KEISWETTER & EIRSMAN have just finished a fine, cool meat shop and provision store room on the Levee for the steamboat custom, by digging a house in the bluff on a level with the landing. We hope their enterprise will be amply rewarded. BUSINESS is fairly reviving, feeling the impulse of coming Spring. Every day our streets are full of teams and people from the country and strangers from the East. We predict that Brownville will be the present season do credit the business of the west.

MERCHANTS who desire to gain the German trade both in this and adjoining counties cannot do better than to advertise in the Pioneer, published in the German language by E. Sachs, in Angelo. It has a good circulation among the Germans of South Platte. THE LADIES' FRIEND, for March, is received, and is a splendid number. It is well filled with the latest Fashions, Patterns, Fancy Work and choice reading. It is a book that should grace every country table in the land. $2.50 per annum. Those buying lighters will find it to their advantage to call on Mr. Chaffe, if they wish to be supplied.

W. T. DEN—S. The Brickshill Hand Corn Sheller I bought of you I would recommend to farmers and others wishing to buy a good sheller. The best sheller ever used. Three hands can shell from 200 to 250 bushels per day. It shells it clean off of the smallest ears, which never saw any sheller do before. Writing it and you succeed, I am especially yours. H. W. SUTHERS.

FIRE.—Quite a destructive fire occurred on the Missouri bottom in Atchison county, Mo., last Monday night. The Saw Mill belonging to J. C. Yeager, located about two miles below the ferry landing, was burned to the ground, and everything about it that was combustible destroyed. The loss was about $2,000. No insurance. With his assistance, Mr. Yeager has already commenced rebuilding and putting the machinery in order and will start again in ten days. Such energy must win.

TESTIMONIAL.—In publishing the following we would say, in addition thereto, that Mr. Bennett said to us in private conversation that this company treated him about $50 better than he had any right to expect, inasmuch as he refused to deduct anything for material which was unenjoyed by the firm. Such action must place the Hartford high in public esteem.

BROWNVILLE, Neb., Feb. 26th, 1888. I have this day received of the Hartford Insurance Company, through John L. Colhapp, Esq., their Agent at this place, the sum of One Thousand Dollars, which full amount of insurance on my dwelling which I destroyed by fire on the 15th day of January, 1888. I, therefore, desire to return thanks to the Company for the prompt settlement of my loss, and take pleasure in recommending "The Hartford" to those wishing reliable indemnity against loss by fire. JOHN W. BARNETT.

WM. H. HOOPER, City Treasurer, is a sterling Republican and a faithful officer. Whenever such men are assembled with disparaging, untruthful reports, it becomes the duty of a faithful public journalist to gather the facts and set them before the public. The charge, that we refer to, is that Mr. Hooper, as City Treasurer, bought orders at a big price and therewith gobbled up all the cash that was paid in City taxes. To set this report at rest we have ascertained from the Collector that during 1887 the amount of City Taxes collected was $24,871.77; of this $2,429.59 was paid in Orders, and $22,442.18 in Cash; the Collector's per cent due in cash on the whole amount collected is $308.17, or $126.20 more than all the cash received. Now, where is the cash that Mr. Hooper can apply his "pocket full of orders" on. The duty incumbent upon a public to defend any good officer becomes a pleasure when that man is a Republican. We have a faithful, honest and efficient set of Republican City Officers.

I. O. G. T.—At a regular meeting of Brownville Lodge No. 210 of I. O. G. T. last Friday night, District Deputy G. W. C. T. Dundas installed the following persons as Officers of said Lodge for the next ensuing term:

Frederick Parker, W. O. T.; Miss Emma Carrell, W. H. S.; Mrs. M. F. Boyd, W. L. H. S.; Miss Mary Blackburn, W. T. T.; Jarvis S. Church, P. W. C. T.; D. L. Lewis, W. S.; Mrs. G. W. Darrow, W. A. S.; J. W. Potts, W. F. S.; W. A. Pollock, W. T.; Rev. W. S. Blackburn, W. C. G. B.; Henderson, W. M.; Mrs. Jarvis S. Church, W. A. M.; Miss Amastie McCord, W. L. G.; Andrus Peterson, W. O. G.

The Lodge was addressed by Rev. David Hart, of Peru Lodge, and by Mr. Dundas. The Lodge is in a prosperous condition and is working in harmony. It has a great work before it, a work which should command the united action of every well wisher of the good of the human race and the improvement of the Society. D. H. Lewis, W. S.
