A DDRESS TO THE NERVOUS AND DEBILITAThidden causes, and whose cases require prompt treat ment to render oxistence desirable. If you are suffer ing or have suffered from involuntary discharges, what effect does it produce upon your general health? Do you feel weak, debilitated, casily tired? Does alittle extra exertion produce palpitation of the heart? Does your liver, or urinary organs, or your kidneys frejuantly get out of order? Is your urine sometimes hick, mility, or flocky, or is it ropy on setting? Or loes a thick scum rise to the top ? Or is a sediment at the bottom after it has stood awhile? Bo you have pells of short breathing or dyspepsia? Are your nowels constiputed? Do you have spells of fainting or rushes of blood to the head? Is your memory im paired? Is your mind constantly dwelling upon this ubject? Do you feel dull, listless, moping, fired of company, or life? Do you wish to be left alone, to get away from everybody? Does any little thing make you start or jump? Is your sleep broken or restless? Is the instread your eye as brilliant? The bloom on your check as bright? Do you enjoy yourseif in society as we.1? Do you pursue your business with the same energy? Do you feel as much confidence in yourself? Are your spirits dull and flagging, given to fits of melancholy? If so, do not hay it to your liver or lyspepsia. Have you restless nights? Your back weak your knees weak, and have but little apstite, and you altribute this to dyspepsis or liver complaint?

Now, reader, solf-abuse, venerial diseases bauly ured, and sexual excesses, are all capable of produc ing a weakness of the generative organs. The organs generation, when in perfect health, make the man. Did you ever think that those bold, defant, energetic ersevering, successful business men are always those whose generative organs are in perfect heatth ? You ever hear such men complain of being melanchelly, of ervousness, of palpitation of the heart. They are never atraid they cannot succeed in business; they on't become sad and discouraged ; they are always olite and pleasant in the company of ladies, and ook you and them right in the face-none of your owncast looks or any other meanness about them. do not mean those who keep the organs inflamed by running to excess. These will not only rule their enstitutions, but also these they do business with or

How many men from badly sured diseases, from the effects of self-abuse and excess, have brought bout that state of weakness in those organs that has educed the general system so much as to induce al-nost every other disease-ldiocy, lunacy, garalysis, inal affections, suicide, and almost every other form disease which humanily is helr to, and the real cause of the trouble scarcely ever suspected, and have doctored for all but the right one.
