conquering feeling of Count Bismark is all the more easy to understand, because the extension of a Prussian maritime state in the Baltic and the possession by Germany of the two Duchies of the Elbe might interfere with the development of Russia's own navy and deprive her some day of the keys of the North Sea, still entrusted to the enfeebled but neutral hands of Denmark. But absorbed as she is by her internal transformation, connected by friendship with the Prussian Court and with but little sympathy for that of Vienna, it is to be presumed that Russia will not interfere in the struggle except at the last extremity. It is possible that England and France will observe the same with this difference, however, that France vexed, and with justice, by the failure of her last pacific attempts, and morally obliged to sustain Italy, should she be threatened in regard to the results of the campaign of 1859, might be more quickly led to join in the conflict than the two other powers. Already people say in Paris that directly the first shot is fired, whether in Italy or beyond the Rhine, the Moniteur will announce the formation of two corps of observation upon the eastern frontier of the Empire.—Independence Belge, June 6th.

LAWS OF THE UNITED STATES

Passed at the First Session of the Thirty-Ninth Congress.

(Public No. 48.)

AN ACT to authorize the coinage of five-cent pieces.

Be it resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That, as soon as practicable after the passage of this act, there shall be coined at the mint of the United States a five-cent piece composed of copper and nickel, in such proportions, not exceeding twenty five per centum of nickel, as shall be determined by the director of the mint, the standard weight of which shall be seventy-seven and sixteen hundredths grains, with no greater deviation than two grains to each piece; and the shape, mottoes and devices of said coin shall be determined by the director of the mint, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury; and the laws now in force relating to the coinage of cents, and providing for the purchase of material, and prescribing the appropriate duties of the officers of the mint and the Secretary of the Treasury, be and the same are hereby, extended to the coinage herein provided for.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That all laws now in force relating to the coins of the United States and the coining and coinage of the same shall, so far as applicable, be extended to the coinage herein authorized, whether said laws are penal or otherwise, for the security of the coin regulating and guarding the process of striking and coining, for preventing debasement or counterfeiting, or for any other purpose. And the director of the mint shall prescribe suitable regulations to insure a due conformity to the required weight and proportion of alloy in the said coin, and shall order trials thereof to be made from time to time by the assayer of the mint, whose of a report shall be made in writing to the director.

SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, That said coin shall be a legal tender in any payment to the amount of one dollar. And it shall be lawful to pay out such coins in exchange for the lawful currency in the United States (except cents, or half cents or twopence piece, issued under former acts of Congress), in suitable sums, by the treasurer of the mint, and by such other depositaries as the Secretary may designate, and under general regulations approved by the Secretary of the Treasury. And under such regulations the same may be exchanged for such denominations for any lawful currency of the United States, and the expenses incidents to such exchange, distribution, and transmission may be paid out of the profits of said coinage; and the net profits of said coinage, as ascertained in the manner prescribed in the second section of the act entitled "An act relating to the coinage of cents and the coinage of three cent pieces at the mint of the United States," approved February sixty first, eighteen hundred and fifty-six, except the transfer to the treasury of the United States provided. That from and after the passage of this act no issues of fractional notes of the United States shall be of a less denomination than five cents, and all such issues that may be paid into the treasury or any designated depository of the United States, except as hereinafter provided by this act, shall be cancelled and destroyed.

SEC. 4. And be it further enacted, That any person or persons not dealers in coin, or coin brokers, who shall melt or cause to be melted or assist in melting any of the coins of the United States, or who shall export the same, or any part thereof, without the permission of the Secretary of the Treasury, first had and obtained, except as provided by this act, or who shall have the same in possession with intent to melt or export the same, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall, on conviction in the district or circuit courts, be punished by a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars, and by imprisonment for a term not exceeding five years, at the discretion of the court.

SEC. 5. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the treasurer and assistant treasurers of the United States to redeem in national currency, under such rules and regulations as may be prescribed by the Secretary of the Treasury the compound notices authorized to be issued, when presented in sums of not less than one hundred dollars.

Approved, May 16, 1866.

(Public No 51.)

AN ACT to amend "An act to establish the grade of Vice Admiral in the United States navy."

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the second section of an act to establish the grade of vice admiral in the United States navy, approved December twenty first, eighteen hundred and sixty-four, be, and the same is hereby, amended by adding thereto the following: "And he shall be allowed a Secretary with the rank and sea pay and allowances of a lieutenant in the navy."

Approved, May 12, 1866.

(Public Resolution, No. 31.)

JOINT RESOLUTION relative to the attempted assassination of the Emperor of Russia.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Congress of the United States of America has learned with deep regret of the attempt made upon the life of the Emperor of Russia, by an enemy of Emancipation. The Congress sends greeting to his Imperial Majesty, and to the Russian nation, and congratulates the twenty millions of serfs upon the providential escape from danger of the sovereign, to whose head and heart they owe the blessings of their freedom.

SEC. 2. And be it further resolved, That the President of the United States be requested to forward a copy of this resolution to the Emperor of Russia.

Approved, May 15, 1866.

(Public Resolution, No. 32.)

JOINT RESOLUTION relative to the courts and post offices of New York city.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of United States of America in Congress assembled, That the mayor and postmaster of the city of New York, the district attorney for the United States at New York city, the presiden of the Chamber of Commerce of the State of New York, and Jackson S. Schultz, Charles H. Russell, and Moses Taylor, of New York city, be appointed a commission to select a proper site for a building for a post office and for the accommodation of the United States courts in the city of New York; and that they report to the Postmaster General and the Secretary of the Interior, at their earliest convenience, the selection upon them which they, or a majority of them, may agree, and the price at which such site can be purchased by the government for the purposes contemplated in this resolution, if a new site should be selected; and that said report shall meet the approbation of the Postmaster General and the Secretary of the Interior, they shall communicate the same, with such additional suggestions as they may think proper, to Congress.

Approved, May 16, 1866.

(Public Resolution, No. 33.)

A RESOLUTION authorizing the Secretary of War to grant the use of a certain number for the Fair for the Soldiers' and Sailors' Orphan Home.

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of War is hereby authorized to grant the use of tents not demanded by the Department for immediate use, for the erection of temporary buildings in the city of Washington for the National Fair for the benefit of the Soldiers' and Sailors' Orphan Home.

Approved, May 16, 1866.

[Public No. 52.]

AN ACT making appropriations for the service of the Post Office Department during the fiscal year ending the thirtieth of June, eighteen hundred and sixty-seven, and for other purposes.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the following sums be, and the same are hereby, appropriated for the service of the Post Office Department for the year ending June thirtieth, eighteen hundred and sixty-seven, out of any money in the treasury arising from the revenues of said department, in conformity to the act of the second of July, eighteen hundred and thirty-six.

For transportation of the mails, (inland,) nine million five hundred and fifty thousand dollars.

For transportation of the mails, (foreign,) six hundred thousand dollars.

For ship, steamboat and way letters, eight thousand dollars.

For compensation to postmasters, four million two hundred and fifty thousand dollars.

For clerks for post offices, one million nine hundred and twenty thousand dollars.

For payment to letter carriers, six hundred and forty thousand dollars.

For wrapping paper, one hundred thousand dollars.

For twine, thirty thousand dollars;

For letter balances, six thousand dollars.

For commission to blank agents and assistance eight thousand dollars.

For office furniture, six thousand dollars.

For advertising, eighty thousand dollars.

For postage stamps and stamped envelopes, two hundred and fifty thousand dollars.

For mail depredations and special agents, one hundred thousand dollars.

For mail bags, one hundred and thirty thousand dollars.

For mail locks, keys, and stamps, thirty thousand dollars.

For payments of balances due to foreign countries, three hundred and fifty thousand dollars.

For miscellaneous payments, three hundred and twenty thousand dollars.

To enable the superintendent of the Naval Observatory to carry out the object of Senate resolution of March nineteenth, eighteen hundred and sixty-six, for report of Isthmus routes to the Pacific ocean; fifteen hundred dollars.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That the following sums, or so much thereof as may be necessary, be, and the same are hereby, appropriated for the year ending June thirtieth, eighteen hundred and sixty-seven, out any money in the treasury not otherwise appropriated.

For the mail steamship service between the United States and Brazil, one hundred and fifty thousand dollars. Provided, That this appropriation shall take effect only when Brazil shall have performed the conditions on her part provided in the law authorizing said service.

For the mail steamship service between San Francisco, Japan, and China, for six months ending June thirtieth, eighteen hundred and sixty-seven, two hundred and fifty thousand dollars.

For the overland mail transportation between Atchison and Folsom, and for marine mail transportation between New York and California, nine hundred thousand dollars.

SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, That the Postmaster General be, and he is hereby, authorized to employ sailing vessels for the transportation of the mails between the ports of the United States and any foreign ports where the services may be facilitated thereby, allowing and paying therefor a compensation not exceeding the sea postage accruing on the mails so conveyed.

SEC. 4. And be it further enacted, That the Postmaster General be, and is hereby, required to report to the Secretary of the Treasury annually, prior to the first day of November of each year, his estimate of the money required for the services of the Post Office Department for the ensuing fiscal year, which estimate shall be reported to Congress with the printed estimates of appropriations required by the joint resolution of the seventh of January, eighteen hundred and forty-six.

SEC. 5. And be it further enacted, That the balance of the appropriation of one hundred thousand dollars under the thirtieth section of an act "to establish a postal money order system," approved May seventeenth, eighteen hundred and sixty-four which may remain unexpended at the close of the current fiscal year, may be used as far as necessary to supply deficiencies in the proceeds of the money order system during the fiscal year commencing July first, eighteen hundred and sixty six.

SEC. 6. And be it further enacted, That all advertising, notices, and proposals for contracts for the Post Office Department, and all advertising notices, and proposals for contracts for all the Executive Departments of the Government, required by law to be published in the city of Washington, shall be at the advertised by public bids in the two daily newspapers in the city of Washington having the largest circulation, and in no other: Provided, That the charge for such publication shall not be higher than rates as are paid by individuals for advertising in said newspapers: And provided also, That the same publications shall be made in semi-weekly papers of said city, and that the circulation of such papers shall be determined upon the 10th day June annually, and the publishers of all papers coming for public advertising shall furnish a sworn statement of the actual bona fide paid circulation of each regular issue of the preceding three months; and shall in like manner certify under oath that such circulation has not during the said three months been increased by any gratuitous circulation, by a reduction in price below the ordinary and usual price of such paper, or by any other means, for the purpose of obtaining the official advertising: Provided, That the charge for such advertising shall not be greater than is paid for the same publications to other citizens at a higher rate than is paid by individual for like advertising.

Approved, May 18, 1866.

TWO STYLES OF HORSE POWERS.

The Improved "Carey" Power,

(Both eight and ten horse.)

THE "COMPENSATING" POWER,

(Both eight and ten horse.)

A laudable ambition exists among threshers to "own the best machine in the neighborhood." Nothing is more disagreeable to them than to have farmers complain that their work is not properly done, or to lose valuable time by reason of breakages, and they cannot be too careful in selecting a machine.

The Sweepstakes is the accredited head of the Threshing Machine family, and its superior strength, durability, simplicity, ease of draft, style of finish, and capacity for threshing and cleaning grain faster and better than any other in the world, are acknowledged.

The great reputation achieved by this favorite machine has led several unscrupulous manufacturers, and numerous agents, to attach the name "Sweepstakes," in one way and another, to their machines and advertisements to mislead and deceive.

This is the essence of meanness—downright piracy, and sailing under false colors. To avoid the counterfeit, see that every machine has the card, "C. AULTMAN & CO., Manufacturers, Canton, Ohio," in gilt letters, conspicuously on both sides of the Separator.

The Genuine Sweepstakes enables the thresher to pick his customers, seldom stops for repairs, lasts much longer than others, saves much grumbling and vexation, does the same amount of work with less labor, and enables him to select the best and most profitable jobs.

The farmers give it a preference, and often an extra price per bushel, because it threshes clean from the heads, separates perfectly from the straw, cleans fit for market without waste, saves all the grain, does its work with the utmost speed, safety and economy, and does not keep a gang of men and teams about them on expense.

The elegant "Patent Pivot Side Gear" is to be found only on the SWEEPSTAKES.

Our "Patent Cleaning Apparatus" enables the operator to control the direction of the blast, and position of the seives, and clean either heavy or light grain, without waste, as fast as it can be threshed,—the chaff and dirt being separated from the grain before it strikes the sieve at all.

Separators, Horse Powers, Straw Stackers, Gears or Jacks, sold separately, when desired. A written warranty delivered with every machine. The "SWEEPSTAKES" is usualy a very scarce article after harvest, and parties should order early.

Call or send and get a pamphlet circular, giving a full description and particulars, together with numerous certificates, and the names and residence of over three thousand persons who have bought and used the SWEEPSTAKES in Illinois, Iowa, Minnesota, Wisconsin, and Kansas, alone.

TRENCH PLOWS.

We have the exclusive right to the manufacture and sale of these plows in this Territory and adjoining counties of Missouri, and intend to supply all demands so far as practicable.

It is conceded by all who have tested the Leeper & Kidder Cultivator, that it is superior to all others, in the following respects:

1st. The plowman can ride easier and plow with less labor.

2nd. Any person who can drive a team can manage it.

3d. Crooked rown of corn are plowed as easily and thoroughly as straight ones, the plowman sitting so as to observe the corn, and see if the work is well done.

4th. It is guided by a perfectly natural and easy foot motion, and does not cramp or tire the plowman.

5th. The plow, while in motion, is moved with perfect ease.

6th. The shovels may be adjusted to any depth, and any desired space between them is easily obtained.

7th. It has adjustable shields to prevent young corn from being covered.

8th. It is admirably adapted to plowing in small grain.

Every cultivator is well made, of good material, and warranted to do good work.

We refer to the following named persons, who last year bought and used the cultivator manufactured by Morgan & Mead, in Atchison county, Missouri, to-wit:

THE GANG, TRENCH,

AND SUBSOIL

PLOWS,

Have been DeSigned Especially to Meet the Wants of Farmers.

☞One man and four horses can do more Work, and do it better, with this plow, than two men with two disconnected plows.

The following are some of the advantages these Plows have over others:

1st. They are so arranged that they cannot rise out of the ground when striking a sod or hard place, insuring thorough work.

2nd. They are the lightest draft of any Plow, either single or double, according to the report of the Committee of Trial of Implements, at Decatur, Ill., September, 1863.

3d. They are more easily managed; any stout boy ten years old can manage them.

4th. They are more compact and and simple, therefore not so liable to get out of order.

These Plows have taken Five First Premiums at the Illinois State Fairs, and Four at Iowa State Fairs.

The Trench Plows are used for breaking Prairie or Meadow land, with a Sod Plow in front, cutting the sod in a thin slice, and turning it down into a deep furrow, and the rear plow raising the sub-soil to the surface, covers the sod completely, so that it is out of the way of after culture.

☞We will promptly fill all orders for the above named plows at this place.
