JARVIS S. CHURCH, Editor.

BROWNVILLE, THURSDAY, NOV. 29, 1867.

Reconstruction.

In 1860 a large majority of the electors of the United States voted for Abraham Lincoln for President.

In 1864 the Democracy met in a National Convention at Chicago, and there declared that the war to preserve the Union was a failure.

A loyal Congress here comes to the rescue. They so far shape the policy of the country at this juncture of affairs as to place the power of the nation under the control of the Union forces.

But as the Democracy will have no reconstruction from the hands of a legal Congress—none when guarantees are demanded, which shall preclude the possibility of another insurrection.

Ex-Gov. Holden of North Carolina, says when he was appointed provisional Governor, President Johnson gave him "unlimited power" to seize property and confiscate it to the use of the State government.

The Tribune attributes the loss of this State to the action of the Republicans, and especially of the Republican journals, who are opposed to "what they are pleased to stigmatize as Radicalism."

The substance of the above is this: The Times' faction would not support the Republican nominees of the State of New York at the late election because they were of the Tribune stripe of politicians.

The Tribune and its allies are now making a desperate effort to get the control of the campaign into their own hands.

the Democracy every time you refuse". We honor the true Republicans of New York for the course they pursued.

Let them exert if they must, and attribute their success to whatever source they may, their power is limited.

Our government, as administered for some years, seems to have been nothing better than a patent thieving machine.

The Louisville Courier thus alludes to a speech of Gen. Sherman:

"When Sherman in his speech professes to wonder how any Southern man can speak of the 'lost cause' in language other than that of shame and sorrow."

The Southern Republicans now in Washington City propose to hold a convention of Southern Radicals on the 22d of February to bring forward the name of Mr. Chase as Candidate for President.

Mrs. Jefferson Davis a few days ago passed a night in Rutland, Vermont, while traveling to join her husband in Canada.

Vallandigham has publicly announced himself a candidate for the United States Senatorship from Ohio.

Foreign News. London, Nov. 22.—Last night an effort was made in the House of Commons to save the Manchester Penitents from being hung.

ken and Gould—suffered the extreme penalty of England's law, on Friday, last, the 22d inst., at Manchester, England.

The Pope, who at first was strenuously opposed to any conference whatever for the settlement of the Roman question, has at length withdrawn his objection.

Many of the details of the Conference have already been agreed upon. Munich has been already chosen as the place, and the 11th of December as the time.

The Paris Patrie denies the report that General Dix had expressed any desire of representation of the United States in the Conference.

The following, from the Chicago Tribune, is to the point: In the southern part of Indiana, Ohio and Illinois, where the crop was regarded as a failure, the crop has turned out much better than was expected.

Concerning the business of pork packing, and prices in Kentucky, the Louisville Courier of last Saturday says: The Hog Slaughter.—The season is dragging and receipts light.

The excitement among the negroes of Richmond on the subject of being caught alive for dissection, continues.

On Tuesday morning last, a train of emigrants passed through town bound for Nebraska among whom was a young man about twenty-seven years of age.

Gen. Estabrook, of Omaha, has been put on the market by the publishers, Culver, Page & Hoynes, of Chicago.

According to the Springfield Republican Mrs. Sumner has returned and peace upon honorable terms has been established in the Sumner family.

Mr. Beecher's novel, "Norwood" is about to be dramatized for the benefit of the theatrical world generally.

The formal transfer of Russian America to the United States took place on the 8th of October.

The Shelby County (Mo.) Clerk's office was entered recently, the safe broken open and $10,000 in county funds stolen therefrom.
