BROWNVILLE, THURSDAY, JAN. 7, 1809.

Congress re-assembled on the 5th. to have the Tenure of Office Law re- enlargement of the heart.

The people in the western part of this county are circulating petitions asking the Legislature to pass a general herd law. They wish some protection to their crops from the depredation of cattle while their hedge is growing.

The war of races so long predicted is about transpiring in the Ogechee District, Georgia, where trouble transmred at the late election. Negroes are arming, and so are the whites. Troops have been ordered to the scene of disturbance. Later advices state all quiet, the negroes baving surrendered to the military.

The Dubuque Weekly Times of last week gives an interesting account of the passage of the first train of cars over the Railroad bridge just completed across the Mississippi river at that point. Trains now pass regularly on the bridge. This makes the third bridge spanning the Mississippi-one at Clinton, one at Quincy, and this one at Dubuque. So much for northern energy and enterprise.

Messra, C. G. Clark & Co.:

Gentlemen, I see it a duty and pleasure to give you the benefit of my experience in the use of Coe's Cough Balsum. From taking a heavy cold, I was taken down with the congestion of the lungs, and continued to fail, under the best care until? I was given up by the most competant medical authority to die. There seemed nothing but strangulation and death before me. I was told that further medical attendance and medicine was useless, and I was resigned to death, when a friend, who had been greatly benefitted by using the Balsom, brought me a bottle. This was after I had done with the doctor and medicine, and I continued to improve, until my cough istopped, and my lungs healed, and got well. I used ten bottles. I remain, gents, with great respect.
