SPRING RAIN. Patter-patter-Listen how the rain-drops clatter, Falling on the shingle roof ;

How they rattle, Like the rifle's click in battle, Or the charger's iron hoof ! Cool and pleasant Is the evening air at present,

Gathering freshness from the rain; Languor chasing, Muscle, thew, and sinew bracing, And enlivening the brain. Close together Draw the bands of love in weather When the sky is overcast;

Eyeballe glisten-Thankfully we sit and listen To the rain that's coming fast. Dropping-dropping Like dissolving diamonds-popping 'Gainst the crystal window-pane,

As if seeking Entrance-welcome, and bespeaking Our affection for the rain. Quick and quicker Drip the droppings; thick and thicker Pour the hasty torrents down : Rushing-rushing-

From the leaden spouts a-gushing,

Cleausing all the streets in town. Dankness utter Gathers round : we close the shutter ; Snugly shelter'd let us keep. Still unceasing

Falls the rain ; but oh ! 'tis pleasing 'Neath such lullaby to sleep. How I love #1 Let the miser money covet-Let the soldier seek the fight ; Give me enly,

When I lie awake and lonely .

Music made by rain at night.
