LA TOUR D'AUVERGNE.

For many a year there was a touching and beautiful custom to be witnessed in a certain regiment of French grenadiers, and which was meant to commemorate the heroism of a departed comrade. When the companies assembled for parade, and the roll was called, there was one name to which its owner could not answer—it was that of La Tour D'AUVERGNE.

The Homestead Law.

By the 5th section of the Homestead Act of 1862, parties who have made entry continuous settlement and cultivation, have the right at any time before the expiration of the period, to make proof of such settlement up to a given day, and then pay for the tract at $1.25 per acre, and at once get a title.

Beecher vs. Beecher.

Everybody has read Henry Ward Beecher's recent letters defending Johnson's usurpations of the rights and functions of Congress and supporting "any policy" of precipitating ten unrepentant States into Congress, without conditions or guarantees.

Late Mountain news.

From late Montana papers we extract the following: A report has reached Virginia City, which bears the marks of reliability, that three hundred Cheyenne Indians made an attack on the miners at there recently discovered Green River diggings, and killed forty out of the party, about seventy strong.
