Ayer's Cherry Pectoral For Diseases of the Throat and Lungs, such as Coughs, Colds, Whooping Cough, Bronchitie, Asthma, and Consumption.

Probably never before in the wholk history of medicine, has enything won so widely and so de upon the confidence of mankind, as this excel men I has risen higher and higher in their entima tion, as It has become better known. Its antibru character and power to cure the various affection of the lungs and throat, have made it known as a re flable protector against them. Walls adapted by pilider forms of disease and to young children, it is at the same time the most effectual remedy that can be given for inciplont consumption, and the can gerous affections of the throat and hungs. As a provision against sudden attacks of Crown, it should be kept on hand in every family, and indeed as all are nometimes subject to colds and complex, all should be provided with this antidote for them.

Although settled Communication is thought incurable, still great numbers of oases where the disease seemed settled, have been complexely cured, and the patient restored to sound health by the Cherry Pectoral. So complete is its manutery over the disorders of the Longs and Throat, that the most obstinate of them yield to it. When nothing else could reach them, under the Gherry Pectoral they subside and disappear.

Singers and Public Speakers flud great protection from it. Author is always relieved and often wholly
