G. A. R. Attention!—Post No. 1, District of Nemaha County: Hereafter the regular meetings of this Post will be on every alternate Thursday evening at precisely half past 7 o'clock, commencing on Thursday evening, Nov. 7th, inst., when every member is ordered to be present. Important business to be transacted. By order of the Post.

Anna.—Win. H. Hoover is now the authorized Agent of this old and reliable Insurance Company. The connection is a good one for the company and this community. Hope Billy will make it pay.

Pay Up.—All persons indebted to the late firm of Atkinson & Co., either by note or account, will save costs by paying up at once. We will take Corn, Wheat, Oats, Rye, Barley, Potatoes, or the money, and will allow the highest market price for the produce.
ATKINSON & CO.

Corn as is Corn.—Geo. Bryant, living about six miles west of this city, left at our office six ears of average Corn from the same field as that which took the first premium at our County Fair.
These ears weigh one pound each and average ten inches in length. The crop is gathered and by actual measurement of both the ground and Corn turns out eighty two bushels to the acre! We have heard of other big yields, yet we doubt much if this can be beat anywhere upon actual measurement.

New Warehouse.—We notice that Rainey & Lewis are erecting a large and substantial Warehouse on Water between 1st and 2nd streets. This has become to them a necessity from their greatly increased dealings in all kinds of country produce. May they increase continually.

Fine Stock of Lamps.—Wm. H.
McCreery has certainly as fine a stock of coal oil lamps as were ever brought to this market. They are splendid. His new style white lamp cannot be excelled for beauty or finish; and the colored gilded lamps are beyond question nicer than anything ever before produced here.
He keeps chimneys, globes, and everything in that line.

If any body finds a Buffalo Robe with the following mark,
B Rogers livery
Anco B
we are requested to say that it belongs to Ben Rogers & Co. Livery, Brownville.
Ben announces that he is prepared to attend to the marking department of all business houses needing anything in that line.

Our Library Association.—What has become of it? The long winter nights are at hand, and this safety valve for the morals of many a young man should be placed in operation. Nothing conduces more to the benefit of a community of young men than a good Library; public, if possible; yet, if not, with such fees for membership as will place it within the reach of all. Come!
Let's have it going, that the community may reap some benefit from the books it contains.

Fast Time.—U. S. X.—The United States Express Company, J. L. Carson, Agent, are determined to maintain their reputation for dispatch in the transportation of freight. Mr. Evan Worthington ordered two cases of oysters by this company, which left Chicago on the 29th of October, and were received by him at noon on the 31st of October—two days and a half! This company runs a through express car from Chicago to Nebraska City, and our merchants who wish their goods delivered in quick time, at low rates, should patronize the United States Express Company.

Culverts.—Workmen are putting in the culverts on Fourth, between Main and Water, and the grading of Fourth from Nemaha to Water, and the street outh of it, has been let, the contractor to commence and complete the work this Fall, if possible. These wooden culverts we have opposed until we find it of use, and now we would suggest that the Council take into consideration the propriety of using on the plank and pits, used in their construction, Foreman's Wood Preservative. If this is as good as it is said to be, they would last twice as long, while the cost would be at a trifle.
