Grain! Grain!!—Bedford & Co. pay cash for all kinds of Grain, Bacon and Lard.

We will pay 75cts a bushel for five bushel of good ripe Wild Grapes delivered at this office. Less than two bushel and a half at a time not accepted.

Grain Wanted.—I will pay the highest market price for Wheat, Corn, and Oats. S. SEEMAN.

W. W. Hackney has a large and choice Stock of Dry Goods and Notions, backed by the determination to sell low.

McPherson's Block is rapidly approaching completion; Mc. is determined to make this building second to none in Nebraska.

For Chicago Dairies of the 9th we are indebted to "Bruin," of the Telegraph News Depot. He keeps up with the times in his line.

A D Marsh is increasing his stock of Books, Magazines, News and Literary papers amazingly. He keeps the latest.

Hardware.—Shellenberger Bros. have a complete outfit of Hardware of all kinds on the way from New York, St. Louis and Pittsburg. They buy only from manufacturers.

Robert Teare, of the firm of Teare & Co. has gone to New York for Goods. He goes with a carpet bag full of greenbacks to the largest mart of trade in the Union, and will bring a rousing stock.

Dr. M. P. Harley.—Homeopathic Physician and Surgeon, Office at the residence of S. P. Tuttle, Esq., South East corner of 5th, and Main Streets. 44 ft.

P. Green.—Bliss & Hacker are now in their P. Green store, under this office, where they are constantly receiving and dispatching choice Groceries. Their stock is a No. 1, and they are the gentlemen to deal with.

We are authorized to announce the name of J. W. Bennet as a candidate for Matrimony. Mr. Bennet has a fine farm, well stocked, a good two-story house, and sees signs of a severe winter ahead.

We have just made the acquaintance of Jas. M. Gilkison of St. Louis, now in our city, looking up a site for a Wholesale and Retail Grocery store. Mr. Gilkison has means and energy and will make a valuable acquisition.

Swan & Bro., have during the past week received a large addition to their stock of Groceries, Provisions and Woodens Ware. They are determined to keep pace with the demand and keep the best assorted stock in the market.

Settled.—We are pleased to learn that the difficulty between the District Court of this District and J. W. Bliss has been amicably settled, and that Messrs Bliss & Hacker have resigned authority to pen up their chickens, and that they are determined in spite of all obstacles to keep on hand the best country produce the market affords in connection with their choice stock of Groceries. Daily for Bliss?

Auction! Auction! Auction!!!

Bliss will sell a large lot of Household Furniture on Saturday next. The goods are nearly new and will be sold without reserve. If Court is in session the place of sale will be on the corner of Main and First streets, if not, in front of the P. Green store.

Large Melons.—We are indebted to Amos Hughes for a couple of the highest Watermelons of the season, the two weighing 122 pounds. They were whoppers, and we tender our sincere regards for the same.

You will always find a full assortment of the very latest Newspapers and Magazines at the news Depot, in the Telegraph Building. "Bruin," the manager, is agreeable and always ready to accommodate you.

Choice Land to be Sold.—Mr. C. McLeod will be in this city in about two weeks to sell the N. W. quarter of Section 18, Township 4, Range 15, in this County. This land is situated about six miles southwest of the Nemaha river, near what is known as Bixler's Creek, is choice land, and will be offered at a bargain.

Personal.—Among the distinguished gentlemen who are here to attend Court, we acknowledge a visit to our sanatorium from Judge Mason, ex-Judge Dundy, District Attorney Revis, and Wm. McLennan—whose card may be found in today's paper. Nebraska has cause to feel proud of her array of legal talent.

Precinct Convention.—At the Precinct Republican Convention for this Precinct, held in this last Saturday, the following Delegates were chosen:

R S Hannford, Ed Smith, John Strain, Geo Crow, J W Coleman, J Q A Smith, Wesley Penny, Charles Ware, S H Clayton, C G Dorsey, Jno McPherson, S M Rich, Jno L Carson, H M Atkinson, J S Church, J W Bliss, J C Deuser, D H McLaughlin, Ben Rogers, R W Furnas.

Dr. J. H. Jordan, Indianapolis, Ind., says: "I have known Dr Strickland's Pile Remedy to be thoroughly tested in numerous cases during the past year, and with perfect success in every instance... And so it is with his Remedy for Diarrhoea or Cholera and his Cough Balsam. They are all genuine and pure." 49 ft. m.

Notice is hereby given that there will be a meeting of the Walnut Grove Cemetery Association of Brownville, Nebraska, on the 23rd of September, 1867, at four o'clock P. M., at the Presbyterian Church in Brownville, for the purpose of electing trustees and other officers for said Association. Aug 31st, 1867. E. W. THOMAS, Sec'y.

John C. Deuser has in store the largest, most complete and latest improved stock of Cook Stoves, ever brought to this market. For sale cheaper than the cheapest, for cash only. Also a late improved horse power Corn Mill, to crush the corn, cob and all. The Victory Sorghum Cane Mill, Cook's Evaporator. All sizes of Sheet Iron for sugar boilers, large Cast Iron Kettles from ten to forty gallons. Post Augers, Fence Wire, &c. All Cheap for Cash.

Wanted at Rockport Landing, 10,000 Bushel of Wheat, 5000 Bushel of Oats, 5000 Bushel of Corn, 5000 Bushel of Barley. For which we will pay the highest market price in cash. MUIR & BIXBY.

All persons indebted to the firm of Atkinson & Co., either by note or account, will please call and pay the same at once.

All notes or accounts unpaid by the 15th of September will positively be left with an Attorney for collection. ATKINSON & CO.

Farmers look to your interest.—Lumber at City Mills for $2.00 per hundred feet, Shingles $2.50 per thousand. Flour at 4.50 per hundred. Highest market price paid for Wheat and Corn in Cash. McPHERSON, LEACH BRO. & CO.

Hartford Live Stock Insurance Company.—We see that this company have established an Agency in this city, presided over by Jas. McNaughton, at Carson's Bank. This is undoubtedly one of the greatest safeguards to the farmer, or any one owning live stock, that ever was originated. It insures against loss by Death or Theft. The risk by death to a person having but a small supply of stock, or say but the number of horses actually need, is too great not to be prepared against, and add that of loss by theft, and it behooves every man to insure. This company has a capital of $500,000, and is reliable in every respect.

We notice a neat residence going up nearly south of the M E Church. Several new residences have been put under way since our last, which we will notice as soon we can learn the names of the proprietors.

STAY PONY

Strayed from the undersigned living in Tecumseh, on the 15th day of August. One black Horse Pony, four white feet, blazed face, one glass eye, 8 years old. Any person delivering the animal to me, or any information that will lead to its recovery will be liberally rewarded. 50 6i-p GEORGE W. RAMSEY.

Serious Accident.—A serious accident happened to one of our citizens last Monday morning. While the Steamer Colorado was at our wharf, some one on the cabin deck was handling a pistol, when it went off the ball passing down among the crowd standing on the wharf and wounding Mr. Connor in the left arm. The ball passed under the arm and within a few inches of the heart, yet inflicting only a painful flesh wound in the muscle of the arm. Search was made for the reckless owner of the pistol but he was not to be found.

A STIMULATING TONIC—LIFE BITTERS.

Good health is a blessing. The way to enjoy such is to take a wine glass full of STRICKLAND'S LIFE BITTERS two or three times a day. They create a good appetite; they strengthen the stomach; they cure habitual Consumption, Nervousness, and Headache; they make the old feel young. If you wish long life and good health, use STRICKLAND'S LIFE BITTERS. For sale in bottles by Druggists, and by the drink at all saloons and groceries. If

It Vanisheth Away.—Do our readers all understand that the genuine Chemical Saleratus, made by D. B. De Land & Co., is never eaten. In the process of baking it all evaporates, leaving the bread light and pure. It has been imitated but the counterfeit is not easily disposed of. Use it instead of Soda. It weighs 16 ounce to the paper; and others weigh 14 oz.
