Nebraska Conference.

WEDNESDAY, March 31, 1869.

The Ninth Session of the Nebraska Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church began this morning at 9 o'clock, in the church building of that denomination in this city—Bishop Janes in the chair.

The Conference was opened with the sacrimental services.

Rev. H. T. Davis was chosen temporary Secretary, and the following ministers answered to their names, viz:

J. T. Cannon, Henry T. Davis, Martin Prichard, T. B. Lemon, John B. Maxfield, Jacob Adriance, C. W. Giddings, T. M. Munhall, W. B. Slaughter, Andrew J. Swarts, W. P. Grantham, J. J. Roberts, M. F. Shinn, J. W. Taylor, L. W. Smith, Andrew J. Folden, and H. C. Westwood.

The letters of transfer of Rev. Geo. S. Alexander, Rev. J. M. Adair, and Rev. D. H. May were presented to the Conference.

On motion Rev. Henry T. Davis was chosen Secretary, Rev. J. J. Roberts Assistant Secretary, and Rev. A. J. Swarts Statistical Secretary.

The Presiding elders were constituted a Committee on Nominations to Standing Committies and retired to make up their report.

Rev. A. G. White was appointed a committee of one to whom was referred the New York Book Concern Account.

Rev. J. C. Elliot, of the first Presbyterian Church; Rev. Mr. Reed, of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, of this city, and several visiting Methodist ministers, were formerly presented to the Conference by the Bishop.

The following standing committies were appointed.

Missions—The Presiding Elders.

Education—H. C. Westwood, M. Prichard, Geo. S. Alexander.

Tract Cause—F. L. Britt, T. M. Munhall.

Temperance—Jacob Adriance, W. S. Blackburn.

Bible Cause—A. G. White, J. L. Fort.

Sunday Schools—J. Adriance, L. M. Smith.

Conference Stewards and Necessitious Cases—A. G. White, J. B. Maxfield, M. F. Shinn.

To audit accounts of Presiding Elders—D. H. May, A. J. Swarts.

Church Extension—W. B. Slaughter, J. W. Taylor.

Post Offices—A. J. Folden, J. A Van Anda.

Periodicals—F. L. Britt, L. Janney.

Public Worship—C. W. Giddings, Geo. S. Alexander.

On Printing Minutes—The Secretaries.

The report was adopted.

Rev. A. J. Swarts passed an excellent examination, and was elected to Elder's orders.

Rev. J. T. Cannon, who has been on the superannuated list, given active work again. He was reinstated on the list.

Revs, J. G. Miller, J. L. Fort, H. Birch and Rev. Mr. Burns were continued in the superannuated relation.

On a call of the Districts Rev. Mr. Lemon, Presiding Elder of Omaha District, reported Church matters in his jurisdiction in promising condition. The ministers of his district in turu spoke in the highest terms of his ability, great activity and entire devotion to his duties.

Rev. C. W. Giddings, Presiding Elder of the Nebraska City District, reported the church growing, and a demand for work Westward. Communities and villages are rapidly growing up in the more westward parts of the State, outside of any organized charge, which require the ministrations of the church. The ministers in his jurisdiction all concurred in testifying to his faithfulness, earnestness and goodness and to his success in the practical duties of his station.

On the call of ministers the case of Rev. W. I. Nichols came up. No party appeared against Mr. Nicholas, and no charges had been filed. His character was passed. Nichols is now in Nevada, awaiting the action of this Conference.

At twelve the Bishop announced adjournment, the Doxology was sung and prayer made by Rev. Mr. Slaughter.

THURSDAY, April 1st, 1869.

Conference met at 9 o'clock, and was opened with religious services conducted by Rev. J. B. Maxfield

After the morning business of reading minutes, &c., Revs. F. L. Britt and H. P. Mann came forward to receive the Bishop's examination and charge previous to admission into full connection with the Conference.

At the close of this examination and charge the candidates retired, and having received the highest recommendations from their Presiding Elders, they were voted into full connection.

Rev. Geo. S. Alexander presented a blank to be used in collecting financial statistics of the church, and moved its adoption.

Rev. Mr. Slaughter warmly opposed the donation feature and moved it be stricken out. He thought it was no one's business how much donation a minister received.

Rev. Dr. Westwood, of Omaha, and Rev. H. T. Davis, of Lincoln, also opposed the donation feature. Rev. Mr. Presson and others engaged in the discussion, when finally it was voted to strike out the feature.

The blank as amended was adopted and ordered to be printed for use, and on motion Rev. Geo. S. Alexander was added to the committee on printing minutes.

Rev. Mr. Slaughter was restored, at his own request, to the effective work of the ministry.

A motion to adjourn till half-past seven this evening, when the Missionary sermon would be preached by Rev, Dr. Westwood, of Omaha, prevailed, and Rev. Mr. Lemon was named as the chairman of the evening by the Bishop.

The committee then announced their times and places of meeting, and at a few minutes past twelve o'clock the Doxology was sung, benediction pronounced by Rev. M. F. Shinn and Conference adjourned.

FRIDAY, April 3d, 1869.

Conference met at 9 o'clock and was opened with religious services conducted by Rev. Mr Hart.

After reading of minutes, &c., charges were filed against Rev. J. M. Chivington by Rev. Mr. Slaughter. The case was referred to the Presiding Elder of Mr. Chivington's District, for investigation according to Discipline.

Rev. Dr. Westwood, from the committee on Education, presented the following report:

WHEREAS, The cause of Education ever demands the fostering care of the people of God, and Educational Institutions, have always been considered the type of civilization and the necessary complement of the church; therefore,

Resolved, 1st. That in our judgment the time has come for this Conference to extend the advantages she offers to the youth of the State for thorough culture under the auspices of religion.

2d. That we recommend the establishment of one or more Conference Seminaries of high grade as soon as possible at such point or points as may be selected.

3d. That whenever such institutions may be established we pledge them our hearty sympathy and support.

4th. That we respectfully suggest the appointment of six commissioners, three of whom shall be ministers and three laymen, who shall examine the claims of various locations and report upon the same at the next session of this Conference.

The report was adopted, with direction that the Chair appoint the committee of ministers and laymen referred to in the report.

Rev. Mr. Shores, of the Methodist Church South, this city, was formally presented to the Conference by the Bishop. Also Rev. J. M. Taggart, of the Baptist Church.

The Committee on Temperance made the following report:

WHEREAS, Intemperance is the great sin of our age, extending its baleful influences through every part of our country and poisoning the very life blood of society; therefore,

Resolved, That as Christian ministers we will labor to the full extent of our powers to create a more healthy temperance sentiment and to extirpate this blighting curse from our land, by preaching and lecturing on the subject as often as practicable.

2nd. That we will use our influence against the election to office such candidates as are of intemperate habits.

3d. That as the order of Good Templars has proved a success in reclaiming the inebriate and checking the progress of intemperance in many places, it is our duty, by example and precept, to give this order our hearty support.

4th. That we commend the zeal and energy of many of the representatives in our State Legislature in their efforts to make the sale of intoxicating liquors subject to the petition of a majority in each of the precincts and cities of the State, which fair proposition was defeated by the whiskey influence in the Legislature.

5th. That the use of ale and domestic wine is an insidious and dangerous means of intemperance and unless used in case of extreme necessity and administered or prescribed by competent physicians is a violation of our general rules.

Respectfully submitted,
J. M. ADAIR,
W. S. BLACKBURN.

The introduction of this report called out, unexpectedly, a very lively discussion.

Dr. Westwood, suggested that the reference to the Good Templars be stricken out.

Rev. Mr. Presson was in favor of sticking strictly to the withholding of political support from any man of intemperate habits, no matter what party he belonged to.

Rev. Mr. Prichard took ground in favor of the entire report.

Rev. Mr. Alexander wanted the Conference to take the most radical ground on temperance. Especially he wanted the Good Templars endorsed.

Rev. Mr. Blackburn said Dr. Westwood was probable not aware that the Good Templars was the only live temperance organization in the State. He then referred to the good work the order was accomplishing in Brownand other river towns.

Dr. Westwood understood the Good Templar Sociables were made the occasion for dancing.

Rev. Mr. Alexander believed in striking at something and not at air. Mention something definite and live. Endorse and patronize such an institution and help its usefulness.

Rev. Mr. Maxfield thought the temperance cause might have been benefitted by this institution, but religion has suffered by it.

Rev. Mr. Johnson mentioned a place in Ohio where dancing and wickedness had prevailed before the establishment of a Templar Lodge.

Rev. Mr. Slaughter thought there is no harm in this feature of the report and no particular importance.

Rev. Mr. Lemon moved the following substitute:

Resolved, That we favor the organization of temperance societies throughout our State, and especially in our Sunday Schools.

This substitute received an affirmative vote and the report as amended was then adopted.

The committee to whom was referred the resolutions of the Lay Convention reported back the same and they were then adopted. They are as follows:

Resolved, That we recommend a camp meeting be held for each District at such places as may be determined by the District Stewards.

2nd. That the District Sewards of each District be requested to purchase suitable grounds in a central location for their annual meeting, and that the expense thereof be apportioned to the several circuits and stations on the District.

The Committee on the Accounts of Presiding Elders reported found correct.

Rev. W. D. Bingham, of the Baptist Church, of this city, was formally introduced to the Conference by the Bishop.

The Committee on Periodicals made a report in favor of Central Christian Advocate.

Rev. Mr. Johnson's character was passed and his effective relation continued.

The following were chosen officers of the Church Extension Society:

President—T. B. Lemon.
Vice President—C. W. Giddings.
Cor. Secretary—G. S. Alexander.
Treasurer—M. Prichard.
Rec. Secretary—J. B. Maxfield.
Clerical Managers—T. B. Lemon, C. W. Giddings, H. T. Davis, A. G. White, W. B. Slaughter, J. B. Maxfield.
Layman—Peter Shellhorn, G. W. Frost, Geo. Jennings, A. J. Cropsey, John Hictie, J. W. Blackburn.

Ordered that one thousand copies of the minutes of this session of Conference be printed, and that they be distributed to the several ministers pro rata.

At twelve o'clock the doxology was sung prayer made by Rev. W. D. Bingham of the Baptist Church, and adjournment was announced by the Bishop.

SATURDAY, April 3d, 1869.

Conference met at 9 o'clock. Religious service by Rev. J. L. Fort.

The following ministers were admitted on trial:

D. Marquette, F. M. Estabrook, J. W. Martin. Richard Burge and G. W. Elwood were re-admitted on their certificates of location.

Rev. Geo. W. Macy, local preacher, was elected to Deacon's orders.

Rev. Z. B. Thurman was re-admitted and a superannuated relation granted him.

A resolution was adopted appointing Rev. M. F. Shinn as Conference Sunday School Agent.

The relation of Rev. D. Hart as superannuate was continued.

Rev. C. C. Mabee, of the Des Moines Conference, was introduced.

The Stewards' Report was made by Rev. A. G. White. The following are the aggregates:

Gen. Custar's Operations.

ST. LOUIS, April 2.

A long report was received at military headquarters this morning from General Custar, detailing his operations in the field after breaking camp at Medicine Bluff Creek. Fresh signs of Indians were discovered on the 13th of March, and the whole command, numbering 1500 men moved forward rapidly, making daily marches two or three times as long as those of the Indians. Tents were burned and all blankets except one per man, and all surplus clothing shared the same fate. On the 15th they reached a camp ground which had been abandoned only two days before. About the same time a herd of ponies in charge of two Indians was discovered. Gen. Custar determined to capture the herd, and after proceeding some two miles, saw the Indians partially concealed behind the sand hills. After a good deal of signalling, eight of them came out, from whom Gen. Custar learned that 260 Cheyenne lodges were encamped within ten or twelve miles, 200 of which were directly in front on a small stream. Medicine Arrow, the Chief of the Cheyennes and several other noted chiefs then rode up. Among the two hundred lodges were those of the Dog soldiers, the most mischievous, blood-thirsty and barbarous band of Indians that infest the plains. Gen. Custar first intended to attack this village, but when he learned the Cheyennes held two white female captives, Mrs. Morgan and Miss White, he concluded not to do so, at least until he had these women out of the hands of the savages. He therefore went with Medicine Arrow to his lodge in the centre of the village, where the principal Chiefs assembled. Before entering the village, he perceived the greatest excitement, and noticed that everything was prepared for flight; and Custar thinks that had he then attacked them with his fatigued troops, he could not have effected more than a capture of their lodges. Custar ordered the arrest of two chiefs, Big Head and Bull Knife, intending to hold them under guard as hostages for the white women captives. After considerable parleying and only when the rope and tree were chosen, did the Indians deliver up their captives. The story of their treatment told by these captives is a recital of such barbarous cruelties and enormous indignities, that it is surprising that civilized beings could endure and survive. The Indians would have killed them had the village been attacked. The Indians express themselves heartily sick of the war, and are willing to go to that part of the country which has been designated for them, and are ready to submit to the decision of the Government authorities.

Gen. Custar says: We have taught the Indians that they are safe from us in no place and at no season; and also what some of our own people may doubt, that the white man can endure the inclemencies of winter better than can the Indians. He says also that the country and the hiding places of the Indians are now better known, and that he has many officers in his command who could conduct an expedition there without guides.

The General speaks highly of his officers and men, and he especially compliments the 10th Hussas Cavalry.

The General did not lose a single man of his command. He concludes his report with the following words:

I now hold the captive Cheyenne chiefs as hostages for the good behavior of their tribe, and for the fulfillment of the promise of the latter to come in and conform to the demands of the Government. This I consider is the end of the Indian war.

Tenure-of-Office Question.

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 27.—A couple of New York Congressmen, who called on the President last evening, report him as saying he regretted the action of the House, in rejecting the Senate modification of the tenure-of-office act. He seemed quite anxious to learn what the Senate would probably do on Monday about the matter, and when told that it might perhaps agree to its suspension till 1873, he said that modification would be better than suspension. He stated that he had informed many persons that the bill as fixed by the Senate was entirely satisfactory to him.

He said: "I am perfectly willing the Senate should pass upon all removals. I want to make the Senate more interested than I am in removal made on party grounds, and from the way I am pressed to make such removals, I should think the Senate would be
