TRIBUTE TO MERIT .- I take pleasure in informing the public that Dr. Kimberlin is in a fair way to accomplish what has been considered impossible by many Doctors professing a deep knowledge about the organ of hearing. My wife was afflicted for twenty-four years with partial deafness in both ears, threatening to destroy her hearing sooner or later. I consulted Dr. Kinberlin in the matter, and after a thorough examination of the ase, he undertook to treat her, and with such admirable success that he not only cured the imflam mation in her care, but there is also a fair prospect to restore my wife to her full hearing, especially as Dr. Kimberlin does not save any pains or care to give all possibl e refier to persons entrusting themselves to his treatment. Brownville, Dec. 12th, 1867 .- 11-3m A DDRESS TO THE NERVOUS AND DEBILITATed whose sufferings have been protracted from ment to render existence desirable. It you are suffering or bave suffered from involuntary discharges, wha effect does it produce upon your general health? Do you feel weak, debilitated, casily tired? Does alittle extra exertion produce palpitation of the heart? Does your liver, or urinary organs, or your kidneys fre-quautly set out of order? Is your urine sometimes thick, milky, or flocky, or is it ropy on setting? Or does a thick scum rise to the top? Or is a sediment at the bottom after it has stood awhile? Do you have spells of short breathing or dyspep in? Are your bowels constipated? Do you have spells of fainting or rushes of blood to the head? Is your memory im paired? Is your mind constantly dwelling upon this subject? Do you feel dull, listless, moping, tired of company, or life? Do you wish to be left alone, to get away from everybody? Does any little thing make ou start or jump? Is your sleep broken or restless? s the lustre of your eye as brilliant? The bloom on our cheek as bright? Do you enjoy yourseif in society as we. 1? Do you pursue your business with the same energy? Do you feel as much confidence in yourself? Are your spirits dull and flagging, given to fits of melancholy? If so, do not lay it to your liver or dyspersia. Have you restless nights? Your back weak your knees weak, and have but little apetile, and you attribute this to dyspepsia or liver complaint? Now, reader, self-abure, venerial diseases bauly cured, and sexual excesses, are all capable of producng a weakness of the generative organs. The organs of generation, when in perfect health, make the man. Did you ever think that those bold, defiant, energetic, persevering, successful business men are always those shose generative organs are in perfect heatth? You never near such men complain of being melancholly, of nervousness, of paipitation of the heart. They are never afraid they cannot succeed in business; they on't become sad and discouraged; they are always lite and pleasant in the tompany of ladies, and ook you and them right in the face-none of your owncast looks or any other meanness about them. I do not mean those who keep the organs inflamed by running to excess. These will not only ruin their onstitutions, but also those they do business with or
